EXCELLENT SHOW BY THE AMATEURS

A good audience at the Westholme Opera House last night enjoyed the programme provided by the Prince Rupert amateurs. The show although was first class. There were three excellent moving picture films, interspersed with a capital comic song by W. R. Whitley, a clever rendering of Rudyard Kipling's well known ballad, "Gunga Din," by G. S. Fitzmaurice, and fine singing of the well known song, "Out in the Deep," by A. Stowell. The little playlet, "The Luckiest Man," excellently staged and acted by Messrs. W. R. Whitley, A. Stowell and Mrs. H. R. Potts, completed a programme that ran twice without a hitch.

Next week the well known and popular Del Lawrence Stock Company will occupy the theatre, when everyone, including the amateurs, are looking forward to a treat. The latter will be working hard meanwhile to prepare new stuff to put on after the stock company has left.

REDCLIFF WILL SHIP ORE ON MONDAY

For the first time in the history of the Portland Canal mining district regular ore shipments are to be made, the Redcliff going on the shipping list on Monday. A contract has been made with the owners of the steamship Amur to carry the rich ore to the smelting plant at Tacoma.

At the Hotel Vancouver the other day Mr. A. Erskine Smith, president and general manager of the Redcliff Mining Company, made the announcement. Next Monday, according to the contract, the Amur will load a minimum of seven hundred tons of ore.

Operations have been conducted so as to place the property in condition to ship regularly at any time. Many tons of ore are on the dumps and the first shipment of seven hundred or more tons will hardly be noticed when the main dump is seen.

ELMENDORF IN VANCOUVER: MINE MISSION

In Vancouver for the last several days has been Mr. W. J. Elmendorf, consulting mining engineer of the Portland Canal Mining Company. It is reported his presence here has to do with the mooted consolidation of the Portland Canal, Stewart, Portland Wonder, Little Joe and other properties in the Bear River district, about midway between Stewart and the forks of Bear River and Bitter Creek. Should this consolidation become effective it is planned to drive a big tunnel to cut at depth the various ore bodies that are indicated to exist by surface prospecting. This tunnel would be about a mile long. With regard to the consolidation, Mr. Elmendorf at the Hotel Vancouver, declared there was no information to divulge.

WHAT THE ADVANCE MAN HAS TO SAY

The sale of seats for the engagement of the Del S. Lawrence Stock Company will open today. The box office of the Westholme Opera House will be open from 2 to 6 p. m. and seats can be reserved for any or all performances. The opening on Wednesday evening, July 17th, will be as already announced in these columns, "Pierre of the Plains," to be followed in the order named by "Going Some," a rollicking comedy from the pen of Rex Beach, and "St. Elmo," a dramatization of Augusta Evans Wilson's world renowned novel of the same title. These three plays will serve to illustrate the mastery of their art by the Lawrence players, differing as they do in locale, motive and treatment. Mr. Lawrence will appear in each one in a character admirably suited to him, and ably supported by his wife, Miss Beyers, and their talented associates. The balance of the plays to be produced during their engagement will be announced later.
