DANCE GIVEN AT ELKS' HOME

Large Number Attended Event Last Night Opened by Col. Burritt

Some 250 persons attended the dance held last night by the Elks in their home on Third Avenue. The program of the evening included a number of novel features which were much enjoyed and in connection with which special prizes were given.

The proceedings were opened with a few remarks by Lieut. Col. Royal Burritt, D.S.O. of Winnipeg, grand exalted ruler of the Elks' Lodge in Canada. This was followed by a dance "The Spirit of Carnival" by Miss Edna Ireland.

Presentation of prizes to ladies who sold the most tckets for the recent "Night in Bohemia" concert then took place. Mrs. A. T. Bailey was awarded the first prize; Miss Laura Frizzell and Miss Kathleen Stork, second (tied.)

The first prize in the fire alarm dance was won by E. Mack, second by Ed. Duccatte of Haysport, and third by H. F. Glassey. The first prize winner in the circle dance was Miss Bessie Derry.

John Pinder Moss was chairman of the committee in charge; E. Sabourin was master of ceremonies, and Lance Potterton presided at the door. Music was furnished by the Westholme Orchestra and refreshments were served at midnight.

A DELUSION.

Customer — The steak you serve seems smaller than the kind you gave last year.

Waiter — Merely a delusion, sir. We have enlarged the place since last year.

BIG CATHOLIC PARTY VISITS PRINCE RUPERT

Princess Louise Here With 150 'Frisco K.C.'s and Ladies

Included among the 290 tourist passengers who were here this morning on their way to Alaska aboard the C.P.R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. Arthur Slater, were 150 members of the San Francisco Council, Knights of Columbus, and their ladies. A program of entertainment had been arranged by the local council for the visitors but the fact that the steamer was in port earlier than had been expected from 6.30, to 8.30 — together with the unfavorable weather made it necessary to eliminate this. However, the party was met by A. D. Gillies, grand knight, and other members of the local council and the opportunity was afforded some of the visitors to see around the city.

The party will be back here next Wednesday afternoon and arrangements are being made for a baseball game to take place then between a team of members of the excursion and a local picked team. Charles Graham, owner of the Seals, San Francisco professional baseball team, who is one of the party, is organizing the visiting team and Fred Henning will get up the Prince Rupert team.

At the head of the San Francisco party is David F. Supple, supreme warden of the Knights of Columbus in California, and the trip is in charge of H. T. Dupont, as chairman of the voyage. With the party are several well known residents of San Francisco and other parts of California including three distinguished priests—Father Galvin of Mountain View, Father Flattley of San Francisco, and Father Tobin of Oakland. Some of the other prominent members of the party are: Dan O'Leary, chief customs examiner in San Francisco; Dr. R. E. O'Connor, chancellor of Angel's Gate, San Pedro; P. J. O'Connor, past deputy grand knight, Los Angeles; past grand knights Fuchs and Normandin of San Jose; and three members of the San Francisco police department, George F. Barry, John Lawless and W. Danahy.

Among the lady members of the party are Miss Frances O'Callahan, grand president of the Young Ladies' Institute; Miss Florence Herold, past grand regent of the Catholic Daughters of America; Miss Georgina O'Brien, sister of the San Francisco chief of police, and Miss Margaret Moretti, also of San Francisco.

PIANO RECITAL HELD YESTERDAY

Pupils of Charles Balagno Gave Pleasing Entertainment in Westholme Theatre

The annual recital by piano pupils of Charles Balagno took place yesterday afternoon in the Westholme Theatre. There was a good number of persons present, including the parents of the youthful performers. The manner in which the various soloists carried out their numbers testified to another year's careful and efficient training by Mr. Balagno.

The program was as follows:
Song of the Wind, Edwin Johnson.
At the Mill, Miss Mary Mazzei.
John Gilpin, Angus McDonald Raining, William Tobey.
Narcissus, Audrey Tremayne.
Under the Eaves, Evelyn Large.

FIGURED IN RESCUE JOB

Charlie Currie and Sydney Hunter on Way to Vancouver, Picked up Siberian Trader

The tugboat M.T.3., Capt. R. Green, returned from Ketchikan this week after having towed the disabled American schooner Chukotsk from Namu to that port for overhaul.

The schooner, under command of Capt. Weeding, was proceeding from Seattle to Siberia on a trading trip and broke her crankshaft when off China Hat. Assistance was rendered to the disabled craft by Charlie Currie and Sydney Hunter, who were proceeding south on a holiday aboard the former's power boat Ruby Mae. They successfully towed the crippled vessel into Namu where the M.T.3. picked her up. The Chukotsk will be overhauled in Ketchikan and will then proceed to Siberia.

After delivering her charge at Namu the Ruby Mae proceeded to Vancouver, reaching there on Sunday last in 79 hours travelling time from here.
