BUT OUT WEST WE HAVE SEEN MUCH WORSE.

Quoted elsewhere in this issue is an editorial published in the Toronto Globe during the Saskatchewan elections. It is evident that the methods of the Hon. Robert Rogers' nominees in the fray struck the Eastern Canadian mind with shocking effect. But rough and raw as the Rogers method certainly is, crude, cruel and false as is the advertisement attempting to compel Conservative support willy-nilly, there seems nothing in it especially unusual to those accustomed to election methods used by the same party in the west. The employment of fire wardens to influence votes, the presence of Provincial constables in the polling booths, the intimidation of ignorant electors in need of work on roads and trails, the use of Dominion government vessels for electioneering purposes—long experience of such abuses has insured the elector of British Columbia, the province of the Bowser and McBride influence, to trifle like threats to electors that they cannot get homesteads or security of tenure unless they vote Conservative.

DID YOU GET YOURS ALL RIGHT?

The following appeared as part of an Ottawa despatch on the front page of a morning paper recently:

"Ottawa, July 9.—Some Statistics are contained in the annual report of the Inland Revenue Department, showing a rapid increase in the consumption of liquor and tobacco in the Dominion during the last fiscal year.

"The consumption of spirits last year jumped to 1,030 gallons per head, as compared with 859 gallons per head for the preceding year, Canadians drank 859 gallons of beer per head last year, as compared with 5,434 gallons per head in 1910-11."

The reader will note that this provides for about the three gallons of whisky (to say nothing of beer) for every day for every man, woman and child in the whole of Canada. The question is: "Did you get yours? And if so, did it seem enough?"

BORDEN'S MYTHICAL DREADNOUGHTS.

Disillusioned and disappointed because of Mr. Borden's emphatic statement that the government of Canada has no intention of making an immediate contribution of two dreadnoughts to the British navy, the London Tory-Imperialists are seeking to discover the origin of the myth. That the contribution had been decided upon seems to have been very widely believed. The mythical Canadian dreadnoughts may already have been the cause of trouble to Great Britain, for the acceleration of the German ship building programme was quite possibly due in part to fear that the Borden dreadnoughts—like that of New Zealand—would be added to the British North Sea fleet. Whatever its origin, the dreadnought myth has been exploded, and if Germany has not yet begun to build real ships to match the dreadnoughts launched by the Montreal Star and Toronto News she should stay her hand. Paper ships—even newspaper ships—are not dangerous.—Toronto Globe.

Proctor, and eight briquettes showed an average tensile strength of 792 pounds to the square inch. Standard specifications call for 450 to 550 pounds to the square inch. The city specifications called for only 400 pounds to the square inch.

PEOPLE NOW DRESS IN PAPER TO SAVE CASH

London, July 16.—Though the problem of the high cost of living has not yet become so acute in this country as, to judge from the American correspondence in London papers, it has become in the United States, it is nevertheless sufficiently serious, and any method of reducing prices that is suggested is eagerly examined. The latest idea is clothing made of paper.

A representative of a large city firm of paper manufacturers states that they are at the present moment experimenting in the hope of producing a kind of paper really suitable for the making of clothes which can be sewn and hold buttons. "Paper towels are an excellent idea—these are made in Germany," he said.

Paper hats have been a fashion for some time. Instead of wearing washable cotton sunbonnets and caps, children can have each a new paper hat costing from 2 to 12 cents, which takes one item off the laundry bill.

Paper shirts are being produced at 12 cents apiece, while the cost of a paper handkerchief is 2 cents—the price of washing a linen one.

In the household, too, the washing bill can be largely reduced by using paper instead of linen, for now there are paper towels, paper table covers, white paper doilies, paper toilet mats, paper paper towels could be adapted to kitchen use for tea cloths, dusters and similar articles.

OLD COUNTRY MAKES GOOD SHOOTING

Bisley Camp, July 17.—The team representing the mother country today won the Kolapore Cup with 761 points. South Africa was second with 750, and Canada third with 746. Guernsey made 725 and India 724.

THE POLITE BURGLAR AGAIN IN EVIDENCE

San Francisco, July 16.—"Good morning. Your careless bartender locked me in last night while I was asleep in a back room," said a well dressed young man to Thomas Lawson when he opened his saloon yesterday morning. The young man bought a drink, asked Lawson's apologies and stepped out. Lawson discovered a few moments later that his safe had been blown and $300 taken.

CULTIVATE THE SPIRIT OF CONTENTMENT

Contentment is one of the greatest factors of happiness. Indeed it is more than that; it is another name for happiness. And there is nothing on earth so dangerous to contentment as being too much with people who have a great deal more of this world's goods than you.
