'OLIVETTE' TONIGHT BY BOSTONIANS
Lovers of old time comic operas will no doubt be out in force tonight to witness the production of Audran's masterpiece, "Olivette," as produced at the Westholme by the Juvenile Bostonians. Persons used to seeing Doris Canfield in red wig and indescribable unmentionables will hardly recognize her, garbed in beautiful blue silk tights, jacket and feather, as she appears in "Olivette," where her capabilities as an actress will have full swing. It will also be a surprise to see Patsie Henry, the rollicking "Barney" of the "Rose of Blandene" and the "White Pete" in "The Ransom" appear in feminine attire in the title role of "Olivette." It is said that Miss Henry handles this part in a satisfactory manner as she does that of a boy. If this is true, there will be nothing left to be desired in her portrayal of "Olivette."
As Valentine, Miss Thom Hellen has a role which will give her every opportunity to display her beautiful voice at its best. Tiny Stubby Myling will be given her first chance to display true ability to Prince Rupertites as "Coqueleot," which is the real comedy part of the piece. Her singing of "Bob Up Serenely" is said to be fully as good as that of some of her older predecessors in the plot.
The other members of the company are all happily cast, and no doubt "Olivette" will be well worth seeing.
Tomorrow night "Burtas Billions" will be presented. This is the piece in which the famous "Rum Tum Tiddle" song, in which Al. Jolson created such a furore at the New York Winter Garden, is sung.

NONE LEFT BUT LUNATICS ON EARTH
London, Aug. 7.—The vision of a mad world and an era of lunacy was prophesied by Dr. Forbes Winslow yesterday while expressing his dissent from the statement made at the Eugenics Congress by Dr. Mott, that increases in lunacy are more apparent than realized. He said: "There will be more lunatics in the world than sane people three hundred years hence. This prophecy is based on the present rate of growth of lunacy revealed by recent returns. We are rapidly approaching a mad world. In every part of the world civilization is advancing and so insanity is bound to advance. There were 36,762 lunatics in 1859; there are now 135,000."

A Hermit for Five Years
WHAT would make the greatest impression on a man who had been shut away from human intercourse and denied the use of newspapers for five years—what would most forcibly attract his attention—on regaining the society of his fellowmen?
"Well," you say, "he is fairly certain to be interested in learning whether there's been a change of Government."
True, and probably he will show mild excitement if you can tell him there's been a big war in Europe. But it won't be until you get down to a recital of things that come closer to him, personally, that you'll bring him to his feet with eager questioning.
Tell him a mighty empire has fallen, and—so long as it isn't his empire—a drop curtain of highly embroidered indifference will mask his face.
But tell him the automobile has been so simplified that he can now buy one for the price of a horse and buggy, and he'll promptly bombard you with questions.
Which is only another way of saying that the phonograph is of more personal interest than an earthquake.
You see how it is: Newspapers carry a "news of merchandise" that is just as interesting, just as vital, as the "news of events" which the editors gather for us.
And, since this "news of merchandise" finds its only expression in the form of Advertising, must we not admit that the Advertising columns are quite as worthy of our serious attention as the scariest "scare head" or the most ponderous editorial?
Shut your eyes to Advertising—and you shut out the news of commercial progress and development—the news of things that make life worth the living.
Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Bldg., Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write if interested.
