Names in the News

YORK, England—Lord Halifax died at his country home here in Yorkshire Wednesday night. The gaunt, shy British statesman who helped swing the United States against Nazi Germany in the Second World War was 78.

Former viceroy to India, foreign secretary and Britain's wartime ambassador in Washington, Halifax had been in bed two days with a chest complaint. His son and heir, Lord Irwin, said his father "was completely worn out."

In London Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd said Halifax had adorned all of his public offices with "his integrity, his idealism and his ability."

✦ ✦ ✦

VATICAN CITY—Pope John gave his Christmas blessing to 200 invalids he received in audience in the Vatican Palace's Consistorial Hall Wednesday. The Pope spent 30 minutes with the invalids, many of whom were in wheel chairs, walking among them and speaking with several.

✦ ✦ ✦

DENVER—For the third time in four years, Mrs. Wanda Umstead has borne twins without the aid of a physician. In each case the babies have been delivered by her husband, Clifton, 53, a mechanic. The newest babies —David and Debra—were born Monday at the two-bedroom trailer where the Umsteads live in suburban Adams City. There now are 11 children in the family.

✦ ✦ ✦

LONDON—Cecil Sprigge, 63, a former foreign correspondent for Reuters and the Manchester Guardian, died in London Tuesday night. Sprigge was a recognized authority on Italy.

LONDON—British Labor Leader Hugh Gaitskell will visit the United States and the West Indies during the present parliamentary adjournment, the Labor party announced here Wednesday night.

PARIS—Singer Edith Piaf today ended a week's "sleep cure" in a Paris suburban clinic but will stay there convalescing for another eight or 10 days, doctors said. Miss Piaf was taken to the clinic after collapsing during a tour of France. She was kept under heavy sedation for a week to ensure a complete rest.

AMMAN, Jordan — Crown Prince Mohammed, younger brother of King Hussein, has accepted invitations to visit Canada and the United States and will probably go there early next year, a government spokesman said Wednesday.

Mrs. Phyllis Pullen of the Peter Pan Shoppe leaves Monday by plane to spend the New Year holidays in Victoria. She plans to return the middle of January.

KELOWNA—Alderman R. D. Knox received from council a framed photo as a momento showing the presentation he made to Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip on behalf of the city during the Royal Tour last summer. Ald. Knox is retiring from council after 10 years' service.

VANCOUVER—North Vancouver city prosecutor Ronald Howard will study an RCMP report on complaints of alleged interference by Alderman Pat Burns during last Thursday's municipal elections. The complaints allege Ald. Burns carried out political activity in the vicinity of a polling booth.
