But we wish to make it clear that our sale is NOT YET FINISHED and that we are moving ONLY PART OF OUR STOCK. We invite a thorough inspection of our two stores. Whatever else in life you miss, don't miss this wonderful sale.

A PRETTY MARRIAGE IN K. OF P. HALL

The other evening a charming Swedish wedding ceremony was solemnized for the young people participating in it by Rev. F. W. Kerr. The bride was Miss Hanna Norman and the groom Mr. Alexander Oman. Both are well known and popular in Prince Rupert. The wedding took place in the K. of P. Hall and was celebrated in national style, the guests and the principals appearing in the Swedish gala day dress most effectively. After the ceremony rejoicing was general and a lavish repast was partaken of. The young people will reside in Rupert.

RAILWAY TO GROUNDHOG MOUNTAIN

A route map of a railway extending from Ground Hog Basin coal fields, at the headwaters of the Skeena river to tidewater on Portland Canal, has been filed with the Minister of Railways at Ottawa. The charter is owned by interests identified with the B. C. Anthracite Syndicate, which has acquired 47 claims in the district. The company was voted $6,400 per mile at the last session. Mr. Leon Benoit, of Winnipeg, is a director of this company, says Canadian Finance.

According to him coal seams varying from three to twenty ft. in thickness have been opened up on the company's claims. The coal is said to be pure anthracite.

Sir Donald Mann has acquired options on coal lands in the same basin, and has filed a route map at Victoria for a railway from these fields to Stewart on the Portland Canal.

A COSTLY SUNDAY VISITOR

Even an insurance agent sometimes forgets to take a necessary dose of his own medicine. The Insurance Press tells of a Brooklyn insurance man who owns a two family house in that burg and who lately found himself a defendant in a $20,000 damage suit because his tenant had a wife met with an accident on the Sunday visitor and the latter's insurance man's premises. The cover over a grating in his yard slipped when the wife of the tenant's visitor stepped on it, and she was thrown into the cellar, sustaining injuries which she values at $15,000. The husband is likewise suing the owner of the place for $5,000 for loss of the wife's services. After the accident happened the owner first consulted a lawyer for his defense and then promptly brought a public liability policy which cost him only $4. He says that he would willingly compromise the case by paying $300, but fears he will not get the chance to settle so easily. The need for such a policy is not realized by the average property owner till he has a loss.

WAR AND FINANCE IN ENGLAND

Discussion concerning the possibility of an Anglo-German war has somewhat overshadowed the British financial markets of late. Also social unrest in the old country continues unabated. The continued sagging of consols is now attracting attention from all quarters of the world, though Sir Felix Shuster, the eminent London banker, came out last week with an open prediction that consols would ultimately recover much of their great loss.

MERELY MABEL REMARKS

That the "doctor" certainly gave the boys the slip neatly this morning.

That the City of Seattle just wanted to get rid of a few barnacles.

That she'll miss the blooming of the Second Avenue rose garden now the series is ended.

That the chances are you'll find Roses and Callies still rivals tonight at the new alleys.

That the man who remarked "Thistle do" when the Scotch team won last night was shot at sight. At least he was half shot and looked it.

That the dog with a voice like the referee's whistle has been captured and collected for the Park Commission Zoo.

That the local vaudeville stars have recovered from the effects of the bright eyed Juveniles sufficiently to scintillate a little themselves tonight.

That when the girl wins the raffle the boy ran there's a chance that the fates will be as kind to the boy when it's a question of winning the girl.

That the cheapest corner lot in Rupert is out at Fairview, and once you take possession and occupy in person you'll never be troubled again by the tax man.

POSITION OF THE WORLD'S BIGGEST BANK

The Bank of England's showing last week was less favorable than that of the preceding week. There was a decrease in reserve of £1,193,000, as against a reserve increase of £214,000 for the preceding week. The proportion of the bank's reserve to liability last week was 48.65, as compared with 50.38 per cent. the preceding week, and 50.98 per cent. three weeks ago. The discount rate remained unchanged at 3 per cent.

A group of Montreal capitalists have secured about 1,000 acres of land fronting on Lake Deschenes, eight miles west of the city on the Ottawa River and near the new government rifle ranges.
