Must Be Coon Somewhere

(Bella Coola Courier.)

At a love-feast held at Prince Rupert in honor of H. S. Clements, M. P., and himself, Mr. William Manson is reported to have said that the opposition to the government's land policy was for nothing more than political reasons. Now Mr. Wiseman, a dog may sometimes bark up the wrong tree. Did you ever see a dog barking to the sky and smelling coons where there was no tree?

City Solicitor Got Changes

City Solicitor F. Peters while in Victoria spent considerable time with the municipal committee in the work on the new municipal act. He advocated several changes which he considered in the interests of Prince Rupert and several of these have been promised to be put in the bill as finally passed. Mr. Peters will make a formal report on the subject to the city council.
