THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

Pleasant Function at Kitsumkalum

At Kitsumkalum last week a very pleasant "At Home" was given at the Rectory in honor of Coronation Day. In the absence of Mrs. Marsh, wife of the Rector who is away in Victoria, her sister Miss Deacon received in her stead. The rooms were very pretty and cool with ferns and wild flowers as decorations, while the tea table was decorated with a pretty basket made of birch bark which was filled with lovely summer flowers gathered in the vicinity of the Rectory. Miss Groves assisted Miss Deacon in looking after her guests who were Mrs. Frank, Mrs. Hanson, Mrs. Gigguy, Mrs. Creelman, Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Vigor, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Blair, Mrs. Fortune, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Green, Mrs. McIntosh (of Prince Rupert) Miss Washburn and Miss Groves.

QUAINT CONSIGNMENT

Persian Kittens and Angora Rabbits Travel Together

An amusing consignment arrived "incognito" as the longshoremen put it, by the State of California. The consignment consists of a crate containing two funny little Persian kittens, and two splendid long-eared Angora rabbits. The party was getting along famously when the crate was landed. The kittens played with the rabbits' ears, and the rabbits mildly browsed on the kittens' silky fur. As yet the consignment is a mystery. but the Customs Dpeartment has charge of it.

Potato Salad

Boil six or eight medium-sized potatoes, chop them fine, also the whites of four hard-boiled eggs, three or four stalks of celery, a small piece of onion, and a few English walnut meats. Mix all together. Arrange a number of lettuce leaves upon a round platter, placing a large spoonful of the salad upon each leaf, garnishing the edges of the salad with halves of walnut meats. In the centre of the platter place a large ripe tomato (first scooping out a little of the pulp) and in this tomato shell place a bouquet of fringed parsley, dainty sprays of celery, well blanched, and, if you have them, nasturtium blossoms. Four dressing over the salad.

Spiced Mutton

Mix together a half teaspoonful each of ground cloves and allspice, one-wuarter of a teaspoonful of mace, one teaspoonful of black pepper and two teaspoonfuls of salt. In the under side and cut end of the leg of mutton rub half of this mixture and set away for 24 hours, then rub in the remainder. As soon as the hot oven has seared the surface of the meat, pour into the pan a half pint of boiling water, a half-cupful of vinegar and a tablespoonful of sugar. Baste the meat with this mixture, adding more water to the pan if needed.

VOGUE FOR BLACK AND WHITE

"Colors" That are No Colors are Fashionalbe This Season

The black and white mixtures stand beside the dark blues in the list of favorites, and there is far more variety in this line than ordinarily. The well-known shepherd plaids and broken chickenfoot checks are again in evidence, but there are numerous other neat little designs on the same general order. Tiny triangles or cubes or octagons set together point to point are a relief from the long familiar checks, and sometimes these little figures are so arranged as to give an irregular stripe line instead of an all-over design. There are, too, some very good-looking black and white checked stuffs which differ from the familiar shepherd plaids in weave rather than design, having a suggestion of the loose homespun quality in the weave, though they are comparatively smooth and firm and very light and supple.

There are some good black and white effects in basket weave, too, and all these designs, if in texture light enough for spring wear, make up into serviceable and charming one-piece models trimmed in black and, as a rule, relieved by a touch of color. Some of these models are of the utmost simplicity and made with a perfectly plain skirt with front and back panel and a plain bodice, with sleeve and body in one and a big collar of black satin extending to the girdle in front and of square sailor shape in the back.

RULER FOR PAINTERS

Helps Them Keep Straight Line When Doing Woodwork

One of the most difficult parts of the house painter's work is to paint the edge of woodwork abutting wall paper, window-pane or floor. Heretofore they have had to work carefully along the dege and fill in later. A New York man has invented a device which he calls the painter's timesaver, and which is in reality a ruler to guide the brush and prevent the smearing of anything over the line to be followed. The device is a piece of metal with a wide, straight edge and legs at the other end. The elevation affords room to hold it in the hand. The ruling edge is held along the edge of window sash of door jamb and the workman can paint along it rapidly without fear of consequences. The implement must be pressed down tight, so no paint works its way beneath. For people who like to do their own painting one of these rulers is almost indispensable.

THE SEA AND THE CHILD

A little child looked wonderingly
Within the magic of the sea.
The sea looked back, and softly
smiled,
Watching the wonder of the child.

And what the child saw, deep and far
Was all the mysteries that are:
All things that have been, and will be,
He saw these hovering in the sea.

And what the ocean saw as well,
Was all the secrets he could tell:
What had been, and what will be,
smiled
Within that little wondering child
—Hervey White, in "A Ship of Souls."

ITEMS OF .. SPORT

Tom Fisher, the old Southern league pitcher, is now managing the Anniston team in the Southeastern league.

Mickey Sheridan is cutting a noticeable swath in the second lightweight brigade and is worth watching.

The announcement that Billy Lauder had signed to meet Packey McFarland turns out to be premature.

✦ ✦ ✦

Sylvanius Gregg, the young Cleveland pitcher, has about everything a genuine big league shooter should have.

The champion Athletics started the season poorly, but when they finally caught the step they last no time in marching to the front. Now they are traveling right smart, and may get near enough Detroit to make trouble.

Bill Bergen is catching good ball for Brooklyn. The way the veteran shoots the ball around the diamond is as fine scenery as the Yosemite Valley.

"Young Cy" Young, who has travelled from the minors to the majors, from the majors back to the bushes, and returned once more to fast society, is pitching the winning kind for the White Sox.

In a recent game in Boston, Bill Sweeney, of the Rustlers, made a great record. Eleven chances without a bobble and five hits in five times up, was opposite Bill's name on the score card.

The Agecroft Rowing club (Manchester) will visit Norway shortly to row eight-oared and four-oared matches against the Christiania Rowing club. The King of Norway has presented a cup for the eight-oar match, and has expressed his intention to be present at the race.

At the National Duck and Candlepin Bowling Congress, being held at Lowell, Mass., a new world's record for a single string of candlepins was made by Hedbury, of the Commonwealth team of Worcester. Hedbury rolled 67 four pins better than the previou record. The $1,000 chanmionship match between Poepler and Martel v. Galway and Christopher has been postponed because of Galways illness.

Right away Matt Wells wants some American cash. The man who beat Freddy Welch for the Lonsdale belt and the title of lightweight champion had no sooner landed from a liner than he was matched. Wells has been doing his training at Chester, Pa. When training Wells wears heavy woolen gloves to protect his hands. He is reported to have improved 1000 per cent since his last visit to the States and up to the present has carried decisions from Leach, Cross and Pal Moore.

John Paul Jones, world's champion miler, whose latest achievement is the snatching of Tommy Conneff's scalp a few years ago, was a weakling, over whose chances the family doctor looked grave. He told Jones to go in for athletics in a mild way. That the forlorn hope took life; the measles was proved at Cambridge, when Jones romped home in 4:15 2-5, a champion. This wearer of the middle distance crown is a youth of 20 years and weighs but 145 pounds. He isn't what you would call "a husky," but he doesn't look like the narrow-chested, stoop-shouldered, spindle-shanked boy who was given but a few months to live.

Gr over Cleveland Alexander began his professional career at Galesburg, Ill., in 1909, and had won 15 out of 23 games when a thrown ball nicked his bean and he went to a hospital. While incarcerated he drew his release. Then followed the Syracuse engagement and his jump to fame as a member of the Horace Fogel-Charley Dooin combination. To date, Alexander, who was born Feburary 26, 1887, has been a sensation in the National league. His best performance was shutting out Cincinnati for eight innings, when called upon to do rescue work after another pitcher had been bombarded.
