All Want to Fight Longboat.

Since Tom Longboat, the Indian long distance runner, announced his intention to enter the ring as a lightweight boxer with the hope of developing into a heavyweight "white hope," he has been beseiged with challenges. The joke is that most of them are from men he has defeated on the running track, but who think that they can avenge themselves with their mitts.

Charlie Hefferon, the South African runner, is one who is anxious to have a bout with Longboat. He says: I am quite willing to box Longboat from one to twenty three-minute rounds. I have no science whatever, although I went to a boxing school in Africa under Barney Malone, the champion lightweight of that district. My weight is about 153 pounds. I don't say I can beat Tom, but I have my doubts whether he can make me hit the floor."

Joe Wagner, better known as the "Walkerton Bruiser," also wishes to challenge Longboat for a fight from six rounds up. Wagner was formerly a sparring partner of Tommy Burns, but has never fought a professional fight.

The Indian's mail bag is being loaded up every day with challenges.

Matt Wells Is Ill.

A cable despatch from London announces that Matt Wells, champion lightweight of England, just returned from America, is believed to be dying of erysipelas. The specialists refuse to hold out any hope for his recovery. Wells defeated Attell, Leach, Cross and Knockout Brown while in America, but failed to get a match with Wolgast or Packey McFarland. He was hardly ashore when stricken.

Yachting at Vancouver.

It has been decided that a big international regatta will be held at Vancouver under the auspices of the North West International Yacht Racing Association on July 1, 2 and 3 next. Plans were agreed on for the general outline of a restricted class eligible for the Alexandra trophy races, which is almost next in importance to the America cup.The unanimous support of the American yacht clubs as well as that of Victoria, which has been pledged for the holding of the big regatta.

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

PAPER BAG COOKERY

M. Soyers Famous Methods Can Be Applied by Any Housewife.

Every Prince Rupert housewife has probably heard of the invention of paper bag cookery by M. Soyer, the famous French chef and food expert. Food cooked in this way becomes most deliciously tender and retains all the nutritious and succulent juices of the meats and vegetables so treated.

By selecting clean, strong paper it is possible for any housewife to make the cookery bags by pasting the joints with a starch paste and greasing the bags well, after the paste is properly dry, except when the bag to cook vegetables is to have water added. The mouth of the bag should be clipped and closed with a wire paper clip.

To cook according to M. Soyer's directions you place bag is oven (gas, coal or oil) on grid shelves or wire broilers, never on solid shelves. Place seam side up always. Do not move or open bags when once placed for cooking. Put roasts and entrees on lower shelf, fish on the middle, pastry, etc., on the top where the heat is most intense. Have oven hot (200 degrees Fahr.) by lighting the gas eight minutes before putting in bag, then slack heat one-third to one-half as soon as the bag corners turn brown. Do not let bag touch sides of oven or the gas flames. Adhere to time given in recipes, then food will be well cooked.

Take up bag by slipping the lid of a tin pot underneath. To secure gravy, let out water, etc., stick a pinhole in bottom of bag and drain over a dish.

Except in case of pies, no dish should be used in paper bag cooking.

M. SOYER'S RECIPES.

Sirloin Round or Ribs of Beef —Grease well with droppings (but this is not absolutely necessary). Put the joint in a bag Do not season the joint before a moderate oven. For a three-pound joint allow forty-five minutes; a seven-pound joint, an hour and twenty minutes; fourteen pounds, two hours and fifteen minutes; 20 pounds, three hours.

Veal, mutton or pork can be cooked in the same way as beef. If a thick gravy is required roll the joint in flour before placing in the bag. Allow the same time as for beef.

Roast Chicken — Cover the breast of the fowl or chicken with butter or drippings, or, better still, tie a piece of fat bacon over it. Place in a bag and set on broiler in a hot oven. Allow twenty-five minutes for a small spring chicken, thirty-five minutes for a large fowl, forty-five to fifty minutes (according to size) for stuffed poultry or game, in a moderate oven.

Roast Turkey or Goose—Allow one and a quarter hours in a moderate oven; if stuffed, allow one hour and forty-five minutes to two hours, according to size.

Don't forget that you can find a complete line of Hand Bags, Suit Case Umbrellas with gold filled and sterling silver handles. Gray's Jewelry Store. Prices right. tf

HUSBANDS AND LOVERS

Is a Good Lover Sure to Prove a Good Husband?

The girl who expects to find a lover, clay in her hands, to mold whichever way she will, has much to learn. The average lover will do everything in the world to please the woman whose affection and esteem he craves. But even he will halt suddenly and often over some trifling affair, at that.

A husband is more in need of a mate whose wisdom he is not above listening to, since theirs is a life-long voyage, with no port to reach, where the captain might ship the mate, if that personage failed to please.

Lovers should be amenable to each other's influence; each willing to give way to the other, where it can be shown which is nearer right. No woman should marry a man over whom she has little or no influence, for he generally proves to be a martinet in the household.

Happiness certainly depends upon the wise choice of a mate. If a girl knows beforehand that she has no influence with a lover, how could she reasonably expect that he would be deferential to her opinion after marriage?

In wedlock there should be a unison of ideas, and a willingness of each to accept the judgment of the other. When a husband is obstinate and determined not to listen to reason the future cannot have a rosy outlook. He is apt to become set in his ways as the years roll on.

No girl should expect a lover to give her her own way in all things. If she errs in her judgment or insists upon that which she knows is not for her good, it is plainly his duty to show her where she is wrong and gently but firmly refuse to give her her way. Any woman must respect a manly man who has good judgment, knows when he is right and holds to his own true convictions.

What Is Your Family Worth?

If your family is worth the best you can afford in house and food and clothes, is it not worth the best reading as well? And the best reading—best for boys and girls, best for men and women—is to be found in The Youth's Companion.

Of stories alone The Companion will print nearly 300 in 1912. With all the rest of the paper thrown in, and counting the glorious long serial stories, they cost the subscriber less than a cent apiece. Moreover, you will look long before you will find stories so varied and interesting; stories of coolness in the face of peril, strange adventures with creatures of the forest and the sea; moving stories of life's obscure heroisms; stories breezy with good-natured humor, quaint and curious character sketches.

Now is the time to subscribe, for the new subscriber in Canada will receive free from the time his $2 is received all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1911, containing the opening chapters of Ralph D. Paine's great serial story of the Boxer rebellion, "The Cross and the Dragon." And there is the gift of The Companion calendar for 1912, "On the New England Coast," lithographed in ten colors and gold. Only $2 now to Canadian subscribers, but on January 1, 1912, the subscription price will be advanced to $2.25. The Youth's Companion, 144 Berkeley St., Boston, Mass. New subscriptions received at this office.

FIRST: "CATCH YOUR PRINTER"

DIRECTIONS FOR COOKING A HARE: FIRST:—"CATCH YOUR HARE"

To produce good printing you must "first catch your good printer. . . You can't get good printing from a poor printer, even if he work with never so good an equipment. If he lacks the "knack," the trained taste, the single-minded fondness for his work which real printers have, he will do poor printing for you. If he has all of these, and in addition to them adequate modern equipment, your printing will have distinction, salesmanship, the lure of type-beauty.

As this office produces good printing you may infer the presence of a good printer—who is "catchable."
