ANOTHER SUCCESS FOR AMATEURS

Last night at the Westholme Opera House a large and appreciative audience witnessed the regular Friday night amateur performance. That the entertainment offered by this popular and up-to-date little theatre is pleasing to the public is evidenced by the increasing patronage accorded. The excellent orchestra, first class pictures and pleasing variety of the addition of the performances given by local talent always ensure a big turnout on Friday evenings.

The several turns put on last evening by Messrs. Whitley, Stowell, Evitt, Corkindale and Prescott, the latter appearing for the first time in the city as a soloist, rendering "The Rosary" upon the euphonium in finished style, were received with loud applause by the audience. The turns were all of a high class classical order, relieved by a popular comic song in character by C. V. Evitt in his well known imitable style.

Altogether the show was highly successful, and with the efforts of the amateurs to get up some new, up-to-date sketches and musical turns promised in the near future the Friday night performances are assured of receiving the support of the Prince Rupert public even in a larger measure than they have in the past.

BUSY HOUR AT THE WHARF ON FRIDAY

There were four big boats strung along the G. T. P. wharf yesterday shortly after noon, giving an appearance of things doing, very gratifying to Prince Rupertites in view of the number of strangers there are in town. The C. P. R. steamer Princess Mary arrived from the south about the same time as the reliable old Camosun, the two G. T. P. boats, Prince John and Prince Albert, where also on the scene shortly afterward from their scheduled trips to the islands and Granby Bay.

MERELY MABEL REMARKS

That it makes no difference if he does keep the pound, they gotta quit kicking our dog catcher around.

That of course that loitering left off residence had got to go and stop just in the way of the guests at last night's society party.

That any unoccupied houses found wandering about Prince Rupert after dark in future will be taken to the pound.

That since the government sale Section Two has begun to get quite aristocratic, too, in value.

That a treasure hunting expedition to Kaien Island instead of Cocos Island would probably pay better.

That nobody saw the one and only at the Westholme amateur show last night, but he was there in spirit.

That everybody's doing it. What? Praying for a fine Labor Day.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY PLAN PICNIC Tugwell Island

In the good old style of Scotland, with a spice of highland hospitality thrown into the bargain, and all the warm hearted kindness of the Land of the Bard, the St. Andrew's Society have planned their Labor Day picnic to Tugwell Island. At 10 a. m. the boats leave the Rupert Marine wharf for the day's pleasure. The programme includes Scottish games, highland dancing, football and a' the fun o' the fair, putting the shot, tossing the caber, sprints, St. Andrew's marathon, three legged race, potato race, tug o' war, pie shies, a dish washing contest for ladies and a dozen other delights. The good things provided by a clever committee of wives and sweethearts of members taking care of the catering will be found a' richt, and even if the weather man frowns the picnic will be made a success in true Scottish style.

PROTEST AGAINST DECREE

London, Aug. 30.—Premier Asquith having refused to receive a deputation protesting against the Ne Temere decree, the Evangelical Alliance is preparing an imperial protest. In the autumn a great Protestant meeting will be held here, when the withdrawal of the edict throughout the Empire will be demanded.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION CONSIDERED

Woodstock, Aug. 30.—N. U. Rowell, leader of the opposition, today addressed a meeting on the question of workmen's compensation and announced that his party would support the government if it brought down a good measure, but that if that were not forthcoming the opposition would introduce the desired legislation. He favored a state collective plan similar to that of the State of Washington.

Mrs. G. S. Carl returned this morning on the Prince Rupert after a short visit to the south.
