THE RETIREMENT OF
HON. F. D. MONCK.

The rumored retirement of Hon. F. D. Monck, minister of public works in the Borden cabinet, comes as a sort of surprise, but it is a move that denotes great foresight on the part of the wily Monck, who realizes, no doubt, that the Conservative government cannot remain in power for longer than one term, and prefers the ease and security of a judgeship to the fight which must ensue to keep the Conservative government in power.

Or perhaps he has had an insight to Borden's naval policy and cannot reconcile it to his criticism of the Laurier policy in his pre-election speeches.

Probably the next move of the Premier will be to create a judgeship for Bourassa, so that he will be compelled to withdraw his tongue from politics and leave the government to drag forth the carefully guarded progeny of the Borden-Churchill combination without frightening it with the yelling of the tri-color waving Nationalist.

THE LATEST PAPER
IN NORTHERN B. C.

The first issue of the Masses Leader has been received and The News extends the management its heartiest congratulations on the appearance and style of the paper; and to the residents of Queen Charlotte for the establishment at the northern end of their rich islands of such a valuable medium of advertisement and intercourse.

D. R. Young, a well known newspaper man of the North, is publisher of the paper, and James Cullin, late of the Vancouver Sun, and formerly of Stewart, is editor. He is a very capable man and the Leader is fortunate indeed in securing a man of his ability who is so conversant with the conditions existing in this part of British Columbia.

NO WONDER UNITED STATES
WANT FREE TOLLS ON CANAL

DIRECTOR GENERAL BARRETT REPORTS TO UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT THAT THEIR COMMERCE WILL TAIL IN THE RACE FOR TRADE.

Washington, D.C., Sept. 27—Only about a year and a half remain before the Panama Canal will be open to commercial traffic. Unless the manufacturing, exporting, importing, and shipping interests of the United States exert themselves to the limit during the next eighteen months they will find that they will be distanced from the start by foreign competitors in deriving practical advantages from the Canal and the rapidly developing field of Latin America.

From his own study on the ground of European conditions and from reliable official reports received from both South America and Asia, Director General Barrett makes the above statement at the beginning of his report to the government.

The conclusion of Director General Barrett, is summed up in the statement that, while the United States Government and some of its commercial organizations and interests are doing much to get ready for the canal and to develop Pan American trade and deserve great credit for what they are doing, they must in view of these facts redouble and extend their efforts. Otherwise they will tail the international race for the trade of the Panama Canal and Latin America. They must make their slogan from now on without any let up: "Get ready for the Panama Canal and go after Pan American Commerce."

Mr. W. A. Pettigrew, who has been confined to his room suffering from a bad cold for the last few days, has returned to his duties at the government office.

The Rev. Prebendary H. E. Fox who has been attending the sessions of the Anglican Synod that have been held in this city during the past week, left for the south yesterday morning on the Prince George, accompanied by Mrs. Fox.

Don't All Speak at Once Boys

Dear Sir,—A young lady of fine qualities and pretty, wishes a gentleman correspondent, who has just as fine business qualities and is handsome.

I am under 25 and would like my gentleman correspondent to be under thirty.

Yours truly,

Berlin, Ont.

NOTE—The above was received through the mail from Berlin, and seem to indicate the lack of congenial male 'correspondents' in the East, so the enterprising young lady seeks her affinity in the Far West, where matrimonially inclined young men are supposed to be had for the asking, and as this is Leap Year, well, she is asking. If any man answering to the description, is tired of his lone existence he can be made happy for life.—Editor.

HON. F. MONK
WILL RETIRE

Rumor Current at Ottawa Says
Monk Will Leave Cabinet to Accept Quebec Judgeship.

Ottawa, Sept. 26.—Official announcement is made that the retirement of Hon. F. D. Monck, minister of public works, from the government to accept a position on the Quebec bench is expected shortly. His retirement is likely to be followed by the selection of L. R. Marshall, K. C., of Montreal, the leader of the Conservatives in the Quebec legislature.

Mr. Monck was for a long time the leader of the Conservative party in Dominion politics in the province of Quebec. On the accession to power of Right Hon. Mr. Borden he was selected as minister of public works.

The Reverend Canon and Mrs. Keene left yesterday morning on the Prince George on a short visit to Vancouver and Victoria.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Cawley, who have been residents of Stewart since pioneer days, passed through yesterday on the Prince George en route to Vancouver, where they are going to reside this winter.
