PUBLIC AFRAID CHINESE LOAN

Only Forty Per Cent. of the $45,000,000 Offered in London Taken Up.

London, Oct. 3.—The issue of the independent Chinese loan last week was a failure as far as the public was concerned. Only about 40 per cent. of the $45,000,000 offered was subscribed by the public, so that the underwriters had to take up the remaining 60 per cent. Charles Birch Crisp, the head of the syndicate, said that the number of applications, including those of the underwriters, was 5,860, and the amount asked for was $34,935,000. The loan is quoted at 1/4 per cent. discount. Mr. Crisp's associates say the additional Chinese loan of $10,000,000 being issued in Hamburg has no connection whatever with the Crisp loan.

ITALY-TURKEY TREATY SIGNED

Rumor Says Italy and Turkey Have Concluded Peace Negotiations and Treaty Is Ready.

English Capitalist Here.

H. H. Fuller, of London, England, accompanied by his son, C. D. Fuller, who has been a visitor to the city for the last few days, returned south this morning on the Prince George. Mr. Fuller, who is a man of considerable prominence in financial circles in London, is a specialist in land values, and although the trip to Prince Rupert was solely of the nature of a holiday, he took the keenest interest in the subject of this city's phenomenal growth and importance. He spent the entire day yesterday in the company of Mr. G. R. Naden in going over the townsite and showed the greatest interest and enthusiasm in the future of the city. His son made the run up to Hazelton and was extremely delighted with the trip.

(Special to Daily News.)

Westport, Conn., Oct. 4.—Eight persons met a horrible death here yesterday when the fast Springfield express, from Hartford to New York, running over the New Haven & Hartford road, was wrecked just west of this station.

Rushing toward a crossing at a terrific speed, the heavy train failed to take the cross-over from one track to another and jumped off the rails into the ditch. The mail, baggage and four Pullman cars were demolished and soon took fire.

The three men on the engine were killed instantly and five women passengers in the first Pullman coach also were killed, while numbers were injured.

The cries of those imprisoned in the burning cars and the moans and screams of the wounded and dying were terrifying.

Hundreds congregated around the wreck and aided in the work of rescuing those in the burning cars. Doctors hurried from all quarters of the city and the ambulances from the hospitals were on the scene within a short space of time.

LABOR LEADER WILL DESERT ASQUITH FOR SUFFRAGETTES

RAMSEY MACDONALD, LABOR LEADER, WILL ABANDON ASQUITH IF FRANCHISE IS NOT GRANTED TO WOMEN—HOME RULE DEBATE WILL BE SHORT.

(Special to Daily News.)

London, Oct. 3.—Ramsey MacDonald, leader of the British labor party, declares that he will desert the government if Premier Asquith does not consent to extend the franchise to women. It is doubted here that his action will have the support of all the labor members.

The debate on home rule promises to be very short and it is the intention of the government to have it pass the House before Christmas.

DUCHESS AND PRINCESS EAT LUNCH WITH ISLAND LOGGERS

DUCHESS AND DAUGHTER SPEND DAY AT SHAWNIGAN LAKE CAMP—DUKE GOES SHOOTING WITH SUCCESS—PARTY LEAVES CAPITAL FOR NEW WESTMINSTER AND EAST.

(Special to Daily News.)

Victoria, Oct. 3.—H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught spent a very pleasant day yesterday hunting on Moresby Island, where he secured a good bag of game.

During the absence of the Governor General on his hunting trip, H. R. H. Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia visited the logging camp of the Shawnigan Lake Lumber Co. at Shawnigan Lake. They were greatly interested in the operations of felling the great trees and shipping them to the mill, where they watched them being cut up. At noon they partook of the loggers' luncheon, which they apparently enjoyed very much, and on leaving shook hands with all the lumberjacks. They were given an enthusiastic send-off by the loggers.

On returning to Victoria the royal visitors embarked on the Princess Alice, which sailed this morning for New Westminster, where the day will be spent at the British Columbia fair, now in progress. They will leave tonight for interior points.

Canada's Borrowing Power.

London, Oct. 3.—A writer in the News and Leader declares that Canada is in too great a hurry to develop her marvellous resources and has been borrowing more than she can pay back. He draws attention to the fact that in the past seven years Canada has issued debentures amounting to $860,000,000. The articles have created serious alarm in financial circles here.
