JEALOUS MAN KILLS HIMSELF AFTER MURDERING HIS WIFE AND WOUNDING DETECTIVE

VANCOUVER RESERVISTS WILL RETURN TO WAR WITH TURKS

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING IN VANCOUVER ATTENDED BY FIFTY-SEVEN HUNDRED LOYAL SUBJECTS OF THE BALKAN STATES.

(Special to Daily News.)
Vancouver, Oct. 7.—With patriotism and unity as the predominant notes struck sympathetically for their respective governments, who are uniting in the war against Turkey, fifteen hundred Greeks, Montenegrins, Servians and other peoples of the Balkan peninsula, now residents in British Columbia, met yesterday and were addressed by their different leaders, who urged them to return to the seat of hostilities and battle with the despotic Turk for their absolute independence and freedom from his tyranny. The meeting was most enthusiastic, and it is believed that great numbers will leave immediately for the Balkans.

CAPTAIN CAMPBELL OF THE SOPHIA ESCAPES NARROWLY

CAPTAIN OF PRINCESS SOPHIA FALLS BETWEEN WHARF AND BOAT WHEN ATTEMPTING TO CLIMB ONTO WHARF—NOT HURT.

Captain Campbell, of the Princess Sophia, had a narrow escape from death or serious injury yesterday when the big steamer was docking.

Just as the travellers began to file across the gang plank, Captain Campbell endeavored to come ashore, but the crowd being too great about the plank, he called to a man on the wharf to give him a hand, and stepping onto the rail of the lower deck attempted to spring ashore.

His weight was too much and both men fell, one landing on the deck while the captain went down between the wharf and the piles. Luckily he fell between the pile and the boat and landed on the guard rail.

Ropes were thrown him, but he waved them aside and coolly rose to his feet and lighted a cigar before attempting the difficult task of working himself along the rail to an open port.

LOCAL JOTTINGS.

L. C. Machen, manager of the Prince Rupert Hardware Co., Ltd., was a passenger on the Prince Rupert this morning on a visit to the lower coast cities. Mr. Machen, who will only be away about two weeks, is going on business connected with his company.

Mr. A. J. Morris and Mrs. Morris left on the boat this morning for California, where they will make an extended visit. Mr. Morris has not been feeling very well lately and the trip to the South is for his health.

O. B. Perry, the well known mining engineer, and for several years past general manager for the vast Guggenheim interests in the Yukon, was a passenger south yesterday on the delayed C. P. R. steamer Princess Sophia.

Professor Douglas Leaves.
Professor Milton H. Douglas, the clever young son of Alderman Douglas, who has been in the city for the last two months, left on the Prince Rupert this morning for his home in Seattle. Professor Douglas whilst here produced the highly successful three nights' entertainment at the Westholme Opera House, known as the Kirmess, and also found time to follow his profession of instructor of dancing. His departure is a matter of regret to the numerous friends he has made during his short stay in Prince Rupert.

EUROPEAN POWERS WILL ATTEMPT TO STOP HOSTILITIES IN THE BALKANS

Representations to be Made to Turkey and States to Endeavor to Prevent Bloodshed—Great Britain Now Holds Balance

(Special to Daily News.)
Paris, Oct. 7.—War or peace between Turkey and the Balkan states is hanging in a balance awaiting the action of the powers. If anything the scales are tipped in favor of war in the sense that every hour delay by the powers in intervening increases the danger of hostilities. Great Britain holds the balance, as all the powers have accepted, with some modifications.

The French Premier's plan for intervention, but it is understood that Great Britain hesitates in going so far as to assume, with the other powers, responsibility for securing from Turkey such broad reforms in Macedonia.

Great Britain's delay is causing some uneasiness and censure in Paris.

Various frontier incidents continue to figure in reports, but apparently nothing serious enough to cause declared hostilities has yet occurred.

Paris, Oct. 7.—The European powers have decided to intervene in the Balkan in order to prevent war between the states and Turkey. Representations will be made to the states and at Constantinople as soon as arrangements can be made to that effect.

ASSAULT CASE IS ADJOURNED

Colored Man, Accused of Brutal Attack, Is Remanded Until Tomorrow.

Alex. Austin, the colored man charged with an assault upon Texas Curtis, a denizen of Comox avenue, came up on remand this morning before Magistrate Carss. The evidence of the complainant was given at some length, showing that the accused, whom she apparently had known before, came down to her house on the evening of the assault, took supper at her place, partaking of liquor which he had sent there previously that day.

Much of the evidence was of a nature unfit for publication, but the fact was established that the woman was undoubtedly attacked and injured in a most brutal fashion. Dr. Eggert, who attended her, subsequently attested to that fact. After taking the evidence of Albert Madore, the man who it is claimed came to her rescue, the case was adjourned until tomorrow morning.

DOOR FORCED; GOODS TAKEN

Gunsmith Claims That His Place Was Robbed and Police Refused to Help Him.

Edward Chyler, who keeps a gun store at the corner of Eighth street and Third avenue, on returning home last night found that the door of his shop had been forced open and a revolver and two boxes of cartridges stolen.

Entry had been effected through the rear door and the chisel with which it was obtained was left in the store.

Mr. Chyler asserts that he informed the police this morning of robbery and asked that they detail a man to look into the matter, but that he was told that the police were too busy to attend to him. He says that this is not the first occasion on which his store has been entered and money stolen.

Bishop Stringer, of the Yukon Territory, with headquarters at Dawson City, passed through the city yesterday on the Princess Sophia on his way to Victoria.

MISS GRAY TO STUDY DANCING

Popular Young Lady Accompanies Prof. Douglas to Seattle to Learn Terpsichorean Art.

Miss Ethel Gray, the popular and charming little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gray, left on the Prince Rupert this morning for Seattle, where she will take advanced lessons from Professor Douglas in stage and ballroom dancing, with the ultimate view of taking up the profession of an instructor herself, in all probability in this city. Miss Gray, who has delighted Prince Rupertites on more occasions than one can remember, both by her dancing and singing, is one of the cleverest young people who has ever appeared here, and her advance in the art and early return to the city will be eagerly watched and looked forward to.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams went south this morning on the Prince Rupert. Mr. Williams is inspector of fisheries for this Northern district, and has spent the entire summer here in connection with his official duties, going to Victoria now to make his report to the department.

JEALOUS MAN KILLS WIFE AND WOUNDS DETECTIVE; KILLS SELF

CALGARY REAL ESTATE MAN, CRAZED WITH JEALOUSY, KILLS WIFE AND PRIVATE DETECTIVE AND SHOOTS HIMSELF.

(Special to Daily News.)
Calgary, Oct. 7.—Crazed with jealousy and his inability to effect a reconciliation with his wife, John C. Davis, a wealthy real estate operator, shot and killed his wife, firing three bullets into her body, and seriously, if not fatally, wounded Miss Mildred Dixon, a private detective, and then turned the gun upon himself with fatal results.

The tragedy occurred at Miss Dixon's apartments at Seventeenth street and Fifth avenue, and was the result of marital troubles of more than a year's standing.

MAN ACCUSED OF ROBBERY IS SENT UP TO STAND HIS TRIAL

ERNEST BROWN, ALLEGED ROBBER, WAS COMMITTED FOR TRIAL—MR. CASLEY TOLD OF MIDNIGHT FLIGHT OF BURGLAR AND THE PURSUIT.

On account of the fact of the number of petty robberies that have occurred lately in the city, the police court was crowded this morning when the case of Ernest Brown, charged with breaking and entering the premises of George Frizzell's meat market and stealing $3.85 from the cash register, came up before the Magistrate.

Between midnight and 1 o'clock on Sunday morning, Mrs. Casley, Sunday morning Mrs. Casley, the wife of B. Casley, the proprietor of the Empress Hotel, looking out of one of the top windows of the hotel, saw immediately across the street a man climbing through the transom over the door of George Frizzell's meat market. She at once informed her husband, who in his apartment on the lower floor was in the act of retiring for the night.

In his slippers and bathrobe, Mr. Casley hurried downstairs into the Empress Cafe, and calling two of the men who were at the counter, they all three rushed out into the street just in time to see a man emerge in the manner of his entry to the meat market.

He made a dash for it, starting toward Seventh street, but doubled back and turned the corner at the Royal Hotel, heading toward the Salvation Army barracks, the others in pursuit.

Mr. Casley in giving his evidence, said that the man ran like a deer, but that he himself, hampered by his dressing gown and slippers, was soon outclassed and gave up the pursuit. However, about opposite the Pantorium the man fell and the other two came up with him, picking him up from the ground and straightening him up, as he appeared to have been injured on the head through falling.

Constable Cargill arriving on the scene almost immediately, the accused was taken to the police station.

Evidence was given by Mr. Frizzell, the proprietor of the premises entered, as to the amount of money taken from the register, and to the fact that the light, which he had left on in the office upon leaving for the night, was turned off upon his return when notified that a robbery had taken place in his shop.

The accused, who was apparently suffering considerably, presumably from the effects of the fall and confusion, had nothing to say in answer to the charge, except that he thought somebody must have hit him to cause the injury to his head.

He will come up for election this afternoon, as to whether he will take a speedy trial or wait for the assizes.

Under Suspended Sentence.

Thomas Lynch, the man who was charged with breaking into the premises of the Pantorium some days ago, and was let off on condition that he leave the city immediately, came up again this morning, charged with a further offense of annoying Mrs. Wilhelmina Rohloff, of the branch of Knott's Bakery on Second avenue, by demanding food under threats of violence. The Magistrate, taking a lenient view of the matter, and under a strict promise from the accused that he would give up drinking and leave the city, allowed the prisoner his liberty under suspended sentence of one week.

M. Cleland, general manager of the B. C. Importing Co., who has been visiting the local branch of the company in this city, left for the South again this morning on the Prince Rupert.

Luncheon by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church will be given in McIntyre Hall on Thursday, Oct. 10th, from 12 to 2. 238
