SPORT CLIPPINGS

Thirteen goals was an unlucky total, for the Cornwall Colts.

Bob Brown, the Vancouver baseball magnate, has turned down an offer of $35,000 for the Vancouver franchise in the Northwestern League.

Apparently the Royals were only toying with the Cornwall club all through the series, the goal summary bears this out.

Joe Lally will now have a chance to tell the folks down by the canal what a great (?) showing his pets made.

Dai Thomas, the former Welsh international rugby star, has not lost any of his old country form.

Jimmy Duffy won the annual Ward marathon at Toronto from a field of fifty. Corkery, Canada's hope in the Olympic marathon at Stockholm, Sweden, dropped out when he was in second place a few miles from the finish.

Manager Wattelet, of the Bees, states that he is going after a winner for next season. If he comes through O. K., the fans are willing to wait.

Tom Longboat, the famous redskin distance galloper, was after a race with Alf. Shrubb, in Vancouver, but was unable to find a promoter kind enough to give him dates.

Spokane beat the picked Seattle team 5 to 1 in the third game of the post-season exhibition series.

Matt McGrath, world's champion hammer thrower, added a new world's record to his string at Celtic Park, when he threw the 16-pound hammer with unlimited run and follow 191 feet 5 inches. The former record was 180 feet 1 inch by J. J. Flanagan on the same grounds three years ago.

The B. C. A. A. U. has appointed the following committees: Championship, D. O'Sullivan; registration, Dr. Davidson, M. Oppenheimer. Entries for the Gold Seal road race will close with Mr. Oppenheimer on October 24th.

A draw match was played at the Albion C. C. grounds on Saturday between elevens captained by Mr. E. W. Ismay (Albion) and Fred W. Reeves (Victoria C. C.), respectively. Mr. A. C. B. Gray played a splendid innings, retiring with fifty runs to his credit. He was also in first class form with the ball, taing five out of nine wickets.

The Ad. Wolgast-Joe Mandot fight announced to take place November 2, has been postponed until November 4.

The wrestling match between George Walker, amateur middleweight champion of Canada, and Peter Buzukos, one of the numerous claimants of the world's welterweight title, is scheduled for next Thursday night at Vancouver.

Eleven Northwestern League ball players are members of the .300 fraternity, according to the final averages. The nominal honor goes to "Chick" Hartley, the Philadelphia policeman, turned over to Spokane for Zimmerman by San Francisco. Hartley finished with the fine average of .386, but he took part in less than one-third of the games. Wilson of Seattle comes next with .345, but he also figured in about one-third of his team's games, so the real honor belongs to the veteran, Harry Meek, with .344. Meek led the league practically all season, being at times passed by Wuffli, McDowell and others, but always cheerfully regaining lost ground and stinging the ball at a consistent, steady clip, while rivals slumped.

"Hap" Myers of Spokane made the most hits, the most runs and the most stolen bases of any ball player in the league and ranked second to Meek. If a title could be handed to the man who was of the most value to his team's offense and that title should consider not only batting average, but run getting, Myers would be king. He has Meek outclassed after first base is reached.

Myers' base stealing record smashes any previous performance in Northwestern League history. You have to go back twenty years in the official guide books to find any record to compare with 116 stolen bases, and that includes every league in organized baseball for that time.

Mann of Seattle is the leading slugger. Mann not only got 26 home runs, coming within one of Artie Bues' all-time Northwestern record, but he got a lot of doubles. Strait, also of Seattle, comes next with 20 homers.

SCOTSMEN MAKE BEST PLAYERS

Out of the New Westminster lacrosse team, champions of the world, it has been found that five are Irish descent, two are English-Canadians, while nine are Scotch, with one, Tom Gifford, being born in the land of heather. It has always been suspected that the Irish made the best lacrosse players, but from the lineup of the champions it would seem that the Scotch have some claim. And, strange to say, the two Turnbulls are the men who give England as the country from which came their ancestors. That's a Scotch name anyway, so that it looks as if the champions had a clear title to lacrosse honors. As the Scotch have the reputation of hanging on to anything they possess, Cornwall cannot be surprised at the result.

PACKY IS RING WISE AND FAST

Stockyard Champion Never Takes Any Chances of Hurting Hands —Boxes to Save Them.

McFarland has been boxing eight years, has fought more than a hundred battles ranging from one round to twenty-five, and in that time has never taken the count.

He started out his career by knocking his opponents out in short order, winning his first six contests in that decisive fashion, all being won inside of six rounds.

It then began to dawn on McFarland that a skilled mechanic would be at a loss without his tools, and he realized that he must nurse his hands, not slug and try to knock a man's head off with each punch, but deliver his blows scientifically, block those of the slugger and avoid punishment.

Like all men who have studied real boxing, he soon discovered that it was far more pleasant to give than receive. From that day McFarland has truly been the wizard of the ring. He is proud of his defense and only during the past year, when a New York slugger reached him and blackened one of his eyes, McFarland was so ashamed of the discoloration that he passed up a $1,000 six round engagement in Philadelphia. No man has ever blackened his eyes before, and it is said he remained indoors away from his friends until the discoloration disappeared.
