Preston North End have not their sorrows to seek this season. In addition to the anything but encouraging work of their team, the club has lost one of the most valued officials, Mr. Tom Houghton. He died very

Summed up, it was a series which included the wildest mixture of brilliant and wretched playing, impossible catches and easy chances marred, wonderful and bush league pitching, desperate and dumb work on the bases—a veritable swirl of all that goes to make up baseball from every angle of the game.
