GRAHAM NEWS OF INTEREST

Four Scotch families are expected to arrive at Skidegate on the next boat. They will be employed by the B. C. Fisheries, and several cottages are being erected for them by the company.

The neighboring mountains received their first coating of snow or the season during the past week, and the sharp touch in the atmosphere in the mornings marks the approach of winter.

A concert and dance was held at Skidegate Indian village on Friday night. A large crowd attended and the selections played by the band were well rendered and highly appreciated.

The steamer British Empire arrived Saturday morning with a consignment of gasoline for the mill company and D. Cochrane. The captain reported that the Vado went on the rocks at Union Bay during a heavy fog. She had on board freight for the Premier Hotel and the B. C. Fisheries.

Charles M. Pomeroy, manager for the Queen Charlotte Mining Company at Cumshewa, was in town over Friday night on business. Mr. Pomeroy reports that development work at the mine is progressing satisfactorily and that several tons of ore are ready for shipment to the smelter.

Mrs. A. J. Gordon, of Skidegate, returned home last Monday from an extended holiday in Vancouver and other cities.

Mr. J. Walsh of Tl-EI River went south last Monday. He will visit Seattle and other coast cities before returning.

Max Ruff, Andy Christiansen and Charlie Heartley left on Thursday on a trapping expedition between Yakoun Lake and the west coast.

Mr. W. J. Sutton, for years geologist for the Dunsuir companies, and now with the successors, the Canadian Collieries (Dunsuir), Limited, recently gave an address in Victoria on Graham Island.

Samson Young, of Skidegate, has bought a new boat. It is 38 feet long and has an 18 horse power Fairbanks engine. It arrived on Wednesday afternoon from Jedway.

On one occasion (Eleanor A. Towle tells this story in "A Poet's Children"), being asked to meet an Irish enthusiast who spent about the country enlightening people's minds on the subject of Popish errors, Hartley Coleridge after dinner asked to be presented to the lecturer; and, taking his arm while the guests were gathered around, he addressed him with solemnity: "Sir, there are two great evils in Ireland," "There are indeed," replied the Irish guest, "but please to name them." "The first," Hartley resumed, "is Popery." "It is," cried the other, in emphatic acquiescence; "how wonderful you should have discovered it! Now, what is the second great evil?" "Protestantism," was Hartley's reply in a voice of thunder, as he ran away screaming with laughter.

"How's the chorus getting along?" "Oh, it's a howling success." "And the orchestra?" "All played out."

"Do you think he loves that girl?" "I couldn't tell you. You see, I have never gone to the same picnic with them."

SPLITS AND SPARES.

Pete Black, the genial proprietor of the Central Hotel, is rounding into form and is bowling a very consistent "160" game. Pete was a champion "sour dough" bowler in Dawson several years ago and thinks that when he gets his swing he will cover the 200 mark.

Dr. Clayton is looked forward to to do wonders for his team in the Hub House League.

Ackerberg is the admiration of the pin boys if their conversation can be taken as a criterion, for "he bowls like Ackerberg" can often be heard at the foot of the alleys.

The Empress alleys continue to breed champions, and it is whispered that they let the Hub tossers down easily the other night and that several teams from the Empress could win a six point game from the Second avenue bowlers.

How is it that the ball you reckoned you were going to make a strike with always gets twisted around your thumb?

Is it not queer how the ball that missed the strike gets blamed for being lop-sided?

Another queer thing is the regularity with which some fellow on the other alley always takes your favorite ball just when you want to use it.

If you had your opponent's luck you would make a strike every time, and he would be making splits.

NEWS NOTES OF THE GREAT WEST

The Calgary municipal street railway net earnings for the month of September were $13,000, an increase of nearly $6,000 over September, 1911.

In Red Deer the banquet to C. A. Julian-Sharmon, owner of the champion dairy cow of the British Empire, "Roselind of Old Basing," was attended by leading agriculturists all over the province. Representatives of cities from Lethbridge to Edmonton were present. Speeches were given by Duncan Marshall, minister of agriculture; J. S. Dennis, assistant to the president of the Canadian Pacific; Dr. J. C. Rutherford, superintendent of animal husbandry for the C. P. R.; C. A. Julian-Sharmon and others. Red Deer, formerly a wheat growing centre, and now of the dairying industry, is growing by leaps and bounds.

The Canadian Pacific Railway lets the contract for grading the twenty mile section between McBride Junction and Union Bay, on Vancouver Island.

In Vancouver—tourist travel this year was 25 per cent. higher than last. British immigration into the province was 50 per cent. higher.

The year's whaling catch was a thousand whales, including sixteen sperms.

Another bank established a branch in Vancouver.

The municipal census just completed gives Medicine Hat a population of over eleven thousand. The Dominion census in June, 1911, showed only 5,500.

In Saskatoon local improvements and taxes in the city this year return $930,000; last year the return was $527,000.
