THE EVOLUTION OF DRESS

1,000 YEARS AGO!

A.D. 1300 Men wore clothing of some sort, but never before in the history of the world has man been able to clothe himself so smartly and economically as he can to-day through us.

$20 Suit or Overcoat to Measure (Carriage and Duty Paid) for $8.60. (Valued by thousands of Clients at $20.)

There is a distinctive style and finish about a "Curzon" Suit or Overcoat which the "ready to wear" or low-priced made-to-measure garments now sold in Canada lack. There is no resemblance between them. Indeed the "Curzon" cut and finish is hardly equalled, even in garments sold by the best Custom Tailors, whose charges are always excessive, if not altogether prohibitive. There is just that ease and comfort about our garments which give the wearer a "well-to-do" appearance. Then there is the cloth to remember: Nothing but real British Materials every time.

Merely fill in a post card and address same to us as below, asking for our latest assortment of materials. Together with patterns, we send you fashion-plates and complete instructions for accurate self-measurement, tape measure, all sent free and carriage paid. We dispatch your order within seven days, and if you do not approve, return the goods and we will refund the money.

PRINCESS MAY ON WAY SOUTH

Many Old Timers and Former "Sour Doughs" on Way from Yukon to South for Winter.

The C. P. R. steamer Princess May, one of the most popular boats on the northern route between Skagway and Vancouver, having been plying on this inside passage since the early days of the Klondike gold rush, passed through on her way south on Saturday afternoon with a full complement of passengers. Amongst these were some of the original pioneers of the days of '98, including R. Eilbeck, late sheriff of the Yukon, now residing in the South, but who holds large mining interests in the northern territory, and Dr. Cattie, one of the first physicians to go up into the land of the midnight sun. The doctor, who is heavily interested in mining and other financial schemes in the North, besides being a most successful and popular medical man with an extensive practice, was well known for his high literary attainments, being probably the best read man that ever located north of 53. He is going south on a well earned vacation, expecting to return to the land of his choice in the early spring.

Mr. C. H. Thomas, of the Fulton Cash Market, is wearing one of those big smiles that "Dutch Cleanser" won't efface, for he is entertaining and will continue to do so at his house a winsome young miss who arrived on Saturday morning and has signified her intention of staying. Mother and child are both doing well.

Half a Million in Gold.

Seattle, Oct. 29.—On her last trip from the North the North-western brought half a million dollars in gold from Alaska. A quarter of this was from St. Michael and the rest from Nome.

Returned from Hazelton

Cy Peck, City Solicitor Peters, L. W. Patmore, A. Carss, W. E. Fisher, L. N. Linnell and Judge Young returned on Sunday's train from Hazelton, where the latter has been holding court. There were no cases of importance, but the party report having had a very enjoyable and interesting trip along the line of the new railroad. They are loud in their praises of the excellence of the roadbed and the evidences of progress all along the route.

Mr. Cousins, one of the prominent officials of the Mill Bay cannery, came in on the Prince John Sunday evening.

NEWS NOTES OF THE GREAT WEST

The announcement has been made of the locating of a paper manufactory, to cost $75,000, at Calgary. Work commences immediately and the factory will be in operation by the spring. They will use straw instead of pulp wood, utilizing what is now a waste product of the farms.

"LADY AUDLEY'S SECRET"

Photoplay of Mrs. Braddon's Book Will Be Produced at Majestic Theatre Tonight.

"Lady Audley's Secret," Mrs. Braddon's famous novel, dramatized and reproduced in moving pictures was shown at the Majestic Theatre last night. The production was by the famous Imp company, and it ranks the equal of any film they have marketed.

The scenes and settings for the play are excellent and the story grips and holds the interest of the audience. In the matter of detail the photoplay is perfect. Photoplay, with its real and natural settings and the earnest expressions and action of the actors is far more enlightening and instructive than the legitimate stage and the production of popular novels is a work that means much for the advancement of literature. The acting and general composition of "Lady Audley's Secret" is all that can be desired and should be seen by all who are familiar with Mrs. Braddon's writings.

In addition to this feature film, which will be shown for the last time this evening, several other interesting and instructive photoplays will be shown.
