200,000 business men are now wearing "Rego" clothes

The fact is significant; it means that 200,000 men recognize that "Rego" style is what they want, and that "Rego" quality and value are the right standard. "Rego" Clothiers are London's leading Tailors (with 23 shops in the Empire Metropolis), and they offer you high-class London tailoring at practically ready-made prices—or less.

"REGO" NEW YORK

American Model Lounge Suit. The cut and fashion of this superb model have been endorsed by experts as "the best American style of the year." It is the suit you should be wearing. The "New York" is only one of the many smart styles illustrated and fully described in our tailoring magazine

LOCAL JOTTINGS

Dr. McNeill leaves today on a ten days' trip to Victoria and Vancouver for the investigation of certain matters pertaining to immigration. He will be accompanied by Mrs. McNeill.

H. W. Vance, a very well known mining man of the North, for several years superintendent and later general manager of the Conrad Consolidated Mines Co. of Conrad, Yukon Territory, arrived from Seattle yesterday on the Camosun with the object of personally examining the new quartz strike in the Kitsumkalum Valley. Mr. Vance left for up the line on this morning's train.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles are preparing for a grand smoker and concert in the lodge room of the Knights of Pythias Hall on Wednesday evening, November 6.

Committed for Trial.

In the police court this morning before Magistrate McMullin the man, A. E. McKenzie, charged with attempted robbery from the person of William S. Williamson upon the premises of the Empress Hotel the day before yesterday, was committed for trial. A mix-up in the Comox avenue district, in which a man claims he was robbed of $125, with a counter charge against him of assault, the women involved being further charged with running a disorderly house, was adjourned by the magistrate until Monday morning.

Severe Storm.

One of the worst storms ever experienced on the Queen Charlottes started early on Thursday morning and continued with unabated fury for nearly twenty-four hours. The wind was from the southeast and was of hurricane force, doing considerable damage all along the coast. At Queen Charlotte the storm was severely felt. Boat houses belonging to Messrs. Smith and Kitson were completely demolished and swept away. The Moresby Island Lumber Co.'s property sustained some damage, several piles of lumber being blown down, as well as part of the smokestack of the sawmill, while the float was partly washed away. The telephone line between the post office and the wireless station was put out of business and it will be a week or two before it is in working order again, owing to the damage done by falling trees. At Skidegate a large tree fell on Fraser's new hotel building, completely wrecking it.—Queen Charlotte Islander.

Something New.

Have you seen the new range of shoes for winter at Scott, Froud & Co.'s? Inspection will convince you there are none better. Call in when passing.

A most delightful and entire-satisfying surprise party was given to the bachelors at the Bohemian mess last night by their lady and gentlemen friends, and a very pleasant evening was spent.

Good Advice

Rev. Father Vaughan gives this advice to old countrymen coming to this country: "Leave your eyeglasses at home and your knickerbockers and your hypochondriacs and your superiority; put on a pair of overalls, pull off your coat, roll up your sleeves and put your back into your work until you are through with it. Then instead of being all in, down and out you will come out on top and will become a useful member of an enterprising community, and not at all a bad advertisement for the Old Country."
