ITEMS OF SPORT!

Manager Nicholson of the Tecumseh claims to have twenty men under contract. As he can only play six, what is he going to do with the rest? Lend them to Lichtenhein.

It looks as if Fred Taylor will go west and play with one of the coast clubs this year. With Taylor, Johnston, Lalonde and Pitrie all slated for the coast the western hockey moguls look to have the best of the war.

They are trying to get Pittsburgh in the new International Hockey League. This would make a five club circuit, with Detroit, Hamilton, Syracuse, Victorias of Toronto and Pittsburgh.

Both Toronto professional teams are hot on the trail of Frank Rankin, the star of the Eaton O. H. A. champions.

Umpire Bill Brennan, who says he is going to sue Fogel for slander, basing damages at $25,000, is the latest addition from the baseball ranks to the stage. He is going out in vaudeville next week.

Many stars of the baseball firmament once shone on football fields. Mathewson was once famous for his drop kicking, Harry McCormick for his line plunging and Merkle for his end running and tackling. Few persons know that the Giants' first baseman once came from behind the speedy Heston, caught him and brought him down. Stahl was another hero of the gridiron.

The war dogs will be busy east and west now. At Montreal the N. H. A. will probably sharpen the knives for an attack on the coast leagues, while at Victoria the rugby footballers are scheduled for a clash both on the field and in the executive chamber.

Vancouver footballers are charged with showing the white feather by the Victoria Times because they entered a protest against an alleged professional. If the Victorians were so certain that their player was an amateur why did they consent to suspending him until his case was investigated?

Billy Moresby, Victoria's leading rugby official, is carrying a bunch of affidavits around with him. Of course, they are all directed to show that Vancouver footballers are pros. and are drawing down money. It is to laugh.

The Calgary newspapermen declare that the Canadian lightweight champion is lucky in not having had the "movies" record. They claim that they would show how far astray Burns was in giving the champion the benefit of a draw.

Major league baseball clubs are costly affairs. The Philadelphia Nationals are on the market, but the price seems to be somewhere around a million. Charles Webb Murphy was offered $1,000,000 the other day for the Chicago Cubs, but he knows that he isn't wanted in baseball by a great majority of the baseball fans and declared that he wouldn't sell at any price. Nice, accommodating fellow, eh?

Tommy Burns may be a prosperous Calgary merchant and a former ring celebrity, but he has no more right to talk of peddling the Canadian lightweight championship around than he has to call himself a champion.

LESTER PATRICK

While Lester Patrick was on his way back to the coast a few weeks ago, he came to terms with McLean whereby the latter was again to play point for the Royals. No contract was signed, however, and McLean, it is alleged, began dickering with several Eastern clubs with an idea of getting a boost in salary. Word to this effect only came to the ears of Mr. Patrick a few days ago, and he immediately wired the sign of the blue envelope to McLean.

Sutton Issues Challenge.

Chicago, Nov. 14. — George Sutton, who lost the 18.1 billiard championship to Ora Morningstar here last spring, has challenged the champion for a return match. Sutton left for New York on Saturday night.

In the talk of a possible sale of the Buffalo club of the International League, it is stated that the price put on the property was $75,000.

Improvement.

The father, anxious to impress his offspring with a spirit of thankfulness, repeated at the supper table, as he had often done before:

"Remember, children, when I was a boy I often went to bed hungry and seldom had a square meal."

She—Did they offer you any choice at the missionary bureau as to where you should be sent?

He—Yes, and I told them I'd prefer to go some place where the natives were vegetarians.—Boston Transcript.

Be Suspicious

BE suspicious of that of which nobody is proud. Be suspicious of the mere low-price argument offered in favor of an article with no reputation, no backer, no guarantor.

Better buy the thing you know and can trust, than an article unbranded and unvouched for.

The branded shoe, made by a maker with a reputation, is a safer shoe to buy than the one made in an unknown factory by an unknown maker.

The underwear made by a firm whose name is as familiar to you as your own, is worth more to you than underwear nameless or labelled by a maker of whom you have never heard.

Tea sealed in a packet bearing the name of a reputable firm is to be preferred to tea of which the packer is not sufficiently proud to advertise its quality.

That in which much money has been invested to make or keep it good is worth more than that on which nothing or but little has been spent.

Peace of mind is worth something, just as quality is. Buy peace of mind.

When you buy anything worth while buying, buy that of which you know—from advertisements, or from other dependable acquaintance. Buy the article with the "money back" guarantee—with the pledge of a known name behind it.

Put your faith in the advertisements appearing in good newspapers. Beware of the article that cannot stand the spot-light of publicity. The commodity an advertiser backs with his own money is something worth your buying.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumden Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
