NEWS NOTES OF THE GREAT WEST

Old Timer Here.

Harry Evans, who during the early pioneer days of Prince Rupert, when it consisted of Knoxville, Vickersville and Rupert Road, was probably one of its best known characters, passed through the city yesterday morning on the Princess May en route to Skagway. "Fatty" Evans, who amongst his many other accomplishments, was a "speiler" of no mean order, used to be seen at the G.T.P. wharf, in a uniform, that would have been the envy of the Lord High Admiral in "Pinafore," announcing the many excellencies of the historic Calumet restaurant and hotel, to the crowds of incoming passengers on the boats. It is as a piano tuner, though, that Harry will go down to fame, his ability in this line being a matter of almost international knowledge. He will return in a week or two, to spend some time in Rupert, in the prosecution of his caling.

to the scheme, and it was ultimately left for the city solicitor to look into and report to the Council later.

In the matter of the city's relations with the Prince Rupert Hydro-Electric Co., Ltd., the following motion was carried, the proposer being Alderman Clayton. "That the city would be prepared to buy power at the city gates, but not for the company to come within the city."

With very slight difference the council were unanimous in the opinion that this was the only wise and safe course to pursue. Alderman Clayton said that even if the city had to pay a little more for operation if controlled by the city, the money went into the pockets of the citizens. Experiences of other cities was in favor of holding on to civic franchises.

Alderman Douglas agreed with this entirely.

Ald. Morrissey was not in favor of turning the company down too harshly.

Ald. Montgomery did not think it necessary to let the company i nhere in order to cut off Port Edward.

Alderman Kerr was not wildly enthusiastic over what he deemed Alderman Morrissey's idea the company were a parcel of public philantrophists. It was the first charity company he had ever come across.

The mayor took very little part in the debate beyond stating emphatically that he would have nothing to do with any discussion other than the one of the city purchasing the power at the city gates.

In Victoria the Canadian Bank of Commerce have opened a branch at Oak Bay, the first bank in that municipality.
