THE LITTLE MOTHER

Griffith Stock Co. Will Present
"The Little Mother" To-Night Matinee To-Morrow

The play to be produced tonight by the Griffith Stock Co. at the Westholme Opera House is "The Little Mother." It is a very strong play, seldom produced for the reason that it is difficult matter to secure a child actress who can take the part of the little mother, but in Little Julia Fehr, the Griffith Stock Co. have a wonderful child actress whose ability will be proved this evening. Tomorrow afternoon for the benefit of the children a special matinee will be played.

The play itself is a strong dramatic play full of tender pathos and interesting scenes. Comedy is not forgotten, for two of the most comical characters are to be seen during the course of the entertainment, who will more than please. Misses Miller and Mitchell will be seen in their respective parts in some gowns, which are reported to be "real classy."

Recommendations in Jury's Presentment

and efficiently managed. We desire to recommend the early establishment of a small debts court in the city.

We desire to recommend the construction of a fire proof vault to be used by the Provincial Land Department, for safeguarding the records, in which the public are vitally interested.
In view of the expense incurred, in transporting prisoners as at present, to outside county goals, it is recommended that a county gaol be established in Prince Rupert as soon as possible.

We find that in a majority of the cases brought before us the cause has been through the illegal use of intoxicating liquor, and strongly urge, the strict enforcement of the liquor laws; and we further think that it is against the best interests of justice, that drunken men should be allowed to lie around the public rooms in hotels, more particularly after the closing hours for the bar.

FRED STORK,

Foreman
The Hon. Gordon Hunter, Chief Justice of British Columbia.

The Chief Justice upon being presented with the Grand Jury's address of welcome and representations, thanked them for the kindly allusion to himself, commending them for their zealous-ness in the interests of the citizens in making the recommendations embodied in their report, which would be immediately forwarded to the authorities at Victoria. In furtherance of their desires, they might rest assured that anything that was within his power to add weight to the recommendations, would be used by himself in the interests of the citizens of Prince Rupert.

FISHERY BOARD

Order in Council Appoints Advisory Board to Help Government in Fisheries Matters

(Special to Daily News.)

Ottawa, Nov. 22—An order-in-council has created a fisheries advisory board of Canada. Each province is represented. British Columbia is to have three members, one representing the canners, one the salmon fishers, and the other the deep sea fishermen. An annual conference will be held to help in legislating to the best advantage for the protection of the fisheries.

Tomorrow afternoon the Griffith Stock Company will give a matinee for the benefit of the children and grown-ups who are unable to be present at the evening performance. "The Little Mother" will be presented.

House Adjourns

Ottawa, Nov. 22—Neither Hon.
R. L. Borden or Sir Wilfrid Laurier were present when the speech from the throne was being read.
After the introduction of new members the House adjourned until Monday.
