Tissue of Falsehoods.

Now comes Joe Woodman, manager of Sam Langford, with a deep sea affidavit in which he sets forth that Grover Hayes and Willis Stuart lied when they gave out on their return to this country that Australia was little better than a deadfall and a man-trap for American pugilists. The following is Woodman's statement: "The Hayes-Stuart story is a tissue of falsehoods. Langford, myself and all visiting boxers never received better treatment elsewhere than in Australia."

Pal Brown—Scaler Bout.

BAYLEY IS READY TO ACCEPT BURNS' TERMS

Lightweight Champion Will Receive $1,700 for Title Bout with Dick Hyland.

Victoria, Nov. 22.—Joe Bayley, the lightweight champion of Canada, has practically agreed to accept Tommy Burns' latest terms for a fight with Dick Hyland in Calgary. Not long ago Burns changed his offer of a split of 60 per cent. of the receipts to $1,200 and Bayley turned it down flat. Now Burns offers $1,700 and three round trip tickets which amounts approximately to $2,000, and the champion is considering it very strongly.

Bayley is to have his choice of referees. He has in mind Freddie Lowes, "Cap" Stewart of Calgary, Bob McDonald of Edmonton and Jimmy Hewitt of Vancouver. Any one of these men will suit him.

The fight will be under clean break rules, and it may be said right now that Bayley has not any doubt whatever of his ability to beat the challenger.

WOLVERTON BACK TO BERTH ON COAST

Will Take Charge of Sacramento and Will Be Highest Priced Man on Circuit.

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 23.—A message from Jack Atkin, chief owner of the Sacramento Coast League club, who is now in Los Angeles, advised Manager Charley Graham that nothing now stands in the way of signing Harry Wolverton, former leader of the New York Yankees as leader of the Senators for 1913. Graham at once forwarded a contract to Wolverton, who is now wintering in Philadelphia, and Sacramento's quest for managerial material for next year is at an end.

The last point of doubt was cleared up by Atkin's ratification of Wolverton's demand that he be allowed to purchase his release at a specified price at the end of the 1913 season should he not care to continue with Sacramento.

Although no figures have been given out, Atkin and Graham say Wolverton will be the highest salaried manager in the Coast League. He will have absolute control in the selecting of players and will also make his own decision as to whether he will be a bench or playing manager. The Sacramento owners believe that his playing will be limited to that of pinch hitting, in which capacity he finished the American League season this year in the 300 class.

Graham forwarded to Wolverton the full details of all deals now pending for new players for 1913, also a complete review of the players now under reserve and contract with the club.

CALGARY FIGHT FANS ARE AFTER TOMMY

That the former heavyweight champion does not enjoy the popularity he fondly imagined he basked in is evident from the tone of the letters which are being sent daily to the sporting editors of the Calgary papers.

It appears foolish of Burns to try to dictate to the ring champions of Canada, and he has made himself the laughing stock of the country by his attempts to bully Bayley into a fight which would result in a boost of T. Burns' bank roll. His presentation of the championship belt to Dick Hyland is the biggest sporting joke of the year, outside the interview that Tommy gave out a few months ago to the effect that he was going to return to the ring. Hyland, no doubt, was threatened with being blacklisted unless he accepted the honor.

Mr. Burns will now go ahead and stage a few "championship" bouts, but from the outcry that is being raised around Calgary he has not succeeded in pulling the wool over the eyes of the ex-prairie fight fans as he supposed he would, when he hung up that new belt.—Victoria Times.

Hogan Is Through.
As a result of his successive defeats by Frankie Burns and Leach Cross, "One Round" Hogan, who not so very long ago was heralded as a promising aspirant for the lightweight crown, has decided to retire from the ring. He was a big card a year or so ago and made big money, so he should not have much trouble keeping the wolf from the door.

FRED TAYLOR SIGNS TO PLAY HOCKEY ON COAST

Eastern Star Signs Contract With Patrick to Come West and Play

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 23.—Fred Taylor, the hockey star just signed up by the Patricks, will leave for the coast on Friday night, and $2,200 is the figure at which Fred signed up to play for the B. C. League. This includes transportation. Fred announced that there are others who intended to jump and that the east would rue starting a war with the coast magnates.

It was hinted that the Wanderers, Canadians and Quebec would miss some of their best men when things finally settled down again.

In Taylor, Ottawa loses a most sensational player. The wonderful Listowell player has probably the largest following of any individual hockey star playing the game. The fact that Fred Taylor played on a team was enough to draw out the crowds.

Taylor said the Patricks are also after Lesueur, Ottawa's goal tender.

Taylor is an ardent advocate of the seven man game, and the determination of the N. H. A. to stick by the six man rule had a lot to do with his migration to the coast. He thinks that the six man hockey tends to produce an individual play and that combination play suits the spectators better than an individual rush.

He also declares the six man style a "man killer," forcing a player to go sixty minutes practically without a rest. "It might be all right on a small rink, where seven men would be a crowd, but with the big rinks we have in the N. H. A. I don't see the need of it," says Fred. "Seven men on the ice are none too many. With the six men style the forwards are called upon to do so much that they can't check back as they ought to, and this makes it hard on a defence."
