For Mary, Molher of Jesus

Joseph, the Bible relates, had to prove his faith in and love for Mary before they were married. It is one of the great love stories of all times.

When Joseph thought of Mary. he locat the deference in their example, he had just about made ages, she was the girl be had up his mind to put her away waited for, his beloved. They privily. That is, he thought he were esponsed or, as we would had made up his mind. In his say, engaged which was almost heart, he knew he couldn't; what as official as being married. His would become of her . . . of her heart source on wings of the ap-ehild proaching wedding day, and

What Mary maisted had come to pass, simply could not be Joseph wanted desperately to be-Heve Mary but such things just didn't happen, and if they did, they happened to comebody class.

Much as he loved Mary, Joseph was a righteous and God-fearing man and while he couldn't even think of malling her a public

Then one night, after he had exhausted himself with tortured / thinking, he fell asteep and the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying:

"Joseph, thou son of Dayld, fear not . . ."

And when Joseph awoke, he did as the angel had bidden him, and took Mary as his lawful and cherished wife.

"Fear not," the angel spoke unto Joseph, "Fear not," the angel had declared unto Mary. "Fear not," the angel spoke unto the shepherds of Bethie-

Christmas Once Banned

The Puritan government of England outlawed Christmas at 1043. With the restoration of the Stuarts Christmas customs and traditions regained its former prodize in England.

It is observed religiously in the churches and as a day for family. reumions and social gatherings, in contrast to the lavish feasting and boisterous merry-making of olden time.

Merry-making and gift - giving come in for their share, however, on December 26 which is Boxing Day. The origin of Boxing Day antedates Christmas and can be traced to the custom of gift-giving during the Roman testival of Saturnalia,

In Christian liturgy December 26 is observed as the feast of St. Stephen, the first Christian martyr, and during the centuries when journeymen and apprentices were in the habit of levying upon their masters' customers, "Christmas Boxes" were collected on St. Stephen's Day
