THE SWEETEST CALL OF ALL

You talk of the track and the paddock,
Of the pastimes of princes and kings,
You may follow the students of Queensbury rules
At the side of the roped sawdust rings;
But the call of the diamond is sweetest,
And joy overflows from his cup
When the fan sealed high in the bleachers
Hears the umpire's command,
"Batter up!"
We all know the charm of the woodland
And the lure of the clear mountain brook,
Where the trout in the shadowy waters
Are trapped by the fly and the hook;
But the brain thrills with keener sensations
As the thousands surge in thru the gate,
And the air rings with wild exhortations
When the batsman steps up to the plate.

The epicure gets indigestion
And is cut down to hot milk and toast,
The dancing fraternity lose lots of sleep
From the hours when its needed
But the bleacher bathes in the the most;
sunshine
And is charged with no extra expense
When a liner propelled by his favorite's bat
Takes a plank from the centre field fence.
In the warm afternoons of the summer
We close up the office and shop
And hie ourselves out to the ball grounds
—a revel in peanuts and pop.
Where the roar of the stands wakes the echoes
Like the booming of 43-inch guns,
And the scorers grow hot with excitement
As they chalk up the hits and the runs.

The lure of the ball game grows stronger,
The call of the diamond more clear,
The ranks of the fans are increasing
As the game grows in favor each year.
We all know it's played on the level;
Lets give it our loyal support
And foster the spirit of manhood it breeds
Which has made it a national sport.

—By Richard Wright

Marking Linen.

Marking linen prettily presents no difficulties and greatly adds to its individual charm. The style of letters chosen is, of course, a matter of personal taste, some people giving the preference to old English and others choosing to fill in the initials quickly with close Turkish stitch or plain French embroidered work. Just at the moment fashion favors a straight, rather severe letter, simply worked with strands of soft Moravian cotton.

Strange Accident.

An extraordinary accident took place on a Euston express train, north of Crewe (Chester), the other day. As the train was travelling at full speed the driver noticed that the communication cord was strained. He stopped the train, and it was found that a signalman had fallen off a signal arch on the top of the train and had been killed. The weight of his body on the communication chain had sounded the alarm on the engine.

Scouts' Good Work.

Smart work by Boy Scouts in finding a lost child is reported from Dunmow (Essex). On a recent evening a little child was lost at Little Easton. This was reported to Scoutmaster Luckin, who has the distinction of having recently been decorated with the Silver Wolf badge, the highest in the Boy Scout movement. Luckin collected his Boy Scouts, divided them in sections, mapped out the country thoroughly and, at 9 o'clock in the evening they started in eight sections to beat the neighborhood. As they were getting to the end of the third section, about 11 o'clock, a child was heard crying. On searching they found the little child in the centre of a wood.

HARRIMAN MERGER WAS ILLEGAL SAYS COURT

Union Pacific and Southern Pacific Roads Must Dissolve Says Judgment.

Washington, Dec. 3. — The United States Supreme Court ordered the immediate dissolution of the Harriman merger of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads.
The government started its suit in 1907, and the Supreme Court's decision sustains every one of the government's contentions. The combination, the court ruled, is doing business in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.
The plea of the railroad attorneys, asking invocation of the "rule of reason" to the merger, was refused by the court, it being held that the defendants "unreasonably" restrained trade.
The ownership of 45 per cent. of all the Southern Pacific stock by the Harriman interests was declared illegal. The Harriman interests in the Santa Fe and Salt Lake railroads also was held to be illegal.

ARMISTICE IS SIGNED WITH BALKAN STATES

Peace in Sight for Turkey—Greece Has Not Yet Signed.

Constantinople, Dec. 5.—It was officially announced yesterday evening that an armistice has been signed between Turkey and Bulgaria, Servia and Montenegro. Greece has not yet signed the treaty and this may signify that they will continue the warfare. The peace negotiations took place in London.

A Bright Idea.

The head of a manufacturing concern who built up his business from nothing by his own dogged and persistent toil, and who has never felt that he could spare the time for a vacation, not long ago decided that he was entitled to a rest. Calling his son into the library, he said:
"Tom, I've worked pretty hard for quite a while now, and have done very well, so I have decided to retire and turn the business over to you. What do you say?"
The young man pondered the situation gravely. Then a bright idea seemed to strike him.
"I say, dad," he suggested, "how would it do for you to work a few years longer and then the two of us retire together?"
