DEBATE ON THE NAVAL BILL TO TAKE PLACE ON THURSDAY

SECOND READING OF BORDEN'S POLICY WILL TAKE PLACE
THIS WEEK—LAURIER TO RESPOND—FOSTER AND CLARK TO PARTICIPATE IN DEBATE.

(Special to Daily News.)
Ottawa, Dec. 8.—The probabilities are that the debate on the naval proposal will not be proceeded with until Thursday, when Premier Borden will move a second reading of the bill and Sir Wilfrid Laurier will outline the Liberal policy in regard to the naval protection of Canada and the Empire.

Hon. George E. Foster will reply to Sir Wilfrid, and it is understood that the second speaker on the Liberal side will be C. M. Clark, member from Red Deer, who has not spoken this session.

Work Commences.

This morning the work of laying the big water pipes for the main across Shawatlas Passage was commenced under the supervision of City Engineer W. McG. Mason. The further work of removing the pumping plant at present located at Morse Creek to Shawatlas Lake will be undertaken in the near future. It is expected that this part of the work will be completed early in the coming year.

CANADIAN BANK OF COMMERCE MOVES TO THE NEW BUILDING

PIONEER FINANCIAL INSTITUTION OF PRINCE RUPERT INSTALLED IN NEW OFFICES ON SECOND AVENUE—EXCELLENT ACCOMMODATION FOR THE CLERKS.

Immediately upon closing business for the day on Saturday at 1 o'clock, the Canadian Bank of Commerce started to make the big trek from their old quarters on the corner of Third street and Second avenue to the palatial new bank building just completed next to the Prince Rupert Club. The entire staff, together with carpenters and the express people, set to with a will in the work of removing the vast amount of impedimenta that goes to make up the necessary adjuncts of a modern bank.

For the time being the fixtures that have been in use in the late quarters will be used in the new building, the intention being, at no very distant date, to replace them with an entirely new set.

The Bank of Commerce can claim for itself the honor and prestige of being the pioneer bank of Prince Rupert, it having established itself in an up-to-date and commodious frame building on the G. T. P. reserve, in the heart of what was then known as Knoxville, early in the spring of 1907.

The original building, which has become almost historic, was later used as the first city hall, where many a hard fought struggle took place amongst the pioneer city fathers. At the time of the fall of Knoxville the famous little building having been purchased by Messrs. Ritchie & Agnew, the civil engineers and surveyors, was removed to a lot owned by them on McBride street, and which they at present occupy as a residence and office.

The Bank of Commerce always holds a commanding position amongst the financial institutions in any city in the Dominion, and in this respect Prince Rupert is no exception. Their thoughtfulness and consideration for the comfort and welfare of the members of their staffs finds ample confirmation in the splendid accommodation provided in the upper part of the new building as living quarters for the "bank boys." Large airy bedrooms, spacious dining room and all the necessary offices that go to make up the most comfortable and even luxurious bachelor domain are to be found, and the boys are not lacking in their appreciation of the many good things that fall to their lot.

This morning at 10 o'clock everything was ready for the business of the day upon the throwing open of the doors of the new building and a large crowd of customers and others visited the bank to express their admiration and congratulations upon the latest addition to our civic growth.

BILL TO BE INTRODUCED IN COMMONS TO FORBID SOCCER

ONLY SOLDIERS OR SAILORS TO BE ALLOWED TO PLAY FOOTBALL IS THE INTENTION OF MEN WHO FRAME BILL.

London, Dec. 7.—Colonel Ford, founder of the National Reserve, has been engaged, in conjunction with two members of Parliament, in framing a bill forbidding the playing of football except by those who have rendered or who have bound themselves to render naval or military service to their country.

Laws for the suppression of football have already figured in English history. By an act of Edward III football was prohibited as being one of the pastimes responsible for the decadence of archery. In the reign of Richard II a similar statute was enacted, and Henry VIII, Elizabeth and the early Georges also made laws against football.

LARGER QUARTERS

S. Harrison & Co. Moved into
New Offices on Third Avenue

Messrs. S. Harrison & Co., the well known real estate and fiscal agents, are busy today getting settled down in their fine new offices in the Hyde building. The location is one of the best in the city, being right opposite the Post Office, around which pivots during each day the entire business of the city. With a well appointed and spacious main office and two other private ones, the firm will have ample accommodation for conducting the large business that by their energy and enterprise, is increasing rapidly in common with the growth of Prince Rupert. Besides their large city real estate business they are sole agents for the Stewart Land Company, and the fiscal agents for the Port Edward Townsite Co.

RAILWAY COMPANY OFFERS BIG REWARD FOR CAPTURE OF VANCOUVER DESPERADO

Police of City and Railway Company Search for Man Who Robbed Train in Vancouver Yard Limits and Got Away With $300 in Gold and Jewels

Vancouver, Dec. 9.—Although the local police department, assisted by the C. P. R. constables, have been combing the districts adjoining the C. P. R. right-of-way for trace of the bandit who held up the observation car of the C. P. R. Imperial Limited at 7:45 on Saturday evening, no success has so far crowned their efforts.

Up to noon today absolutely no trace of the holdup man had been obtained. The boldness of the robber in successfully planning and carrying out a crime of this kind leads the police to believe that they have to deal with a experienced highwayman. In consequence of this, more than ordinary methods are being adopted to capture him, if he is still in hiding in the city, and a special search is being instituted for his apprehension, if he has succeeded in escaping to the adjoining districts.

In order to stimulate the search the Canadian Pacific Railway Company have offered $500 reward for his capture.

The crime was committed within the railway yards of Vancouver, and the highwayman dropped off the train at Barnet and succeeded in getting away into the thick bushes near the track. He collected money and jewellery to the value of over $300.

BELLA COOLA TO BE THE TERMINUS OF TRANSCONTINENTAL RAILWAY

HUDSON BAY LINE HAS TWO ROUTES THROUGH BRITISH COLUMBIA, BUT BOTH HAVE BELLA COOLA AS TERMINUS—APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME.

Ottawa, Dec. 9.—In its application to Parliament for an extension of time in which to complete its railway from Hudson Bay to the Pacific Coast, the Hudson's Bay Railway outlines its course through British Columbia.

Starting from a point near Kilsquiat, at the head of Dean Channel, or Bella Coola, it will run in a northeasterly direction to a point at or near Elcatecho Lake, thence in a northeasterly direction by the valleys of the Upper and Lower Nechaco Rivers and Carp Lake to a point at or near Fort McLeod.

Another route may be by the Bella Coola Valley in an easterly direction to Puntz Lake, thence in a northeasterly direction by Nazzeco River to a point at or near Fort George.

Lack of Apprentices.

Adelaide, Australia, Dec. 7.—At the interstate conference of master printers held in Adelaide recently the dearth of apprentices was discussed at considerable length. A Queensland representative maintained that the dearth was largely due to the desire to protect the trade unionists. The young workers get no chance of learning a trade, with the result that it is necessary to import the majority of skilled workers.

Russia Buys Coal.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 7.—Owing to the scarcity of Russian coal and the consequent rise in prices, the Russian minister of communications has bought foreign coal for use on the state railways.

Actress Dies.

New York, Dec. 7.—Prominent in Washington society during the administration of Grover Cleveland, Miss Lancing Rowan, actress, and niece of former Secretary of the Treasury Lyman Gage, is dead following an operation for neuritis.

Arson Trust Found.

Madison, Wis., Dec. 7.—State Fire Marshal Purcell insisted that he has uncovered an "arson trust" which has destroyed $1,000,000 worth of property. Warrants have been issued for the principal alleged offenders.

ALLEGED THAT GYPSIES STOLE CHILD FROM NEW WESTMINSTER

LITTLE GIRL DISAPPEARS FROM ROYAL CITY SHORTLY AFTER NOMADS VISIT THAT PLACE—TRACED TO NELSON—TRAIL LOST AT SPOKANE.

Nelson, Dec. 7.—Chief of Police Devitt has received a telegram from Mr. Peter Mitchell of New Westminster stating that he believes his daughter has been kidnapped by a band of Gypsies recently in Nelson and asking him to hold the band. No particulars as to the age or appearance of the girl are given.

The Gypsies, whose tribe's name is Raneo, were in Nelson last week and one of the women was convicted of theft in connection with fortune telling and was released on suspended sentence after refunding the money stolen. Soon after the band left by a Great Northern train for Spokane.

Before coming to Nelson the band had been in Trail, where one of the women was in trouble with the police and was released on suspended sentence.

Oregon Town Wrecked.

Pendleton, Ore., Dec. 7.—Pendleton, is repairing the damage done by a terrific windstorm which lasted an hour and paralyzed telephone, telegraph and light service. County Treasurer G. W. Bradley was badly hurt when a window sash was blown out in the court house, falling on him. Several stitches were required to dress the wounds.

YOUNG MAN LOST ACROSS BAY AND FRIENDS FEAR FOR HIM

J. ANDERSON BECOMES SEPARATED FROM HIS COMPANIONS AND DOES NOT RETURN AT TIME APPOINTED—SEARCH PARTY LEFT THIS MORNING TO LOOK FOR HIM.

Much anxiety is felt amongst the numerous friends and acquaintances of J. Anderson, the well known and popular young man who drives a delivery wagon for the Pioneer Laundry. It appears that together with two companions he went on a hunting expedition yesterday morning across the harbor. In some manner he got separated from the others and did not return to the boat at the hour they had agreed upon to return home.

His two chums waited anxiously for him until after midnight, shouting and firing off their rifles in the hope of locating him. The latter then returned to Prince Rupert, and it is beyond a question that Anderson was forced to spend the night wandering around in the woods.

This morning a party went off again in a gasoline launch to search for him, and it is earnestly hoped that they will find him safe and sound and none the worse for his outing. Young Anderson, who has been a resident of this city for a number of years, was married in the early part of the summer.

BROADWAY'S GREATEST SUCCESS WILL BE SHOWN THIS EVENING

GRIFFITH STOCK COMPANY TO PRESENT "SEVEN DAYS," THE GREATEST COMEDY OF THE AGE, AT THE WESTHOLME TONIGHT.

Suppose you had been brought up in idleness by a rich aunt and taught no harder labor than painting pictures that won't sell. Suppose you had taken unto yourself a wife for which said aunt buys you a handsome house in New York, and keeps it up luxuriously, because she thinks a wife is the blessing of the gods. But suppose your wife has a nasty temper, and divorced you because you were fat; and suppose your rich aunt thought divorce the crime of crimes, and only supplied you with money because you pleased her, with your supposedly happy domesticity, you'd keep your divorce a secret from your aunt, wouldn't you? Especially as auntie never visits. Sure you would.

But suppose your aunt did decide to pay you an unannounced visit, and should catch you holding a dinner party with some friends to celebrate the anniversary of your divorce. And suppose your divorced wife came in unexpectedly thinking you were ill, and suppose you tried to palm off a girl friend on auntie as your wife, and suppose girl friend's own sweetheart came on the scene, and the whole bunch of you got quarantined together for smallpox, what would you do? Probably just what Jim Wilson does in the great farce comedy "Seven Days," which will hold the boards at the Westholme tonight, and which promises to be the best show yet given by the popular Griffith Stock Company.

Christmas Number.

Through the courtesy of Captain Tuttle of the local organization of the Salvation Army we are indebted for a copy of the Army's official journal, the War Cry. Published in Toronto by the Salvation Army printing house, it reflects the greatest credit upon all departments, editorial, pictorial and printorial. It contains a number of splendid illustrations, including two fine portraits of the past and present leaders of this remarkable religious organization.

A sale of work will be held by the ladies of the Anglican Church in the church hall, Centre St., on Tuesday, Dec. 10th, afternoon and evening. Mother Goose will be there to attend to the children. There will be stalls of fancy work, home produce, candy, tea, etc. Admission free. 285-289

LITTLE BOY IDENTIFIES MAN WHO CONFESSED BY POST CARD

HICKEY, THE CHILD MURDERER, IS IDENTIFIED BY LITTLE TOT WHO WAS WITH JOSEPHS AT TIME OF KILLING—FIRST MURDER PROVED.

Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 7.—J. Frank Hickey, confessed murderer of Joseph Josephs, the 7-year-old Lackawanna boy, and of Michael Kruck, the New York newsboy, and the slayer of Edward Morey of Lowell, Mass., whom he killed accidentally by giving him an overdose of poison in a drink of whisky, was identified by Gordon Tilton, the 8-year-old companion of the Josephs boy, as the man who, on October 12, 1911, the day the Josephs boy was murdered, bought them candy.

"That's the man right there," cried the Tilton boy as he pointed to Hickey, lined up with several other prisoners. "He bought me the lemon suckers and the rest of the candy for Joey."

Hickey displayed no concern when the boy pointed him out.

Lowell, Mass., Dec. 7.—Edward Morey died on September 1, 1883, in a drug store here under circumstances which agree to those related by Hickey at Buffalo. At the time of Morey's death there was no suspicion that he had been poisoned and death was attributed to apoplexy.
