SOMETHING DOING IN BASEBALL CIRCLES

Many Big League Managers and Owners Meet in Windy City.

Chicago, Jan. 6.—This week will be a busy baseball week in Chicago. The managers of three teams, the prospective manager of another and the owner of two more are scheduled to be here.

Joe Tinker, now pilot of the Cincinnati Reds, was the first to arrive. He came in yesterday from his vaudeville tour.

He started figuring on some trades as soon as he got here. He will try to persuade Johnny Kling to come into his fold.

On Tuesday will be the most important event of the week, when Frank Chance and Frank Farrell, owner of the Highlanders, get together to talk terms for Chance's contract to manage the New Yorkers. Chance left for his California ranch on Saturday.

Tonight will be the big baseball banquet to Muggsy McGraw, who will be here to fulfill a vaudeville engagement. All the baseball leaders in this vicinity are going to be present at the dinner for the Giants' manager.

C. W. Murphy, of the Cubs, will get together with Johnny Evers, his new manager, on some deals both have in mind and on the spring training trip, which will begin February 15th. Murphy will be back from Florida and Evers will come from his home in Troy, N. Y., early in the week.

NEW HOCKEY PLAYERS FOR COAST LEAGUE

Vancouver, Jan. 8. — With seventeen games still to play in the schedule of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association, the managers of the three teams are not taking any chances on being caught shorthanded for players, and George Rochon and Bob Genge, of last year's Saskatchewan League, are now en route to the coast. Rochon will go to Westminster, where he will be tried out on the defence, Oatman moving up to the forward line. Genge will not dispose of his services until he arrives here. It is just possible that Vancouver will want a player in the event of Fred Taylor having to undergo an operation, while Lester Patrick is not yet satisfied that he can lift the Paterson trophy with his present lineup, and there may be an opening for the Swift Current boy there.

Lehman is still in the Burrard Sanitorium under the care of Dr. Boucher for eye trouble, but it is expected he will be out in time for the game of January 14th, when the Royals will christen their new home rink.

COAST TO COAST MOTOR BOAT RUN

Race Will Be from New York to San Francisco via Panama Canal.

San Francisco, Jan. 8.—New York to San Francisco via the Panama Canal in November, 1914, is the latest motor boat race on the calendar. I. H. Corey, of the San Francisco Yacht Club motor boat committee, one of the most prominent members of the "local section" of the American Power Boat Association, received a letter from Morris Whitaker, secretary of the governing body of motor boat owners in New York, stating that the Power Boat Association was organizing a long distance race through the canal for 1914, in which motor boats from all over the country are invited to participate.

This race will be the longest motor boat event ever tried in any part of the world. The boats are scheduled to leave New York in November and will make their way to this city via the canal. The only authorized stopping place will be San Diego.

The race is more of an endurance test for engines and boats, and it is expected that dozens of the largest eastern cruising type motor boats will be entered. A committee will be appointed to draft rules for the contest and when completed these rules will be sent to all affiliated bodies of the Power Boat Association.
