THE AFTERMATH

Usually the day following Christmas brings with it unpleasant recollections of friends who have been inadvertently overlooked in the matter of Christmas gifts. Isn't it fortunate that New Year's Day follows so closely and gives us an opportunity to make amends for our oversights during the Christmas rush. While the past week's shopping made very heavy inroads into our stock, the assortments in each line are practically unbroken. We have a large range of beautiful things for New Year's gifts. HIGH PRICE PAID FOR TROTTER HORSE

The trotting stallion Billy Burke, sold recently by a New York owner, left for Russia, carrying two policies of insurance for $40,000 each, one covering the sea voyage and the other the life of the horse for one year, sea risks excepted. The purchaser was the Russian ambassador to the United States, Mr. George Bakhmeteff, who is also a member of the Imperial St. Petersburg Society for the Encouragement of Breeding Trotting Horses. He paid J. Howard Ford $40,000 after the horse had passed Dr. McCully's examination for soundness. Billy Burke is a good looking as well as a sound horse, but many such are to be found in all parts of the country, and Mr. Bakhmeteff might have secured a shipload for the amount he paid for this one were he seeking simply appearance and freedom from constitutional defects. He wanted, though, something that is not determined in the show ring. He paid the price of two hundred common horses for the figures "2:03 3/4," the appendix to the name of this one. Race records, not tin cup figures, give value to the horse in the eyes of those who have the price to pay for the most desirable. Courage and stamina, as well as speed, are proven in actual contests, not taken for granted, and the crown is to the victor. The lesson of it all is that the United States would soon run out of Billy Burkes if there were no racing. If it is admitted that it is desirable to continue producing animals that will be wanted by other nations for the improvement of their stock, then racing must be continued. No side issues can obscure this outstanding and uncontroverted fact.

THORPE FINDS FRIENDS EVEN IN LONDON TOWN

London Citizen Would Hesitate to Dub the Champion a Sham Amateur.

London, Jan. 29.—Defence of James Thorpe, the noted American Indian athlete who won first honors at the Stockholm Olympic games, recently convicted of professionalism, was voiced here today by the London Citizen-Laborite journal.

"The Thorpe incident," says the paper, "is regrettable, but there is no reason for the hysteria exhibited by Americans. We would hesitate to dub Thorpe a sham amateur."

"Thorpe seems to be suffering severely from unsophistication and indiscretion. There is no doubt but that the American committee acted properly, but we wish it had never started in on the poor Indian."

"Biscuits" Wins

Pendleton, Ore., Jan. 29.—In a handicap match here last night Zbyszko, the Polish champion, defeated Ban Jackson in two straight falls in fifty minutes. The contest was a fast one, and was witnessed by a capacity house. Zbyszko left at midnight for Vancouver, B. C., where he will meet Pat Connolly, the Irish champion, on Friday night.

MANY FACTORIES MAY SHUT DOWN

Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 31.—Unless there is a decided change in the garment strike situation here before evening, there will begin a shut down of factories that will throw 12,000 employees out of work. The manufacturers declared Saturday they would close down all the factories unless the strikers returned to work unconditionally. The strikers demand recognition of their union. The yearly production of clothing in Rochester is approximately $22,000,000. State mediation is being urged by Rochester business men.

Earl of Crawford Dead

London, Jan. 31.—James Ludovic Lindsay, twenty-sixth Earl of Crawford, died here today. Deceased was born in 1847.

Mr. J. E. Merryfield returned Friday evening on the Princess Beatrice from an extended visit to the southern coast cities.

AMERICAN BOXER SUES OMNIBUS COMPANY

London, Feb. 3.—Asserting that he lost a great deal of money by being prevented by personal injury from fighting Mike Gibbons in a projected contest in New York, Harry Lewis, an American boxer, is claiming heavy damages in the high court here. The case is on the list for next Friday.

Lewis, who claims to be welter-weight champion of the world, is suing for damages for injuries suffered in a motor car collision in Fleet street at the beginning of last year.

The defendants are the London General Omnibus Company and the British Motor Cab Company.

According to F. W. Taylor, the London manager of the Bank of Montreal, Canada has borrowed in the London market in the last ten years $1,022,000,000, with a further $100,000,000 of funds privately invested.
