DATES ARE AGREEABLE

Crack British Golfers Will Compete in American Championship.

New York, Feb. 5.—The entry of Edward Ray, the British champion, and Harry Vardon, five times holder of the title, is assured by the recently announced postponement of the open golf championship from June until September 17th and 18th, in Brookline, Mass. The United States Golf Association officials have received word from the English players that the dates will be agreeable to them. It is also said that George Duncan, one of the leading British professionals, is likely to compete. The change also enables Jack McDermott, the young Atlantic City golfer, who is the first American to hold the title of open champion here, to appear in defence of the trophy.
The June dates would have probably eliminated him, as he had agreed upon a trip to England to seek championship honors there.

RULES ARE TOO SEVERE

Swedish Athletic Circles Stirred Over Thorpe Case.

Stockholm, Feb. 5.—The case of James Thorpe, the American Indian collegian, who was crowned by King Gustav here last summer as the world's greatest athlete and who has been disqualified as an amateur by his confession to professionalism, continues to cause considerable stir in Swedish athletic circles.

Many prominent athletes here declare that the rules of the amateurship are too severe ever to be adhered to strictly and they suggest that new and less stringent rules be instituted. It is declared that many exceptions are made to present rules giving reimbursement to true amateurs in the form of pay for the salaries lost during training. This practice of making exceptions, particularly in the case of athletes who are poor, has made it difficult to tell where to draw the line.

NELSON MUST RETIRE

Bride Makes Declaration and Bat
Has No Comeback.

Portland, Ore., Feb. 5.—With declarations that she is great on the "love in the cottage" stuff, Mrs. Pay King Nelson, the Portland and Denver cartoonist, bride of Battling Nelson, former lightweight champion, is in Portland and declares that Bat will quit the ring. "Bat is going to quit the ring," Mrs. Nelson declared.
"He has a few fights scheduled and he really can't back out of them, but after that he's going to stop. I think, however, he is good enough right now to give Willie Ritchie an awful fight and maybe knock him out. I think I would die, though, while he was fighting."

A good deal of interest is being taken in the forthcoming sale of lots at Port Edward, which, it is expected, will be put on the market about the 17th inst. Mr. S. Harrison, of Harrison & Gamble, fiscal agents of the company, is expected to return shortly from Victoria, when all necessary maps and plans will be available for perusal by the public at the formers' offices in the Hyde Block, opposite the post office.

Amputation at Seventy-five.

London, Ont., Feb. 5.—There are not many men who at the age of seventy-five years have still enough vitality left to withstand so serious an operation as the amputation of a limb, but Mr.
R. Demeray, an old resident of Strathroy, left Victoria Hospital the other day after undergoing such an operation about a month ago. Apart from the loss of his limb, Mr. Demeray is still hale and hearty, and expects to enjoy a good many years of life yet.

Not a Shoe Machine Trust.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The gov-big defeat in the recent anti-trust campaign when the Supreme Court held that the officials of the United Shoe Machinery Company had not violated the Sherhowever, did not pass upon the legality of the system by which the company leases machines on terms that no "independent" machinery be used.

When the People Refuse to Pay

EVER since King John signed the Magna Charta the people have been discovering new rights and asserting them.

Long ago the people learned how to get what they wanted—by the simple expedient of "refusing to pay."

In the days when kings played "war" with one another the people could always put a sudden end to the fun by
"refusing to pay."

To-day, when men play the great game of business, they have to depend on the people, even as did those kings of long ago. When the people stop payment, the game ends.

Of high importance is "the right to know" as applied to modern commerce. The people have found they want a "reason why" before they buy.

We awoke to this fact but a short while ago, when a few manufacturers began to tell us some of the things they thought we should know about their goods. They were the pioneer advertisers.

Soon the world discovered that it had an appetite for facts. And in the re-adjustment of things for the proper satisfaction of this appetite, we have developed a new science—its name is "Advertising."

Now that we have learned there is a way of telling us we demand to know.
By the exercise of a power that has never failed—the refusal to pay unless satisfied—the people have set up a new order of things. The manufacturers and merchants are telling us everything we want to know—through Advertising.

When we buy soap, we must know "Whose soap?" "How is it made?"
"What are its properties?" "What are its uses?" "Wherein does it excel?" The Advertising tells us.

It's the same with well-nigh everything we buy—food, clothes, furniture, pianos, automobiles. We will have the facts about these things—or we will refuse to pay.

We, the public, have created a new world force. We call it "Advertising."

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or through the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Bldg., Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
