LONDON'S OPIUM DENS ATTRACTIVE

Chinese Conduct Palatial Resorts for Use of Aristocratic Patrons.

London, March 1.—Opium smoking is becoming so popular in London that several of the dens in the Whitechapel district are said to be catering exclusively to aristocratic patrons of the pipe. Two of these were visited lately by an investigator, who found them furnished in the most luxurious manner. The victims of the habit can indulge their dreams in surroundings which should appeal to the most fastidious devotees of the drug.

Shortly after dark the patrons began to arrive, stealing in furtively after leaving their motor cars and carriages some distance away. A nearby tradesman declares that in the daytime no one approaches the places, which do not encourage visits at such times because of the danger of police interference.

Both of these palatial dens are run by Chinese. Low divans stand on carpets so thick and soft that no sounds of footsteps can be heard; soft silken cushions are placed
