NO JEALOUSY BETWEEN
RUPERT AND EDWARD

Norman Mackintosh on "Prince Rupert's Industrial Annex" in Saturday Sunset

Already Port Edward has become known as "Prince Rupert's Industrial Annex," and the accuracy of the epithet may easily be tested by reference to a certain recent report of the Prince Rupert Board of Trade in which it is clearly stated that the business men of Prince Rupert regard this new sub-seaport of Port Edward as indisputably the coming industrial centre with an important bearing on Prince Rupert the greater sea port.

No jealousy at all exists or is likely to exist between Prince Rupert and Port Edward, in spite of the fact that Port Edward possesses advantages as a harbor in some respects superior even to the acknowledged advantages of Prince Rupert. Prince Rupert welcomes Port Edward as a development calculated to enhance the attractions of the parent city, and to provide additional advantages peculiarly Port Edward's own. That the establishment of large industrial enterprises will proceed steadily at Port Edward, keeping pace with the development of railway and seaport features on a larger scale at Prince Rupert is a prospect practically certain.

"FRUIT AND FARM."

The Fruit Magazine this month makes its appearance in a new form, as "Fruit and Farm," with an editorial announcement of a change in ownership from the Fruit Magazine Publishing Co. to the new proprietor, Mr. John Nelson, a brother of O. H. Nelson of the Journal. Mr. Maxwell Smith, the founder and editor, retires. Mr. Nelson is well known in daily journalism in Canada, and is the general manager of the Vancouver News-Advertiser. He announces the appointment of a competent staff and the enlargement of the scope of the magazine to cover every form of agricultural activity.

MINING OPERATIONS WILL SOON BEGIN

Large Veins from the Rocher de Boule Mine Extend to Highland Boy

News comes from New Hazelton that the Butte and Rocher de Boule Copper company, owners of the Highland Boy group, adjoining the big Rocher de Boule property on the east, will commence development work on or before May 15, and will operate steadily from that time on.

Preparations are being made for a short wagon road, a continuation of the one to Rocher de Boule camp, also the erection of suitable cabins will take place as soon as the weather moderates. The company is well financed by parties who are now operating other properties in the vicinity of Butte, Mont., among which are the Butte Central and the Butte Alex-Scott, both producers and one a dividend payer.

The Highland Boy group has a fine surface showing, the leads of ore having been traced directly through from the Rocher de Boule, adjoining. The ore is exactly the same as the Rocher de Boule, and in the opinion of the best practical miners of the district, will be a heavy producer from the start, as the leads are large, and a great depth can be attained by an audit and a short crosscut tunnel.

The ore has been shown to exist on other properties adjoining the Highland Boy to the east and in line with the trend of the vein system, and there is promise of much activity all over Rocher de Boule this summer.

THE WEATHER.

The weather report at 5 o'clock this morning read: Barometer, 29.753; maximum temperature, 48; minimum temperature, 39; precipitation, .66 inch.

BERLIN STADIUM TO BE OPENED IN JUNE

Stand for Olympic Games Three Years Hence to Cost Half a Million.

The opening of the German Stadium, where the 1916 Olympic games will be held, will take place next June. When the stadium is completed it will have been erected at a cost of about $500,000. The German athletic authorities hope to have it rank as the finest type of athletic structure in the world. With this in view, Germany will let nothing stand in her way to bring this about. One of the leading enthusiasts is Carl Diem, president of the German Amateur Athletic Union and general secretary of the sixth Olympiad. This noted German athletic enthusiast, writing recently about the stadium plans, says:

"The stadium is situated in the dip in the middle of the race course at Grunewald, near Berlin. The opening of it in June will mark the beginning of a strenuous period of preparations for the 1916 games. The ceremony will at the same time provide an opportunity for the athletic world of Germany to do homage to the Emperor on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his reign. About 30,000 athletes will

SLIM GIRL TO HAVE QUITE A LONG STAY

New York, April 7.—Jacques Worth, the Paris costumer, disclosed today for the first time since arriving in New York just what fashions his firm had decided upon for the spring and summer. Briefly, this is the edict:

The prevailing color is white. The proper material is crepe de chine.

The style is one of draped effects. Angel sleeves, those long trailing ones, are to be the vogue.

The skirt is to be three-quarter length and just long enough so that the toes of the shoes show when the wearer walks.

The slim girl is here to stay. Mr. Worth scores the slashed skirt.

greet him on the day of the opening.

"The cost of the stadium, which has been under construction since 1909, has been estimated at $500,000. Its general lines follow the plan of the Shepherd's Bush Stadium, and it is constructed to seat normally 27,000, while capable of accommodating many more if necessary."

HARBINGER OF SPRING.

The sap has been in the trees, the buds are breaking forth, no longer do we shake and freeze in raw winds from the north; and everywhere we pilgrims go, the harbingers appear, to say there is an end of snow, to hint that spring is near. The housewife talks of thrilling hats she saw in some one's store, all trimmed with ostrich plumes and bats and floral things galore. And dad confesses to a wish to voice a vernal song, and talks about a place where fish are thirty cubits long. Old granddad makes his ancient thews convey him down the street; the children long to shake their shoes and try their naked feet. The agent leaves his winter haunt, with easy marks to plead, and sells them traps they do not want, and books they'll never read. The hobo leaves the city slum for pastures fresh and new, and in the village jail the bum kicks up a howdydo. The candidate begins to pass around his fatal smokes; composed are they of garden sass, including artichokes. We gather up the old tin cans around our lots bestrewn, and formulate our divers plans for raising pea and prune. Oh, spring is coming once again, to comfort us and help, so let the joyous sons of men stand on their heads and yelp!—Uncle Walt.
