Be Suspicious

BE suspicious of that of which nobody is proud. Be suspicious of the mere low-price argument offered in favor of an article with no reputation, no backer, no guarantor.

Better buy the thing you know and can trust, than an article unbranded and unvouched for.

The branded shoe, made by a maker with a reputation, is a safer shoe to buy than the one made in an unknown factory by an unknown maker.

The underwear made by a firm whose name is as familiar to you as your own, is worth more to you than underwear nameless or labelled by a maker of whom you have never heard.

Tea sealed in a packet bearing the name of a reputable firm is to be preferred to tea of which the packer is not sufficiently proud to advertise its quality.

That in which much money has been invested to make or keep it good is worth more than that on which nothing or but little has been spent.

Peace of mind is worth something, just as quality is. Buy peace of mind.

When you buy anything worth while buying, buy that of which you know—from advertisements, or from other dependable acquaintance. Buy the article with the "money back" guarantee—with the pledge of a known name behind it.

Put your faith in the advertisements appearing in good newspapers. Beware of the article that cannot stand the spot-light of publicity. The commodity an advertiser backs with his own money is something worth your buying.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

You save the $700

Here you are. A corner $700 cheaper than the one directly opposite it on the same street. Lots 21 and 22, Block 38, Section 7, for $1,800; only $600 cash.

And the balance is so easy, too. You have 6, 12, 18 and 24 months to pay it.

Another advantage is that the corner lies enough below grade to give a good basement. As you know, a house with a basement will rent quicker and for more than a house without a basement.

Then, too, the skilled workmen employed at the dry dock will create a big demand for houses in this vicinity.

Remember, you save $700, the cash payment is small and the balance made very easy for you.

Don't wait till somebody beats you to this. Get your deposit down on it today—NOW.

A COURT PLASTER

An Instance of the Well-Known Wit of Judge McInnes

The ready wit of Judge McInnes, who used to be governor of Yukon, is well known to all old time Dawson men, and here is an instance of it. In his Vancouver court there came up on Monday a case in which the Victoria sealer Aurora had been libelled for debt by a notice from the admiralty court being affixed to the mast. One of the witnesses was telling about the plaster on the mast and the lawyer for the defence began to badger the witness by saying: "What do you mean by plaster. What kind of a plaster?"

Judge McInnes quietly remarked: "He means a court plaster, of course."

Fined for Shooting.

For violation of the law in respect to the use of firearms within the city limits Jack Cristow was fined $5 in police court this morning.

The steamer Venture, of the Union Steamship Company line, arrived in port this morning from the south shortly after 9 o'clock, following closely on the heels of the Prince George.

JOLLY BIRTHDAY PARTY

Fancy Dress Party Given by Mrs. Palmer in Honor of Eldest Daughter's Birthday.

Mrs. P. I. Palmer entertained at a delightful and unique children's fancy dress party yesterday afternoon in honor of the eleventh birthday of her little daughter Bernice. The spacious drawing rooms were gaily decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, while the verandah was closed in and arranged for sitting out places. The children's play room in the basement was utilized as a supper room and was festooned with greenery and red berries, presenting a most brilliant appearance, when the thirty-six happy children sat down to the bountifully spread table. The birthday cake with its eleven candles was cut by the little guest of honor and distributed among her little friends. Every child was presented with a favor which added to the excitement of the occasion. Dancing and games made the hours fly all too swiftly and it was after 9 o'clock when a tired but happy bevy of youngsters bade goodbye to their hostess. Mrs. Palmer was assisted in amusing the children by Miss MacDonald, Miss Johnstone and Mr. Lionel Crippen. The costumes of the children were very pretty and added to the gaiety of the scene. The following is a list of those present and the characters represented by them:

Quite a Coincident

Constable Adams went into a hotel bar-room yesterday afternoon to serve a Siwash notice. The bartender read the name of the man interdicted and asked: "But who is he? Does he ever come here?"

"Couldn't say whether he comes here or not. I don't know the man personally but it seems to me I've met him," was the constable's reply.

"What does he look like?" was the next question.

"I'm not altogether certain as to that," said the constable, and then he turned to two men at the bar and asked: "Do either of you know him?"

One of them stepped forward with a blush and said: "I think I know him a little. He looks like me. Shake hands, policeman, I bear you no ill feelings, and I'll set 'em up when my time's out."

Mr. Sidney Billingham, special correspondent for the Vancouver News-Advertiser, left this morning for Hazelton. It is his intention to furnish his paper with a special article on the mines of Hazelton and the agricultural possibilities of the Bulkley Valley.
