BALKAN ALLIES DEMAND FOUR HUNDRED MILLIONS—UNITED STATES HAS REPLIED TO JAPAN

INTEREST IN THE NEGOTIATIONS SHIFTED TO JAPAN'S CAPITAL

UNITED STATES HAS DELIVERED REPLY TO JAPAN'S PROTEST
OF ALIEN LAND ACT AND NOW AWAITS JAPAN'S NEXT MOVE.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Washington, D. C., May 21.—Interest in the negotiations between the United States and Japan regarding the California land legislation has shifted to Tokyo. The United States government, having delivered its reply to the Japanese protest, is awaiting Japan's next step. The situation was not even mentioned at yesterday's cabinet meeting. It is believed here that the arrival in California of Ebara and Hattori, representing both the great political parties of Japan, will be of great benefit to that country, as they will be enabled to enlighten their people as to the conditions in California affecting Japanese residents. The movement in California to submit the anti-alien act to a referendum is understood to be viewed by the administration as affording further opportunity for diplomatic adjustment of the issues between the United States and Japan. But Governor Johnson, in signing the bill, said: "I repeat what I have before said that California, for the first time in its history, has an anti-alien law. Any man who wishes another kind of law may consistently invoke the initiative. No man who really wishes the anti-

WAR INDEMNITY ASKED BY BALKAN ALLIES

Bulgarian Minister of Finance
Says War Claims Amount to Four Hundred Million

(Special to The Daily News.)
Paris, May 21.—The Balkan States will ask a war indemnity from Turkey of $400,000,000, according to the statement of the Bulgarian Finance Minister, who is now here on his way to London.

The Peace Conference in London is liable to be a protracted affair, owing to contentions among the allies as to the division of the spoils of war. Before the allies started the war against Turkey they redrew the map of Thrace, Albania and Macedonia, carefully delimited their respective boundaries when their ancient enemy should have been driven out of Europe. On this new map Bulgaria's western boundary included Monastir and the east shore of Lake Ochrida, the line otherwise roughly following the valley of the river Vardar. The southern boundary evidently ran close to, if it did not include, Salonika. During the war Serbia took Monastir and Greece Salonika, and troops of both these countries overran the district between the Vardar and Struma rivers. Bulgaria

MEN WHO FOUND THE BODIES OF THE CAPTAIN SCOTT PARTY

Arrived Here on the Prince George This Morning---Thrilling
Description of Search and Discovery of Explorer
Scott's Last Written Words

"That Captain Scott, Dr. Wilson and Lieutenant Bowers, heroes of the Antarctic expedition, died from sheer exhaustion and starvation and not from scurvy" was the opinion expressed by Mr. C. S. Wright when interviewed by a "News" reporter shortly after his arrival in the city this morning. Mr. Wright was a member of the search party that discovered the bodies. He is a brother of Mr. A. E. Wright of this city, whose quest he will be for a couple of weeks, after which he will leave for his home in Toronto. Accompanying Mr. Wright on his visit to the city is his brother, Mr. A. M. Wright, of Vancouver, and Mr. F. Debenham, of Sydney, N. S. W. The latter was the geologist in the Scott expedition. Both Mr. Wright and Mr. Debenham were most entertaining in their description of the trip to the pole. Speaking of the search party that discovered the bodies, Mr. Wright gave the following details: It was organized by Surgeon Atkinson and left Cape Evans on October 30th last. It consisted of two divisions, Atkinson taking the dog teams with Garrard and Demetri. Mr. Wright himself was in charge of the other division, which consisted of eight men and seven Indian mules. They were provisioned for three months, expecting an extended search. One Ton camp was found in order and all provisioned. Proceeding along the old southern route on November 12, Wright's party sighted Scott's tent. Within it were found the bodies of Captain Scott, Dr. A. E. Wilson and Lieutenant H. R. Bowers. The tent was only eleven miles from One Ton depot. According to papers found in the tent, the party had reached the pole on January 18th, 1912. Complete records of their observations at the pole were also found, as well as details of the return journey and the terrible blizzard that overtook them, forcing them to make their final camp about 750 miles from the pole. When this camp was made the three men had provisions for

JUVENILE BOSTONIANS WERE GIVEN A HEARTY RECEPTION

MANY FRIENDS OF MISS VERA LOCKHART ASSEMBLED AT WHARF TO WELCOME HER THIS MORNING.

If one may judge from the enthusiastic reception given the Juvenile Bostonians on their arrival in the city this morning, the Westholme Theatre will have capacity houses for the next week. When the company visited Prince Rupert in August last it made a decided hit with the theatre going public, in addition to which the individual members formed pleasant associations with many of the young people of the city. When the Prince George pulled in this morning there was a large crowd of young men and young ladies on hand to renew former acquaintances. Miss Vera Lockhart, who was one of Prince Rupert's popular young ladies and who is now one of the star members of the organization, was kept particularly busy shaking hands with many of her former friends. Mrs. Lang, notwithstanding the responsibility of looking after nearly a score of vivacious young girls, was looking as well and happy as ever. The genial manager, Mr. Lang, said he was delighted to be back in Prince Rupert. The wonderful improvements that have taken place in the last nine months and the marked advance in the prices of real estate, he said, were simply astounding. The opening bill for tonight is entitled "The Dream Girl."

Neff-Willard Fight.

In order to suit the convenience of those interested the boxing bout between Chet Neff and Billy Willard on Saturday evening will not be pulled off until 10 o'clock. Preliminaries will start at 9:30.

D. G. Stewart, of Stewart, Mobley & Co., Ltd., returned this morning from a combined business and pleasure trip to Vancouver.
