KING PRESIDES AT SCENE OF POMP AND PAGEANTRY

ORDER OF THE BATH HOLDS ITS FIRST CHAPTER SINCE THE YEAR OF WATERLOO—ONE OF THE OLDEST ORDERS OF CHIVALRY

London, July 26—King George's love of pageantry was again shown today when he presided over a chapter of the Order of the Bath in King Henry VII's chapel, Westminster Abbey. The order of the Bath is the second oldest of the orders of chivalry, having been founded in 1399, 50 years after King Edward III. had instituted the Order of the Garter.

The ceremony of installing the Knights Grand Cross and the Knights Commanders in their respective pews, over each of which waved the silken banner of the occupant, was private, but was most impressive. Thousands of spectators gathered outside the abbey to watch the arrival of the knights, who made a brave show in the long red velvet cloaks, jewelled collars and star of the order. The Duke of Connaught, as Grand Master of the Order, occupied the place of honor on the King's right and among the distinguished knights grand cross (G. C.) grouped around the royal pew were Cromer, Brassey, Roberts, Grey, Dudley and Clarendon.

The Dean of Westminster, as dean of the order, officiated at a short religious service, and the muster roll of the knights was called by an official who has not been needed since 1815, when the last chapter was held. This was Bath King-of-Arms, a gorgeous

Bank Man Gets Promotion.

The Bank of British North America announces the appointment of Mr. Jackson Dodds to be secretary of the bank, with headquarters at London, England, in succession to Mr. A. G. Wallis, who retires on pension after a service of 46 years, during 32 of which he filled the post of secretary. Mr. Dodds, who is the third son of Jackson Dodds Sr., for many years collector for inland revenue for the City of London, was born in 1881 and educated at the City of London School. After four years' service at the London, England, branch of Escompte de Paris, he entered the service of the Bank of British North America in February, 1901, at Halifax. He was subsequently stationed at the Montreal, Ottawa, Brandon and Darlingford branches. In 1907 he was appointed manager at Reston, Man., and in 1909 assistant manager at Vancouver. In February, 1911, he was appointed assistant secretary at London. Mr. Dodds, who is well known on this side of the water, was recently in Canada and paid a visit to the most important branches of the bank.

Money makes the man who makes the money.

MASSET NOTES

Chas. P. Nutter, J. M. McDonald and Milner Roberts, who represent a Seattle firm, arrived in town recently. These men are making a close examination of coal measures in the vicinity of camp Robson.

The first marriage in the history of Lawn Hill was celebrated on Tuesday, July 22, when Mr. Nicholas Schaffer, of Southeast harbor, and Mrs. Lucy Bruce (nee Rose) of Skidegate, were joined in matrimony.

Seventy-five boats left for the Tlel river and Copper Bay last week. A scow will convey the dog fish livers from the bay to the oilery, which is working full blast completing an 80-thousand gallon oil order.

Masset's new lock-up, now building, will contain two steel cells for the prisoners and a stockade in the rear for exercising. Quarters are also provided for two constables. About 20,000 feet of lumber will be used in its construction.

Contractor Chris Hunsby has completed his undertaking of digging the West narrows. The contract called for completion August 1, thus enabling boats of the B. C. Fisheries Co. to make quick trips at low tide from the west coast halibut grounds. Over 1800 cubic yards of material was removed and banked.

THE PRICE OF HOMAGE

ONCE when King Edward VII. paid a visit to Sheffield, all the fires in factories and plants were allowed to die out. Not a wheel in Sheffield turned for twenty-four hours. The primary object of this was to lift the pall of smoke that hovers over that wonderful steel-producing city, and to ensure, as far as man was able, a bright day and a blue sky for an auspicious occasion. It was Sheffield's expression of respect.

BUT the action was unique—it was unprecedented—it was unthought of that those hundreds of mighty furnaces, raging night and day, and those seething boilers, with quivering valves, should ever be allowed to cool. This extinguishing of fires cost Sheffield hundreds of thousands of dollars—the price of the effort to get back again to high-power efficiency.

SOME business men in Canada pay an unwitting homage, not to a king, but to a superstition—the superstition that hot weather justifies letting the fires of business energy go out. They stop Advertising in the Summer months. By paying homage to tradition, custom, superstition, they have allowed Summer to become their "dull" season. You know how dull it can be when you don't advertise. Do you know how brisk it can be made by Advertising? Do you realize how much momentum you now lose in the Summer that must be regained in the Fall?

DON'T LET YOUR ADVERTISING FIRES DIE OUT THIS SUMMER.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
