VANCOUVER MERCHANTS AFTER SHUSHANA TRADE

ORD STRATHCONA TO RESIGN NEXT YEAR—GREAT LEGAL BATTLE PROBABLE ABOUT THAW

ARGES UPON WHICH SULZER WAS IMPEACHED AS GOVERNOR

LARGE SUMS HANDED TO HIM FOR CAMPAIGN PURPOSES
TO COVER HIS MARGINS IN STOCK SPECULATIONS.

WILLIAM SULZER
Governor of New York.

33—Born March 18, 1863, at Beth, N. J.
34—Admitted to the Bar of New York.
35—Elected to New York Assembly.
36—Speaker of the Assembly.
37—Elected to Congress.
38—Married Clara Rodelheim Philadelphia, January 7.
39—Governor of New York.

With his back to a wall—for seems to be in a very tight corner indeed—the governor of New York state, William Sulzer, is facing public opinion, according to the agents of the great and most dangerous political organization in the world—many Hall—of dishonesty, having taken bribe money, having leaped from debt to debt in a few short months. Many, speaking through a committee of the state legislature—the Frawley committee—says so, swelling its chest with the pride of being for on the people's side, perceiving the corrupt, pursuing the door. And all William Sulzer is: "I didn't know! I didn't know!"

Year ago last January, on the day of 1912, there stood on books of Messrs. Harris & Co., Stock Exchange brokers of New York City, an item of $48,000, against the purchase by Sulzer of 500 shares of American Smelting and Refining Co., 100 shares of Southern Pacific.

The governor is said to have deposited a $5,000 check of A. E. Spriggs against his debt to Harris & Fuller. On July 9, 1913, he is said to have further reduced the debt by selling his 100 shares of Southern Pacific for $9,248. After the governor had failed to answer several calls for margin, his stock was about to be sold when taken up by the payment of $26,000 by a man called Josephthal.

When suspicion fell upon the governor and investigations were commenced before the Frawley committee, evidence was adduced tending to show that Sulzer had been able to pay his debt and get some money ahead because of certain monies he had received as campaign money. There was a $2,500 cheque from Jacob Schiff, $1,000 from Henry Morganthau, $250 from Peter Doelger, a brewer; $500 from Abraham I. Elkus, and $500 from William F. McCombs.

These sums, it is said, the governor failed to declare in the statement of campaign monies received and expended, which the law demands the candidate must make out. The penalty for failing to declare all the items is liability to imprisonment for a year, or a fine of $1,000, or both. Check after check has been brought into evidence by the Frawley committee and set down as further evidence of the governor's alleged malfeasance. To all of this Sulzer says, in effect, through his secretary:

"I didn't know about these cheques. If I did not list them it is not against the law, and even if it were I did not know these cheques and so am not responsible."

THAW IS STILL HELD ON CANADIAN GROUND

Immigration Department Rules that He be Released—Great Legal Battle Likely.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Ottawa, Aug. 22.—The immigration department declares that Thaw should be released. They have rejected the plea for extradition and hold that he should be put across the line either in New York or Vermont state as an undesirable character and thus end all contention. But this decision is to be stubbornly fought by J. N. Greenshields, K.C., the famous Canadian criminal lawyer, who has been retained to fight for Thaw's freedom. Meanwhile, Thaw is held by the Sherbrooke authorities pending the outcome of the legal battle.

On Wednesday next he will be arraigned in the Superior Court on a writ of habeas corpus which will be the first round in the legal fight.

CONSTANTLY KNOCKING THE CITY'S INTERESTS

The continued efforts of the Empire to make the public believe that the "Daily News" has been getting rich at the city's expense through being given city advertising without competition were shown up as completely ridiculous by the facts published in yesterday's "News." Even ex-Ald. Montgomery, one of the Empire's easy victims, admits in a letter in to-day's "News" that the matter is not to be criticized from a financial point of view. Ex-Ald. Montgomery's only objection in the matter is that the Empire was frozen out. Whether this be true or not the "News" has no information but it has no hesitation in saying that the mayor of this or any other city should conduct the civic affairs on the same principles as the manager of any other large corporation. What would the directors and shareholders think of a manager who would hand out business to a concern that was constantly using every effort to bring them wreck and ruin? The Empire to give vent to personal animosity, has been doing everything in its power to interfere with the securing of necessary finances to carry on urgent work and thus retard the city's progress. Yet ex-Ald. Montgomery would have the mayor of this city turn over to such a knacker of the city's interests a portion of the city's business. The mayor should act in such a matter in accordance with the wishes of the majority who are certainly opposed to seeing the city's interests hammered as they have been by the organ of a defeated opponent.

Helpful Lessons Conveyed to the Public by the "Movies."

Moving pictures were at first largely confined to comic incidents and then wild west cowboy scenes until the public grew tired of being simply amused and manifested a desire for something that appealed more directly to the intelligence. This was provided in the great spectacular dramas of classic history but, as the appetite grows on that upon which it feeds there next came a call for pictures that really taught something. Then came the pictures of natural history and phenomena and later the introduction of social and economic problems.

"The Struggle," a film which is now being run at the Empress, is one of the latter. It is of especial passing interest when one reads day by day the incidents of the Nanaimo strike, for this depicts a struggle between the employed and employer which fairly shows the balance of blame on either side, the genesis of the labor trouble and how naturally its inevitable conclusions work themselves out. It is a film that all interested in such struggles should not miss.

The Daily Express, an organ of the Conservative party published at Woodstock, Ontario, has ceased publication. It announced that it was unable to exist as a paying proposition.

YET PRINCE RUPERT MERCHANTS NEVER ONCE THOUGHT OF THIS

VANCOUVER MERCHANTS LET SEATTLE GET ALL KLONDIKE TRADE BUT DETERMINE TO GO AFTER THAT OF SHUSHANA

(Special to The Daily News.)
Vancouver, Aug. 22.—The wholesale merchants, comprising the hardware, grocery and dry-goods businesses, and others met last night to devise some plan by which the trade of the new Shushana gold fields shall be secured to Vancouver instead of its being allowed to go to Seattle and San Francisco. After the matter had been fully discussed it was decided to request Dr. Cairns, the Dominion geologist who has inspected the district, to deliver an address to the merchants immediately after his return from Dawson.

After this address and the definite information which it is hoped to obtain from Dr. Cairns, definite steps will be taken to organize and undertake extensive advertising for the purpose of securing this valuable trade of the north. It is also likely that personal representatives of the merchants will be sent north to urge upon the miners the advantages of sending their gold dust to the local assay office.

TWO MORE TROPHIES FOR THE EXHIBITION

Sterling Silver Challenge Cup and Another Trophy—Funds are in Good Shape

Two more magnificent trophies have been added to the long list of cups, medals and prizes that will be distributed to winners at the forthcoming Prince Rupert Exhibition, September 24 to 27th. One is a sterling silver challenge cup, valued at $60.00 presented by M. M. Stephens for the grandest district display of fruits, vegetables and other agricultural products. The cup is a handsome ornament, standing 14 inches high with staghorn handles. It is to become the property of the district winning the first prize two years in succession or any three times. The second gift is from L. Bullock-Webster, the indefatigable secretary of the Northern B. C. Agricultural and Industrial Association, under whose auspices the fair is to be held. It is offered for the best district collection of vegetables won on similar lines to the above.

Percy F. Godenrath, a member of the advisory board, who has been campaigning for funds here and attending to the publicity department of the fair, left yesterday for Stewart where he will spend a week working up interest in the fair and arranging for a mineral exhibit and agricultural display. He will return here next Friday morning to complete the canvass for funds and attend to the publicity work until the fair is over. The total raised to date is slightly over $6,000, including the city grant.

FINEST RESIDENCE SITES IN THE CITY

New Plank Roadways in Section Two Afford Opportunity of Seeing Some Choice Property.

It is likely that only a very small percentage of the population of Prince Rupert have ever seen Section Two at close range. Now that the plank roadway is constructed along Atlin avenue, out beyond Seventeenth street, the citizens are supplied with a promenade that for scenic splendor is not excelled anywhere on the continent. This avenue overlooks the main entrance to the harbor and affords a magnificent view of the islands that lie in the Metlakatla passage, Digby Island, the quarantine wharf and the marine depot. Graham avenue runs between Atlin and the waterfront at a much lower level, the land sloping from Atlin to the harbor. That some of the choicest residential sites in the city are in Section Two on these avenues cannot be denied, and when handsome homes are built in that locality the city will present a much improved appearance to passengers on incoming steamers. A visit to Section Two cannot but strengthen one's faith in the future of this promising city.

IS HARRY LAUDER NOW A STRUMMER OF HARPS?

Local Men Bet as to Whether the Singer is Still on this Planet

Is Harry Lauder dead? That is a point which was the subject of much contention between two men staying at a local hotel yesterday evening. One man said he had seen the death of the popular singer recorded in a newspaper which he read recently while in the interior. The other was so sure that the singer was alive that he offered to make a bet on it. So they made a good bet as to whether Harry Lauder had, or had not, sung his swan song and passed from the country of the bagpipes to the land of harps. The bet was to be decided by a reference to those grey-bearded wisecracks, the editors of the local papers.

As soon as The News reporter heard of the story he consulted with the whole editorial staff from the managing editor himself down to the fourth assistant sub-editor, whose sole duty it is to keep a record of cables announcing the deaths of musicians.

One and all of that illustrious galaxy of journalists expressed themselves as of the opinion that Harry Lauder had not yet joined the immortals save in the opinion of his advertising manager. If such a famous singer were to croak, the jarring note would straightway resound through all the corners of the earth. The man who bet on Harry's demise may safely conclude that his opponent was a better bettor than he. Let him therefore get a pair of pincers, and with one hard tug pull the root of all evil from his pocket and depart a sadder and wiser man.

CHANGES IN GAME LAWS

Can Shoot Only Three Deer this Season

The most important change in the game laws this year is that the number of deer which may be shot by any individual is reduced from five to three. Also, anyone who wants to carry a gun must first get a license. For shooting birds, and deer the license is $2.50 and for shooting larger game, is $5.00.

The seasons are practically the same as last year: For ducks, geese and snipe, from December 1 to February 28; for deer, from December 1 to December 15; for grouse, from September 1 to December 31.
