ARTHUR PELKEY FEELS STING OF HIS GUILTY CONSCIENCE

CONFESSES BURNS LURED HIM INTO FRAME-UP MATCH AND TELLS HOW TOMMY SWIPED THE DOUGH—THEY DON'T SPEAK NOW.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 12.—Stung by a guilty conscience and smarting under alleged mistreatment by Tommy Burns, Arthur Pelkey, world's heavyweight title claimant, yesterday cancelled Burns' managerial contract and simultaneously unbosomed a confession. In a signed statement delivered to Rosecoe Fawcett, sporting editor of the Oregonian, Pelkey makes the charge that he and Burns faked their six round fight at Calgary last March 26th.

Pelkey alleges that Burns lured him west from Chatham, Ont., and then finding him broke forced him into a "fixed" match, and staged nightly rehearsals of the battle in a garret.

The expose was drafted in a hotel in Portland several days ago, signed and sealed by Pelkey and delivered over for release September 9th.

"Our six round fight was called a draw," says Pelkey in his confession, referring to his match with Burns. "But we had it all 'framed' up. I could have whipped him easily, but he wanted to make a good showing before his friends there, and made me take two knockdowns to one for him.

"Burns made me sneak around by a back way to his house every night for a week prior to the fight, and we had everything down pat. He had to knock me down in the second and fifth rounds, and I was to put him down on the mat in the fourth.

"We got away with it all right, but the crookedness of it has been hurting me ever since. I don't want any more of Burns. I want to fight on the square. I have never done another crooked thing in my life and I never will again."

Pelkey says he got $600 for the fight, and that Burns got $2,700. The French-Canadian says his knockout of Andy Morris on May 1st in eight rounds was on the square, as was his battle with McCarty on May 24th.

DEMAND THE FRANCHISE

Haida Indians Before the Indian Lands Commission.

The Indian lands commission, appointed to determine whether or not the Indians have an ample amount of land for their needs, arrived at the Masset village Monday and on Tuesday held a conference with the Haida councillors, who presented their views. They claimed that the Haidas had but five acres of land, while white settlers were allowed 160 or more acres. They believed they were entitled to as much as the others and they also believed they should be given the franchise and the same rights as the white man. They also wanted a government boarding school and hospital and Rev. W. Hogan spoke in support of both features.

NOTES FROM STEWART.

Pete Ronn has gone to Vancouver on mining business.

Postmaster W. C. Cameron returned from a short holiday spent below on the Thursday boat.

Bert Kergin is home after spending a holiday aboard his launch in company with Harry Fowler. Mr. Fowler left this week from Prince Rupert for the interior.

H. Bernard, who has been working on the government trails has returned to Ketchikan.

Dan Davis, whose kitchen garden has been so successful this season, is supplying lettuce, etc., to the Prince George. Some of the heads grown reached substantial sizes and weight.

Bill Stevens and Davy Todd are both in Prince Rupert doing contracting work.

Mrs. W. C. Cameron will leave on the next boat for Prince Rupert, where she will visit with friends during exhibition week.

From all indications there will be a substantial attendance of Stewartites at the forthcoming Prince Rupert fair.

Foreman Max Wade returned last week from Granby Bay, where he has been in charge of a crew building a wagon road.

Mrs. J. G. McLaren was a passenger on last week's southbound steamer for Vancouver.

H. E. Newton, owner of the Red Reef group, has returned to Victoria after spending a week in camp.—Portland Canal Miner.

ROSS THINKS WELL OF THE BULKLEY VALLEY

Minister Never Saw Such Confidence as That Shown by the Prince Rupert People

Vancouver, Sept. 10.—Fresh from his trip to Prince Rupert, Hazelton and the Bulkley Valley, Hon. W. R. Ross, minister of forests and lands, is a visitor in the city, and expresses himself as delighted with what he had seen of the wealth and promise of the new great district of the north.

"I have never seen such confidence as that which the people of Prince Rupert have in their city, and I was surprised at the great progress in town development which they have made. I travelled along the G. T. P. to Hazelton and beyond for a distance of 240 miles, to Barrett's ranch, in the Bulkley Valley, near Telkwa.

"I have never seen a better valley than the Bulkley Valley, and I was impressed with the great prospects which the north country has in store. While there, I was informed that the railway construction gangs expect to meet and link up the line by April of next year."
