HAVE ALREADY ORGANIZED FOR MUCH BETTER FAIR NEXT YEAR

AIR ASSOCIATION HOLDS GENERAL MEETING AND ELECTS OFFICERS FOR ENSUING YEAR--SECRETARY REPORTS CASH BALANCE ON RIGHT SIDE.

The general meeting of the Northern British Columbia Agricultural and Industrial Association, which was held in the city last evening, quite naturally solved itself into a mutual admiration association. It was the first opportunity the men who had promoted and made the fair success had had to pat each other on the back.

But they also did a lot of business. Mr. J. W. McMullin, the president, opening the proceedings by stating that the meeting was called to take advantage of the presence in the city of so many connected with the organization. The success attending the first fair, he said, was sufficient to warrant a continuation of the event annually. (Applause.)

The president's address in full was as follows:

"We are assembled this evening more in an informal manner than by regular call, as your directors felt it was expedient during the period of the exhibition to hold a general meeting in the city, as it would probably be impossible for so many to gather at the regular annual meeting which the election of officers has to take place.

"It might not be out of way to recount a little of the history of your association. The inception of the idea of an agricultural fair dates back over a year, during which period meetings were held locally for the purpose of forming an association. These culminated on January 28th of this year in the incorporation of the present association under the societies' act.

"Since that time the association has obtained a membership of 195, the necessary bylaws governing the institution have been formulated and printed, and besides your directors and officers we have an advisory committee representing all the outlying districts. In brief, the association is a district one, having to do with Northern British Columbia rather than being a purely local affair.

The present fair, our initial effort, has, I think you will agree with me, met with abundant success. The large number of entries—over 2,000—is in itself an assurance of what the north is capable of doing in the future, when our organization is more complete. It must be borne in

SEATTLE BOY KNOCKED OUT IN THE TENTH

Lem Kegg Won Decision in a Well Fought Boxing Contest Last Night

In the fifteen round boxing contest between Lem Kegg, the popular local boxer, and Billy Williams, of Seattle, in the McIntyre Hall last night, the decision went to Kegg in the tenth round. To those not familiar with Kegg's tactics in the ring, the contest seemed to be decidedly in favor of the Seattle man, who up to the last round continued to land a series of blows upon Kegg's face. Williams was considerably taller and had a longer reach than his opponent which gave him a great advantage, but in the numerous clinches Kegg kept pounding Williams with his right over the left kidney. It was this constant hammering which finally won Kegg the decision.

The first three rounds were lively but without much excitement, Williams doing most of the hitting.

In the fourth round Kegg became more aggressive and landed several telling blows, although at the end Williams drove him to his corner. The fifth and six rounds consisted of a series of clinches in which Williams got in a number of blows while Kegg continued pounding Williams over the kidneys. At the end of the sixth the first bets were offered, being on Williams, but the money was quickly covered by Kegg's backers.

In the seventh round Kegg seemed to be taking a good deal of punishment and showed signs of weakening.

The eighth round opened with a strong right punch by Kegg over Williams' kidney. This was followed by Williams delivering a series of blows with his right on Kegg's face. In the latter part of the round Kegg got home several more of his favorite punches which at this point were beginning to show their effect.

In the ninth round Kegg did most of the pounding while Williams landed only a few blows. The round was decidedly Kegg's.

In the tenth and last round Kegg drove home a regular series of punches over his opponent's kidney. Williams went down twice but was up again quickly each time. With a final blow from Kegg on the same spot Williams landed in the corner of the ring, taking the full count, and Kegg was declared the winner.

Jack Merritt acted as referee and Billy Wright as time-keeper.

CLOTHES TOOK FIRE; WOMAN BADLY BURNED

Indian Woman from Hartley Bay Brought to Hospital This Morning.

While working in a smoke house curing salmon, Mrs. David Mason, an Indian woman, from Hartley Bay, met with a serious accident yesterday. Backing up too close to the fire, her skirts caught and in a few moments she was almost completely enveloped in flames. With assistance they were extinguished, but not before her back and body were badly burned. Her injuries were so severe that it was necessary to bring her to the hospital here for treatment. She was admitted about 7 o'clock this morning.

SKEENA DIST. LIBERALS HOLD MEETING TONIGHT

Chas. McDonald, One of the Best Speakers in the Province, Will Deliver an Address.

The Liberals of the riding have taken advantage of the fact that many are in the city for the fair and are holding a general meeting of the district association in St. Andrew's Society Hall tonight. The meeting promises to be one of the largest political meetings ever held in Prince Rupert. It will be addressed by Charles McDonald of Vancouver, T. J. Vaughn-Rhys of Stewart, Fred Stork and C. W. Peck of Prince Rupert. Mr. Macdonald is reputed to be one of the best speakers in the province, and the other speakers are recognized by all who have heard them as topnotchers. Alex. M. Manson, the president of the association, will take the chair at 8:15. The meeting will be held at the hall of the St. Andrew's Society, next Fred Stork's store, on Second avenue.

EXHIBITION NOTES.

Hon. Price Ellison, who has taken a very keen interest in the exhibition by making a personal inspection of the thousands of exhibits, requested that the directors give Captain Selig a special prize for his splendid exhibit of shrimps and prawns. The minister of agriculture also paid a high compliment to William Shrubbsall for his magnificent display of cured fish and placed a substantial order with the exhibitor.

The Boy Scouts have been doing splendid work during the fair acting as orderlies to the manager and different department heads, as well as assisting the public in every way possible. The chief orderly is Jack Dowling, assisted by Scouts Jack Naden and Raymond Fisher.

TRAINS RUNNING FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN IN NEXT NINE MONTHS

PRES. CHAMBERLIN MAKES THIS IMPORTANT STATEMENT AT MEETING OF DIRECTORS—ONLY TWO HUNDRED ODD MILES UNCOMPLETED.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Montreal, Sept. 26.—The adjourned general meeting of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company was held here yesterday, and the attendance of directors was very large. According to the statement of the president, the construction of the main line to the Pacific Coast has now reached twelve hundred and four miles west of Winnipeg, and from Prince Rupert has reached Mile 300, leaving a section of two hundred and thirty miles to be completed, of which the grade was to be completed early in September. When the track is laid on this short section the steel will be connected up through to the coast. The work, he said, was being pushed vigorously, and he expected the last spike to be driven, at some point in British Columbia, within the next nine months.

As the line neared completion, he remarked, interest in the vast undeveloped country through which the line runs, particularly in British Columbia, was increasing, and there was every prospect that a settlement of the country would take place as soon as adequate transportation facilities were provided.

EIGHTEEN PEERS AND SEVENTEEN MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT ON LIST

FOR ULSTER'S PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT—CARSON HEADS INDEMNITY LIST FOR KILLED WITH FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS—ENGLAND NOT EXCITED.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Sept. 26.—Ulster is loudly declaring herself ready to fight against the imposition of home rule and the rank and file of her volunteer army announce their willingness to oppose to the last ditch the setting up of a home rule government. They declare they will only yield when conquered beyond hope.

Sir Edward Carson heads the fund for the indemnity of the families of the killed and wounded in the war with a donation of $50,000.

A long list of names, comprising the members of the Ulster provisional government, has been published. The list includes eighteen peers and seventeen members of the house of commons.

England is not yet much excited over the Ulster situation. The general impression is that something will turn up to straighten things out.

CITIZENS' DAY AT THE FAIR PLENTY OF AMUSEMENTS

TRADES AND LABOR PARADE, HORSE JUDGING AND WATER SPORTS THIS MORNING—HORSE RACES THIS AFTERNOON.

Today is Citizens' Day at the fair and as it is the closing day everyone is taking advantage of the last opportunity to see the splendid array of exhibits that are housed in Industrial Hall and the adjoining tents.

Labor Parade.

This morning there were so many attractions that one could not possibly take in all of them. One of the interesting features of the morning was the trades and labor parade. In this parade were five Indian bands, several of the cartage companies, the city's sanitary car and red devil, Rogers & Black's big motor coal truck most artistically decorated and a smaller truck driven by Mr. Cole of Cole's cigar store, who was most liberal in passing out cigars and tins of tobacco to the spectators as he passed along.

The $50 prize for the best decorated float went to Rogers & Black.

Horse Judging.

Following the trades and labor parade, the judging of horses
