NO VIOLENCE USED CHARGE DISMISSED

Belway, Charged With Obstructing the Malis, is a Free Man Once More

The trial of Joe Belway charged with obstructing His Majes-'s mail between Kitsumkalum and Rosswood was in progress this morning before His Honor Judge Young. W. E. Fisher acted as crown prosecutor and L. W. Patmore for the accused. Among those who gave evidence were the accused, Mr. Hastings. the mail carrier, and Mrs. Ross. postmistress at Rosswood. Nothing materially different from the story published a few days ago was adduced except that it was clearly shown that there was no force or violence used upon Hastings. The charge was dismissed.
