PRICE FIVE CENTS

$16,180 STOLEN FROM BANK AT NEW HAZELTON

THE BRITISH MINISTRY IN BAD BOX OVER LARKIN--VANCOUVER HUNTING PARTY IS MISSING

NEW HAZELTON UNION BANK LOOTED BY MASKED ROBBERS

CASHIER JOHN McQUEEN SHOT IN NOSE AND CHEEK — FIVE ROBBERS GOT AWAY AND WERE FOLLOWED BY A STRONG POSSE

(Special to The Daily News.)
New Hazelton, Nov. 12.—The Union Bank at New Hazelton was broken into last night and between $10,000 and $12,000 taken. The robbery was evidently well planned by those knowing the bank and the habits of the staff. It was shortly after six o'clock last evening when it took place, at a time when the building was usually deserted. But it chanced that the cashier had occasion to return to the bank. He opened the door to enter when one of the five masked robbers, then in the building and gathering up the change, fired at him. The bullet grazed the tip of his nose and entered his left cheek. The wound is not serious.

The sound of the shooting attracted the attention of the citizens and as soon as cashier McQueen and book-keeper Fenton had related what had occurred a posse was organized and started on the track of the robbers, who had fled in the direction of Aldermere. Chief Constable Gammon and Government Agent Hoskins at once took steps for the closing of every avenue by which the robbers could possibly escape and having all the roads and streams carefully guarded. Six suspicious characters were arrested and placed in the Hazelton gaol.
Manager Tatchell gives it as his opinion that the robbers were not experts, and had no need to be as the safe could easily be opened.

ROBBERS NOT CAUGHT

(Special to The Daily News)
Hazelton, Nov. 12.—2.15 p.m.—There are no new developments in the Union Bank robbery case since the arrest last night of the men who were proved innocent this morning and turned loose. No other arrests have as yet been made. A rancher coming to New Hazelton last night about 7 o'clock met five men on the road traveling towards Aldermere, one carrying a box. The police and special constables are still out searching for the robbers. The total amount taken from the bank has been ascertained to be $16,180.
The injured bank clerk, McQueen, who was shot, will have to go to the hospital at Victoria to locate by X-rays the bullets lodged in the base of his skull.

UNIONISTS AWAY AHEAD IN ENGLISH MUNICIPAL VOTING

GOVERNMENT SUPPORTER WINS OUT IN KEIGHLEY PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION—WHAT TO DO WITH LABOR AGITATOR LARKIN PUZZLES MINISTRY.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Nov. 12.—The three pending by-elections in Lanark, Wick and Keighley division of Yorkshire are causing Premier Asquith and his ministers great anxiety. In the latter place the hope was entertained that they would win with the aid of a thousand Irish voters. The voting took place at Keighley yesterday and Stanley Buckmaster, K. C., of the government party, won, defeating Lord Lascelles, Unionist, and William Bland, Labor. The results of the poll were: Buckmaster, 4,730; Lascelles, 3,852; Bland, 3,646.

kin. The working classes at least think the government can have no real defence for its action in imprisoning Larkin for wild talking while Carson and F. E. Smith are left untouched. The ministerial Daily News says: "The plain man can not understand why Larkin, who, with all his extravagances, and mistakes, is fighting a brave fight for the poor of Dublin, should die in prison, while Carson, who is engineering rebellion in Belfast, is free. If we do these things, we must expect to suffer the consequences."

J. B. Archer has been elected by the town council Mayor of Battersea. Archer is the first colored man to hold such a position in the history of England. His father was a West Indian and his mother an Irish photographer. The mayoralty elections in England resulted in the following division of party lines: Unionists 208; Liberals 125; Labor 5; Independent 15; National 5.

Just what to do with Larkin the Dublin strike leader, is a paramount question for the government. It is dangerous to keep him in prison and dangerous to set him free. The government is sure to lose votes over it either way. His prosecution is described by the Chronicle as a superb blunder. Probably the first sequel will be the release of Larkin.

ONE BOTTLE OF BUDWEISER WOULDN'T MAKE ANNIE DRUNK

INDIAN GIRL ADMITTED THAT SHE DRANK A BOTTLE OF BEER
BUT PERSISTED SHE WAS NOT DRUNK.

There was unusual activity in police court circles this morning and quite a number of visitors were in attendance, probably for the purpose of having a look at the man who is charged with defrauding so many local people by means of forged cheques.

Several cases of drunkenness among Indians occupied the attention of the magistrate. Carrie Mahoney, a girl with a genuine Indian countenance but a real Irish name, was charged with being drunk. Constable Pat Phillipson, who laid the charge, gave evidence to the effect that he found Carrie and another girl in a shack back of the Houston Cafe. Both were under the influence of liquor. They told him that a man working for the electric light department had supplied them with the liquor. When questioned by the magistrate, Carrie admitted that she drank a bottle of "Bud" but persisted that she was not drunk. Carrie had a very determined look on her countenance when she was in the prisoner's stand. The penetrating stare had no effect on the constable giving evidence against her. A fine of $5 and $2 costs was imposed.

Annie Brooks, the girl with Carrie in the shack, was also charged with the same offence. "Were you drinking?" asked the magistrate. "Yes, I drank a bottle of beer but I didn't get drunk on it," was the decided and frank answer of the accused, her tone being such as to indicate that the idea of getting drunk on an innocent bottle of beer is ridiculous. She was also ordered to pay a fine of $5 and $2 costs.

A summons will be issued for the appearance of the man who, according to the girls' story, supplied the refreshments.

A young Indian boy named McKay was also charged with being drunk. He admitted the charge and said that he got the liquor from a white man at the Grand Hotel. Constable Phillipson said he did not believe the boy's story. He was convinced that the boy's brother had supplied it. A fine of $5 and costs was imposed.

James Pamford, a strong, husky looking man, was charged with begging from house to house. He admitted being guilty but said he had been drinking. Ten days ago he had $200, but had met a lot of friends and his money had disappeared. A fine of $10 or ten days was the penalty. Pamford pleaded like a child for a suspended sentence, but received no mercy.

Martin Hanson, who was up yesterday on a charge of stealing $1 and let off on paying a fine for being drunk, was before the magistrate again this morning charged with being drunk and causing a disturbance. He admitted the charge and a penalty of $10 or ten days was imposed.

GREAT LAKES BEGIN TO GIVE UP DEAD FROM RAGING STORM

Loss in Lives and Dollars at Present Unascertainable---In Cleveland Alone the Damage is Estimated at Two Millions--- Shores Strewn With Bodies

(Special to The Daily News)
St. Joseph, Ont., Nov. 12.—Bodies of five drowned men, all with life belts on, four of which are marked "Vexford" and the other "London," were found yesterday on Lake Huron beach, five miles south of here. They are apparently sailors and it is thought are the bodies of some of those who perished in the disaster which overtook the unknown freighter found bottom up off North Sarnia.

Detroit, Nov. 12.—The terrific blizzard which raged over the great lakes for forty-eight hours started to subside yesterday; the waters grew more calm and began to cast their dead ashore. No one will probably ever know the number who lost their lives during the terrible storms. It will take at least a month to approximate the total loss.

Buffalo, Nov. 12.—Fragments of wreckage are washed ashore along many miles of the lake front, confirming the fears that the storm which raged on Lake Erie on Sunday and until about noon yesterday had claimed its death toll. Six men perished when Lightship No. 82 was torn from its anchorage fifteen miles up the lake and shattered to splinters. Many craft were driven ashore and there must have been much loss of life.

Cleveland, Nov. 12.—With fair weather predicted for tomorrow Cleveland is hopeful tonight for a speedy cessation of the difficulties that beset it since the worst snowstorm in history settled upon it on Sunday night. (The total number of deaths has increased to five.)

Chicago, Nov. 12.—No less than twenty-seven bodies of men drowned in the storm were washed ashore today at various points on the Great Lakes. The wreck of a large steel freighter is reported on Lake Superior and two of her crew drowned.

Cleveland, Nov. 12.—The city is buried under twenty inches of snow, the streets are filled with a tangled mass of broken wires; thousands upon thousands of the inhabitants are in imminent danger of suffering from lack of food; three persons are dead and ten missing and believed to have been frozen to death as a result of the storms. The steamship J. G. Garmer is stranded on the beach and Capt. Burns and his crew of twenty-two are in danger of death any moment because of the mountainous seas rolling in from Lake Erie, and the life savers are standing by helpless to give aid. Last night it was still snowing and unless today we have the fine weather promised no one can estimate what the ultimate toll in lives and dollars will be. The money loss in this city is already estimated at two million dollars.

Nome, Nov. 12.—Another great storm threatened Nome last night. A gale of fifty miles an hour tossed the surf away up into the town. But the wind changed and the floods subsided just in time to prevent a second catastrophe.

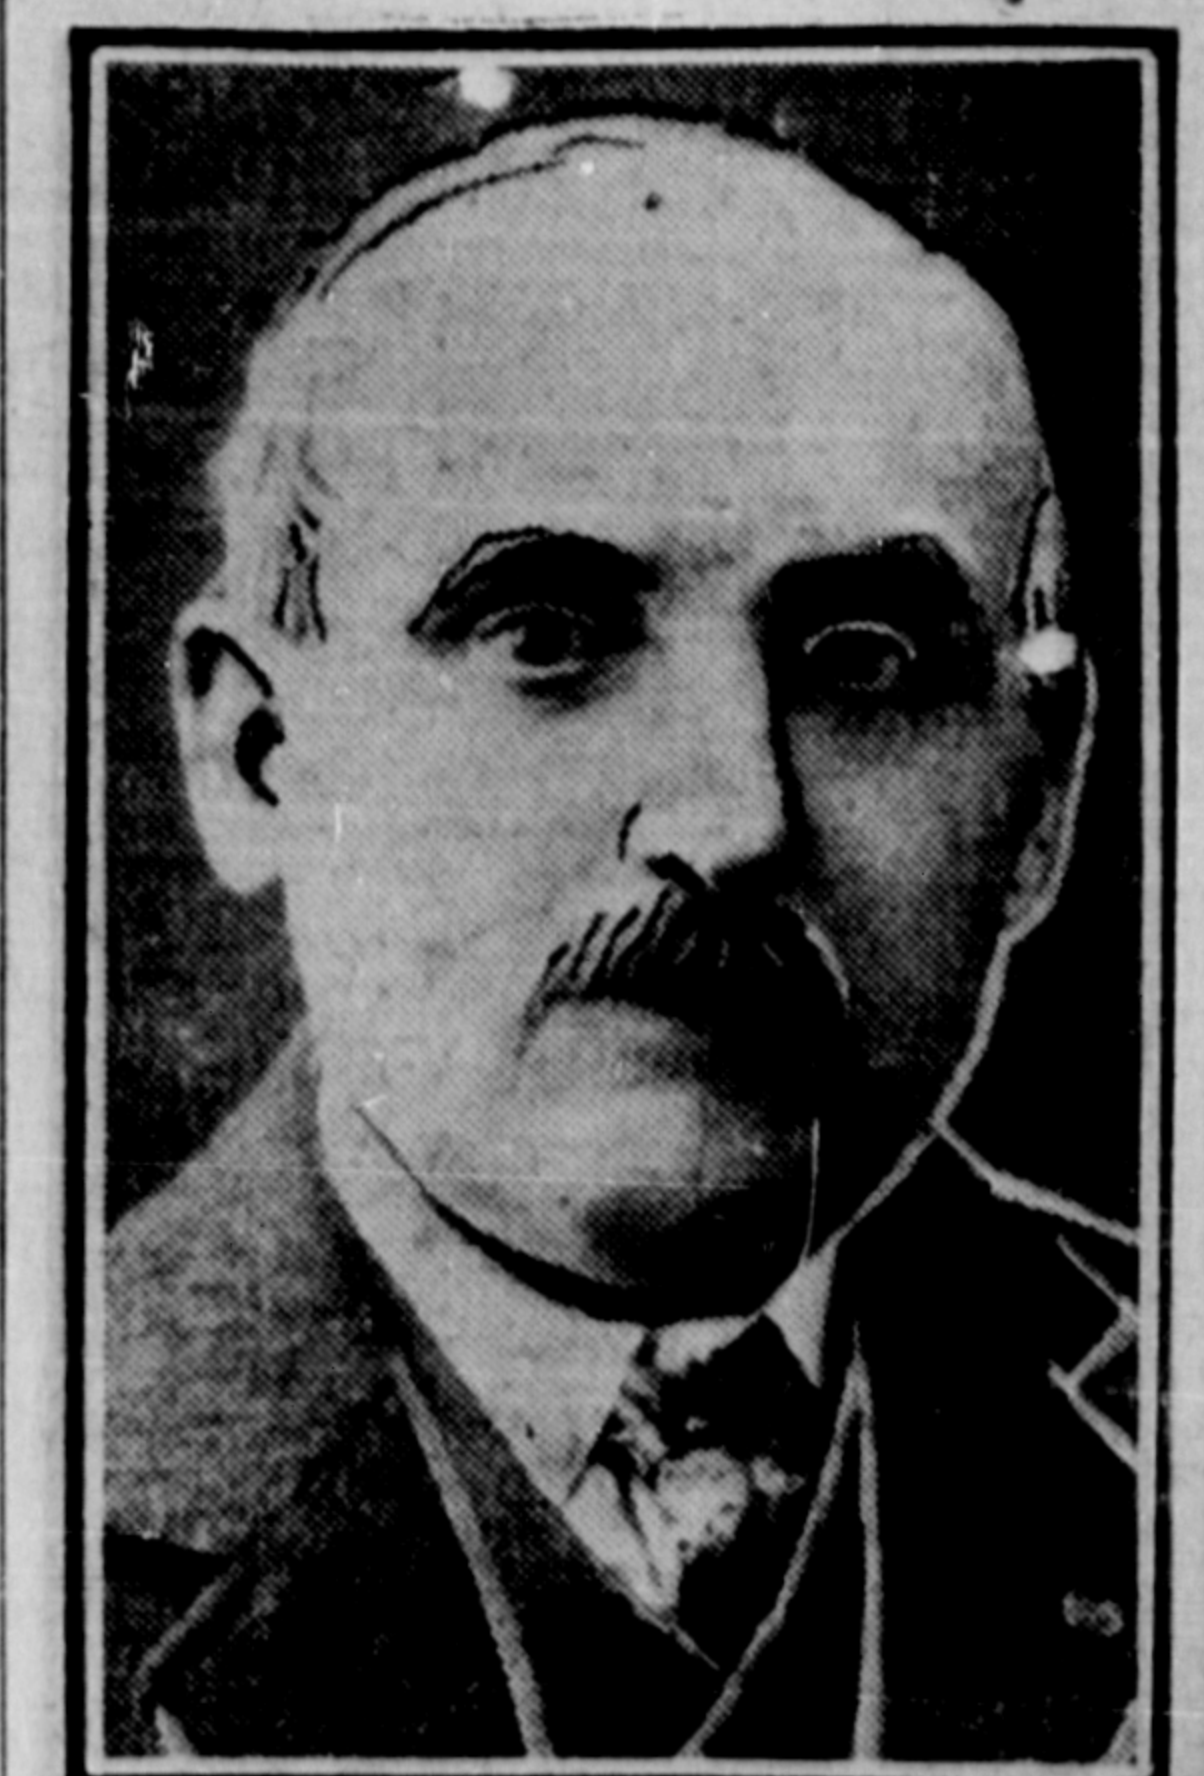

AMOUNT REALLY STOLEN

(Special to The Daily News)
New Hazelton, 2 p.m., Nov. 12.—Manager Tatchell went carefully over the books of the Union Bank this morning and had all the funds carefully counted and checked and counter-checked. He was able to announce a few minutes ago that the total sum looted by the robbers was $16,180.

FULL CONFESSION IS MADE TO CHIEF IN FORGERY CASES

JAMES W. OAKES, CHARGED WITH FORGERY OF CHEQUES, IS COMMITTED FOR TRIAL—RECORD WILL BE INVESTIGATED

James W. Oakes, charged with forgery of cheques, came up for preliminary hearing this morning before Magistrate Carss. Several individual charges were taken up, among which was the forgery of the name of H. R. Love to a cheque on the Bank of Montreal for $64 in favor of Thos. Grant.

Chief Vickers took the stand and testified that the accused after being warned that anything he said would be used in evidence against him, had made a clean breast of the whole affair. The accused had admitted that the cheque for $64 was forged by him and that Thos. Grant in whose favor it was drawn was a fictitious person. The accused had acknowledged that he received the money on this cheque at the Bank of Montreal. He also admitted working for Love for some time.

Other cheques on which charges were laid were as follows: Two for $24 drawn by A. R. Williams in favor of Thos. Grant; $21 drawn by A. B. Williams in favor of Tim Burns; $26 drawn by H. R. Love in favor of Alex. McDonald.

On the strength of the evidence of Chief Vickers as to the confession of the accused, the latter was committed for trial.

Finger prints and an accurate description of the accused have been taken and the police hope to learn something of his past career.

HUNTING PARTY FROM VANCOUVER IS LOST

Started Out for Howe Sound Saturday and Since Not Been Heard From

(Special to The Daily News.)
Vancouver, Nov. 12.—Fear is felt for the lives of a hunting party which left here on Saturday in a launch for Howe Sound, and who have not returned. The members of the party are John Marsh, manager of the Astor Hotel; W. Smith, Hugh Dallen, and W. Thorpe, real estate men; Fred Wyckoff, of Ames-Holden Shoe Co., and "Scotty" Young, a waiter bound for McNab Creek, opposite Gambier Island.
A search party left today to ascertain the fate of the party. The plan of the hunting party was to return Sunday night. A couple of hours after leaving here Saturday night, a terrific gale swept Howe Sound.
