

GREAT CLEVELAND FREIGHTER "CLARK" AS SHE APPEARED BEFORE BEING WRECKED.

Perhaps the greatest and most inexplicable feature for several days of the terrible drama gradually unfolded in the various lake ports after the great storm was the mystery surrounding the overturned boat thirteen miles from the lighthouse and seven miles from shore northeast of Port Huron. This was the "mystery ship" of the big hurricane. Bottom side up, with only a portion of the overturned bow and hull showing above water, this boat baffled all efforts to solve her identity. Not a scrap of wreckage had been found that could be traced to the ship. The "mystery ship" had to remain a mystery until a diver could bring up her secret from sixty feet of water. Marine men said there would have to be an absolutely smooth surface of water before a diver could go down, and for this condition the marine men waited for days. At length the lake became comparatively smooth and the diver went down. It was like being lowered down a steel wall. He felt his way with his fingers along the ship's side to the bow and there felt out with his fingers the letters which go to make up her name. He spelled out the name "Clark," and after that the name "Cleveland," and the mystery was solved.

COST OF LIVING MUCH LOWER IN THE INTERIOR OF ALASKA

PRICES OF FOODS AT FAIRBANKS HAVE DECREASED NEARLY ONE-HALF AND ARE NOW LOWEST IN CITY'S HISTORY.

Fairbanks, Alaska, Nov. 22.—It costs from 25 to 50 per cent. less to live in Fairbanks than it did last year. With the exception of meat and fruits, the prices for food have been lower in Fairbanks the past summer than ever before in the history of the north. The reduction has been brought about in large part by the rate war in which the Northern Navigation and American-Yukon Transportation companies indulged. Flour that brought $6.50 last year is now being sold for $4.50. All the cereals are sold at from $2 to $4 a case less, while everything in the vegetable line is being quoted at prices 25 per cent. lower.

Apples can be bought for $2 a box less, but other fruits bring about the same prices, but canned milk is retailing for 19 cents a can, or ten cans for $1.

Teamsters and freighters are delighted with the downward trend of prices for horse feed. Hay and oats are selling for $20 a ton less than last year. It is expected that there will not be any appreciable difference in the price of feed during the winter, because of the plentiful stocks that are carried by local merchants.

So cheap were the prices in Fairbanks the past summer that many lower river road house owners and merchants came up for their goods. They built rafts and floated down the Tanana and Yukon to their destinations and made great savings in their stocks.
