REBUKE TO LITTLE CANADIANS

ed a just rebuke to the little loyalists yesterday when he said it was a mistake to investigate the nationality of the holder of every little job in the city. There is too much of it being done. Canada spends a fortune every year to advertise the country and invite foreigners to come here and make their home. When they come so long as they are good citibe unquestioned. Eventually they will become good Canadians, and even if they do not themselves their offspring will have inbibed sufficiently of the muskeg and mountains to satisfy the most ardent patriot.

TABULATE YOUR ARGUMENTS

In yesterday's issue the Daily News tabulated a number of the arguments used in connection with the Hydro-Electric agreement, both pro and con. It is the intention to add to those arguments and publish them occasionally until the election is over. Any citizen who has anything materially to add to that list would confer a favor on this paper by presenting his case. With all the arguments that can possibly bear upon the subject brought thus side by side it should be an easy matter for the electors to decide.

Questions of this kind are very often decided by passion zens their nationality should and prejudice rather than by cool thinking. There is even now a tendency in a certain local section to cast unfair insinuations upon a few of the proud of the class of men who have served her in a public way. No man has ever dared to assert that any of our public Should those insinuations continue the fair minded citizens in no uncertain way.

should show their resentment
