CO. WILL SELL NO POWER LOWER THAN CITY RATES

When the original agreement between the city and the Prince Rupert Hydro-Electric Company was drawn up the intention and spirit of the agreement was that the company would not enter into competition with the city in selling of power for industrial purposes.

On the agreement being presented to the people for approval one of the objections was the doubt cast that the company would underbid the city in offering industrial power. To overcome this objection Mayor Pattullo has succeeded in getting a revision in the agreement which Christmas joy among the Japanese at Georgetown became so hilarious that it changed to a quarrel. The sake helped some too, being a fighting brand. There was a lot of laughter and then some Japanese swear words, followed by a flash of knives and a mix-up.

The story is not overdrawn in any respect and holds the intense interest of the audience from start to finish. A synopsis of this play is hardly necessary as the story is well known to the reading public. As produced by the Josephine Deffy Company this play has proven an unqualified success and should draw a crowded house both Monday and Tuesday. Wednesday and Thursday this company will present the Chorus Lady for the first time in Prince Rupert. STRIKERS BORE COFFINS THROUGH CALUMET STREETS

(Special to The Daily News.) Calumet, Mich., Dec. 29.—Yesterday was a sad day in this city when the victims of the terrible panic on Christmas Eve were buried. The strikers bore the coffins through the streets and as their arms wearied with the load and their feet tired from the slippery roads their comrades relieved them of their burden.

Thousands lined the streets. With men in tears and women sobbing openly, the scene was one of deep tragedy. Fifty miners, mostly Englishmen from Cornwall, chanted hymns as the procession passed. The whole country is in great excitement over the recent happenings. A special grand jury has been called to consider the deportation of President Meyer and the condition of the strike among the copper miners. Warrants have been served on the leading persons on both sides.

Word has been received that the Chicago Federation of Labor will take the matter up with Congress. Resolutions of that body have been sent to Washington asking for an investigation.

A Socialist newspaper in Hancock is charged with publishing mis-statements calculated to incite riot.

STRUCK AT M'KEEN WITH THICK IRON BAR

Blacksmith on McLeod and Muse Contract Got Fired and Lost Temper.

J. S. Brady was in police court this morning on a charge of assault. He struck at a man with an iron bar, but the blow was fortunately diverted by a pipe.

Brady is a blacksmith who had a job on the McLeod and Muse excavating contract. He did not appear for work Friday and H. E. McKeen was put on in his place. Brady turned up later and not knowing he was fired he ordered McKeen off. Naturally the latter refused to go and the trouble started. This misunderstanding was finally fixed up and the two blacksmiths shook hands. McKeen turned to his work and then Brady lunged at him with the bar. Fortunately it did not land. Brady paid a $20 fine, and put up a $250 bond to keep the peace.
