VOTE DOWN THE BYLAWS DON'T LET THE COMPANY IN

had to take a chance. Let them take a chance.

With this maze of kilowatts, horse powers, peak loads, and stepping down and stepping up, it is hard to form an opinion.

It is a healthy thing to see a city jealous of its franchises.

This agreement has all the earmarks of a corporation grab. They dangle the bait in the darkest days of the year. If you bite you're hooked.

Men who say everybody is trying to sell to the city at a higher price than any one else have no faith to build a city. They have not faith enough to build a dog house.

I have faith, but I am not going to carry it to the feet of a corporation.

Pattullo and Naden were supporters of public ownership platforms. Now just when the goal is in sight they turn tail and throw up their hands.

W. P. Lynch

As I figure out this proposition the prices under either scheme are about the same. But if the city installs 835 h. p. they will have to pay for the whole 835. If they buy it from the company they pay for what they get.

The company are not philanthropists. They expect to make money.

The costs of the hydro-electric development have been underestimated.

It is for you to say whether you want to spend your money on this scheme and let your streets and sewers go, or buy power and spend the money on the streets.

Fred Stork

I am sorry the proposition is submitted just now. We ought to discuss it without heat or feeling.

Previous speakers have not yet reached the point. We are paying 18c for light and we want relief. If Ross and Thompson had been living here for years paying 18c they would want redress, too.

Woodworth Lake power is too limited. If our city is only going to be big enough to use the amount of power available there we had better let it alone.

This agreement is giving no franchise. It is an agreement to buy power at a fixed rate. It is up to the opponents to show some redress. I have been waiting six years now.

If you could dispose of the sewers as easy as Mr. Manson did it would be very nice, but wiping them off the blackboard does not dispose of the sewers. This item is still before us. What are we going to do?

We want payrolls and cheap power. If the city cannot furnish it let us make a contract with those who can.

L. W. Patmore announced another field night when those favorable to the bylaw would be heard.

Daughters of the Empire

TERRACE NOTES.

Terrace, Jan. 1.—The festivities of Christmas and New Years here closed with a dance in the Progress Club Hall on New Years Eve. This event was largely attended and all present joined in "Auld Lang Syne" as the hour of midnight struck.

The Christmas tree which was held on Christmas Eve was a great success. Previous to the giving of the presents the programme consisted of vocal and instrumental music, and a sketch entitled "Irish Justice." Among those taking part were: Misses Leila Brooks and Sparks, Messrs. Hyder, Eby, Pearson, Just and Large. Two numbers were rendered by a chorus of ladies and gentlemen, and several very much appreciated items were given by the local school children. Miss Gladys Kenney and Master Frank Lazelle captivated the audience by their rendering of various nursery rhymes.

A large number came in from the country districts and from Terrace to attend the dance in "Dad Meek's" hall at Kitsumkalum just before Christmas. The music was furnished by an orchestra consisting of two violins and a guitar played by Messrs. F. Lazelle, Frank and Lightwine. The ladies of Kitsumkalum furnished refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Head are now settled in their new house near the mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Long are spending the winter in town.

Mr. Editor: In reference to a little anecdote I related at the meeting last night in regard to a conversation between the manager of the Prince Rupert Hydro-Electric Co. and myself, I wish to state that I had no reference at all to Mr. Agnew.

C. W. PECK.

Calgary is a strong municipal ownership city; owns all its public utilities, including street car system; Calgary buys power in bulk at the city limits and pays higher rates than the rates in this agreement.

75 cent all-wool dress tweed for 55 cents a yard at Wallace's sale, beginning Thursday.

Children's coats all reduced 33½ cents on the dollar—Wallace's sale.

Fownes' wool-lined dogskin gloves, regular value $2, to go at $1.25—Wallace's sale.

They're new and modish, smart, well tailored, worth three times the money, but we must clear them out and all of our ladies' suits go at the flat price of $10 when the big sale starts on Thursday of this week at Wallace's.
