SUBMARINE SANK CREW PROBABLY DEAD

ables Coming to Surface Indicate Hopeless to Save Men

(Special to The Daily News.) Plymouth, Eng., Jan. 17.—The fish submarine "A-7" has sundered off here. The authority say there is little hope of the crew being saved.
The submarine was engaged in exercises with sister ships at the mouth of the accident. She failed to come to the surface when the signals were over. Several bubbles were seen rising to the surface.
The crew consisted of Lieut.
M. Wilman and another and fourteen men. Five members of the crew were on the parent ship Onyx.
The vessel was getting into communication at that hour.

Sixth Submarine Disaster Plymouth, Jan. 17.—Two officers and nine men, the crew of British submarine A-7 are dead in that craft beneath the surface in Whitesand Bay. When the men are alive or dead is unknown, but it is believed that they have perished. The exact location where the vessel sank is not definitely located. Grappling operations are to be commenced this morning. A boat capable of lifting the sunken submarine from the top of the water is ordered to be present at Whitesand Bay.
Whether the machinery is disabled or whether she tore a hole in herself or is caught in a sunken object is the merest speculation.

This is the sixth boat of the A which has come to grief and the question is being asked whether the government ought to abandon this class for a more modern one of the C and D classes.

AFRICAN STRIKE IS ENDING

Government Now Enforcing Military Law With Strictness

(Special to The Daily News.)
Johannesburg, Jan. 17.—Despatches from all over South Africa indicate that the strikers returning to work and a victory has been won by the government in its war with the African Federation. The strike instituted by General Botha has seen in the arrest of 62 members of the Typographical union today while meeting, charged with contravening the provisions of the martial law in force.
The men had decided to return to work.

MACFARLANE FACES NEW CHARGE BROUGHT FROM VANCOUVER

CASE REMANDED IN POLICE COURT AWAITING THE STENO-GRAPHER'S NOTES ON LATE SLANDER TRIAL

L. E. Macfarlane, the defendant in the late scandal case, is again in trouble. This time it is a case of perjury as a sequel of the evidence given at the slander trial.

The information was laid by R. J. Abbott, and Macfarlane, who left here last Sunday night on the Princess Royal, was arrested when he landed in Vancouver and brought back to Prince Rupert yesterday. He appeared in police court this morning.

The counsel for the prosecution asked for a remand of eight days, as the evidence to be produced was to be taken from the court notes of the late slander trial. The stenographer, however, had not yet transcribed the notes and it was impossible to get them.

L. W. Patmore, counsel for Macfarlane, asked for immediate dismissal. He said the defendant had told the judge and the counsel of the plaintiff that he was leaving town and this warrant had not been issued until after he left. He would not consent to a remand for an instant. There was no evidence and no witnesses. The late trial was a month ago and there had been plenty of time to get the notes.

Mr. A. M. Manson said he had spoken to the chief that this charge was pending and was only awaiting the stenographer's notes. Macfarlane had slipped out of town, leaving the lights burning in his house.

The magistrate decided to remand the case until Tuesday morning, claiming there ought to be some way of compelling the stenographer to get those notes out by that time.

C. N. R. ASKS HIGHER GUARANTEE RATE

Sir D. Mann Thinks It Would Help Sell the Bonds

Victoria, Jan. 16.—That the hastened visit of Sir Donald Mann to Victoria had more in it than an intention to seek a few months' extension of time given for the completion of Canadian Northern lines in British Columbia, is generally accepted in semi-official government circles here.

Sir Donald has now announced that he will not press an extension application, but says that the work can be finished up this year within a month or two of the time limit given by the province. It was asserted that the C.
N. R. vice-president came to Victoria came to induce the Provincial government to increase its bond interest guarantee from 4 1/2 to 5 per cent. In order, it is claimed, he said, that in these times of financial stringency the railway company might take its bonds at a better figure. It was suggested that the C.N.R. bonds with a five per cent. interest guarantee from the British Columbia Government, would bring par on the market. Sir Richard McBride said this morning that such an application as this had not been taken up by the government.

SENATOR GEORGE COX DIED YESTERDAY

Well-known Canadian Financier Died at His Home in Toronto

(Special to The Daily News)
Toronto, Jan. 17.—Senator George A. Cox died at his home here today, aged 74 years.

Senator Cox was one of the best known financiers in Canada.
He was identified very promi-nently with the banking institutions and loan companies, being regarded as one of the men who controlled the financial situation of Canada. His age given in the despatch as 74 is probably incorrect, and it is more likely he was about 84 years of age.

In the early days of the Grand Trunk Pacific, Senator Cox was very prominently identified with that great undertaking, being one of the original Canadian directors named in the charter. He has visited the site of Prince Rupert in that connection, coming here with the party of directors and officials when the site of the future terminus was made.

Senator Cox was a life-long Methodist and when the church of that denomination was erected here he contributed to the building funds to some extent.

Who Will be It?

Speaking to The News this morning Mayor Newton said the selection of the standing committees for the year would not be completed until Monday night.

There has been some guessing on the slate and one citizen who takes a deep interest in civic affairs has it sized up this way:

Finance—Ald. Morrissey, Mc-Clymont and the Mayor.

Light and Telephone—Ald.
Montgomery, Kerr and Morrison.
Board of Works—Ald. Dybhavn, Maitland and Basso-Bert.

BIG SHOT MONDAY

The biggest shot among many big ones that Prince Rupert has witnessed will be fired on Monday. There will be forty tons of explosives discharged. The whole hill below the Knox Hotel will be blown out. The debris will be thrown across the railway right of way and consequently all the rails are now being removed to prevent damage. In the former shot the rails were damaged beyond repair, and this time that will be prevented.

Capt. McTavish Here

Capt. McTavish of Graham Centre, O. C. L., arrived in the city yesterday morning and will remain for a few days. The captain is very typical of the sturdy Highlanders who are always to be found on the "firing line" and who have done so much for the development of this great western country.

Rolling Stock Arrives

A C. P. R. barge and tug arrived a few days ago with additional rolling stock for the G. T.
P. The cargo included five box cars, two refrigerators, one snow plow and four engines. The barge will sail for the south again tomorrow.

NEW ORDER-IN-COUNCIL ON IMMIGRATION FROM ORIENT

COMMISSION ON HIGH COST OF LIVING GIVEN POWER TO TAKE EVIDENCE UNDER OATH

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—Assurance is given by the government that the high cost of living commission will be given all necessary power to issue summons and take evidence under oath.
The cabinet has rescinded all orders-in-council regarding Oriental immigration and has issued new ones. The landing of an immigrant who has not come by direct route or by continuous journey from the country of which he is a native is prohibited. Asiatic immigrants must have $200 in their possession.

VALUE OF READING ADS.

A few people are prejudiced against advertisements and refuse to read them. Those people do not know that advertisements are usually the product of the best brains in the country. As an illustration of this look up the ad. of the Canadian Press Association in this issue entitled "Fact Hunger."

The same can be said of a great many others. Remember this, too, that no man will spend good money in advertising unless he has something out of the ordinary to offer. People are losing money every day because they do not watch the ads. in the local papers.

No Midnight Sessions

"I think you are safe in saying there will be no repetition of the midnight sessions of two years ago during the present regime of Mayor Newton," commented one of the city aldermen.
"The aldermen have found that it is unnecessary and they will not stand for it."

AUTO HOLDS TWO IN GRIM TRAGEDY

Infatuation for Business Partner Leads to Murder and Suicide

Long Beach, Cal., January 16.
Knowledge that his infatuation for Mrs. Viola A. Kerr, his business partner, had become known to his wife, his parents, his intimate friends and business associates, coupled with the fact that Mrs. Kerr had refused to desert her husband and two children to elope with him, was believed by the police to be the reason why Arthur E. Cunningham, a prominent real estate dealer of this city, shot and killed Mrs.
Kerr last night and then committed suicide.

The bodies of Cunningham and Mrs. Kerr were found in an automobile at the roadside of a lonely portion of the city. Both had been shot through the head, and in the man's hand was the revolver that had discharged the bullets.

Today Mrs. Effie J. Cunningham, widow of the dead man, admitted that her husband had been in love with Mrs. Kerr and she declared that two months ago he had chosen the dead woman in preference to her.

Mrs. Cunningham said she had told her husband he must choose between them and that his choice had been Mrs. Kerr.

It developed today that Mrs.
Kerr and Cunningham went on a long ride in the former's automobile yesterday afternoon, during which, the police believe, Cunningham attempted to persuade his business partner to elope with him. Failing, he killed her and ended his own life.

Mrs. Kerr was one of the best known business women in this city and both she and Cunningham were wealthy.

Ex-Mayor Pattullo Advises the Changing of Issue to 20-
Year Sixes

Editor News.

Dear Sir: On the platform in the recent campaign I intimated that I thought we should be able to make a flotation of our debentures by shortening the term and increasing the rate of interest. Negotiations were already pending in this direction and I hope that the new council will not hesitate to continue the same. I believe that our entire issue changed to 20 year sixes will find a market.

A representative of the Toledo firm which purchased $160,000 of our debentures last year will be in town in the course of a few days to look over the situation, and I trust that the new council will not allow preconceived ideas as to long term issues interfere with negotiations already under way.

I again thank all supporters and workers in the campaign, including yourself and Mr. Nelson of the Journal.

I beg to remain,

Faithfully yours,

T. D. PATTULLO.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY SOCIAL AND DANCE

Gay Evening With a Splendid Program—Whist Drive
a Feature

St. Andrew's Society gave a most delightful social and dance in the comfortable quarters last evening. A whist drive was the opening feature of the evening's pleasure, the favors being won by Mrs. Steen and Mr. William Brown.

The Misses Knott and Miss Annie Kelly, pupils of Miss Ethel Grey, gave a splendid exhibition of the shen tews. Another number which won deserved applause was the Highland fling by Miss Beatrice Killen.

Mr. Algy Hunter and Mr. Robt.
Doutcher sang, and Piper Sturgeon did yeoman service with the bagpipes. The music was supplied by the society's own orchestra.

During the course of the evening a delightful supper was served, the tables being waited upon by the Misses Beatrice Killen, Caroline Mitchell and Jeanie Duff.

Amongst those who thoroughly enjoyed themselves were:
Mr. and Mrs. J. Allan, Mr. and Mrs. Clapperton, Mr. and Mrs. J.
H. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. J. Steen, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. and

Attacks Foreign Office

London, Jan. 17.—The Outlook contains an editorial attacking the Foreign Office on account of a report of Sir Lionel Garden complaining that he has been made the subject of an unwarranted intrigue.
