NOTICE

To the Members of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association

The annual general meeting of members will be held in the city hall at 8 p.m. Thursday, January 29th, 1914, to receive the directors' and other reports and to elect directors for the ensuing year.

By order of the Board,
W. M. WRIGHT,
Managing Secretary

Granby, and catch a boat south from there.

R. H. Robertson, the popular proprietor of the Stewart News agency, went south on the Prince John for a month's vacation to the coast cities. This is the first time Bob has been out since he first came to the camp in the days of the boom. He undoubtedly has a touch of high life coming.

Will J. Rolfe, M. E., arrived on the Prince John on Friday and will visit the Salmon River camps. He represents the Canadian Mining & Exploration Co. of Toronto and New York, and in association with Ralph Stokes of the same company examined a number of local properties last summer.

Fred Steer, who has for the last six months been working at the Portland Tunnels, left of the Old Country on the Prince John. Fred is an old-timer here, but says he has eaten all the powder smoke he intends to and now proposes to go back and camp on a little farm in Devonshire and stay there. He takes with him the best wishes of the boys.
