

ENGLISH HAND-MADE LACE

MADE BY THE COTTAGERS OF BUCKINGHAMSHIRE.

This is the old-fashioned lace made on the cushion, and was first introduced into England by the Flemish Refugees. It is still made by the village women in their quaint old way.

Our Laces were awarded the Gold Medal at the Festival of Empire and Imperial Exhibition, Crystal Palace, LONDON, ENGLAND, for general excellence of workmanship.

BUY some of this hand-made Pillow Lace, it lasts MANY times longer than machine made variety, and imparts an air of distinction to the possessor, at the same time supporting the village lace-makers, bringing them little comforts otherwise unobtainable on an agricultural man's wage. Write for descriptive little treatise, entitled "The Pride of North Bucks," containing 200 striking examples of the lace makers' art, and is sent post free to any part of the world. Lace for every purpose can be obtained, and within reach of the most modest purse.

Every sale, however small, is a support to the industry.

CANADIAN PREMIER NOW A CHANGED MAN

Premier Borden No Longer Objects to "Degrading Details and Broken Promises"

Ottawa, Jan. 23.—In laying down his Halifax platform on August 21, 1907, Mr. Borden said:

"Shall our advent to power mean no more than a mere party triumph? Are the experiences of the past ten years to be repeated in all their degrading details of broken pledges, opportunist policy, stolen elections, indecent public appointments, and robbing of public assets? Those who know me best, know how little I have desired a public career; and if I thought such an outcome possible I would turn with unspokeable aversion from the task before me."

Yet this same Mr. Borden as premier has neglected every pledge he made in the Halifax platform. He has countenanced the opportunist policy which dictated the secret alliance of the Imperialist Tories and the Quebec Nationalists; he has approved of such stolen elections as MacDonald, Chateaugay and Hochelega; he has approved the scramble to dismiss every responsible Liberal from the civil service and approved such "indecent public fill them with Conservatives; he appointments" as that of the Hon. A. B. Morine to the chairmanship of the public enquiry commission, which was so bad that on the publication of Mr. Morine's record he was compelled to resign. As to "robbery of the public assets," Mr. Borden has defended the Prince Albert land deal, which robbed the public domain of $350,000, the Dornval military site deal, which took nearly $100,000 out of the public; the Gimli land sale, which gave to a party friend land worth $15,000 for $750 and a host of similar transactions. Premier Borden has yet to show any "unspokeable aversion" for the task before him, even with such allies as Hon. Robert Rogers, Hon. Dr. Reid and Hon. L. P. Pelletier.
