IMPOSING ROSEDALE RESIDENCE OF H. PULLMAN EVANS, FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE, FOL-LOWING COLLAPSE OF UNION LIFE

Union Life men must face trial. Criminal charge follows evidence taken after a searching enquiry. The wreck of the Union Life Insurance Company, anthe subsequent enquiry on behalf of the British shareholders, has been followed by the arrest in Toronto of Harry Symons, K. C., and the issuing of warrants for the arrest of H. Pullman Evans, now in France; Geo. E. Millichamp, who is now in a sanitarium at Guelph, and F. G. Hughes of Galt, who was taken into custody at Edmonton, Alta. The charge is conspiracy to defraud. The action of the crown, while not unexpected, created a sensation, for two of the indicted men have been quite prominent in business for a decade. Mr. Symons was, for a time, the prospective Unionist nominee for the British House of Commons in Walthamstew. The nomination was never confirmed because his personal views did not wholly coincide with the Unionist policies. Bail was granted in three sureties, of $5,000 each, or $15,000 in all.

TWO CHILDREN WERE BURNED TO DEATH

While Youngsters Were in Bed

Tacoma, Feb. 7 .- Despite th heroic efforts of Joe Fuche du ing a fire which destroyed his place, two children were burned to death in their bed. Fuche and his wife had returned from the barn on their place to the house, when the roof suddenly collapsed which had only recently been completed and furnished. As they arrived at the house it was bursting into flames.

> The womans frantic efforts to enter the place were defeated with the rush of the flames. Fuche was badly burned in his efforts to reach the children's bedroom. He succeeded in rescuing the third baby, which is only a few months old, and which had been left in the kitchen.

Explosion of the oil stove is believed to have been the cause of the fire.

There is a man who makes shoes for childrenand sells them to stores all over Canada But he is only just learning how people buy.

It was this way: His wife-let us call her Mrs. Brown-'phoned to him and asked him to buy some underwear for little Brown.

Picture Brown now among the throng of mothers at the "Children's Underwear" counter. He asks for Underwear for a child of six. He looks it over helplessly. What on earth does he know about Children's Underwear? For lack of anything better to say he asks: "Is this good quality?" The answer is short and quite conclusive: "It's Blank's"—naming a welladvertised line. That short word says everything. Brown pays his money and goes home, quite satisfied with his purchase.

Now what bothers Brown—a manufacturer of shoes, is this: How would it affect the purchase of a child's shoes if the salesman said "They're Brown's"?

Nobody knows Brown's shoes. Brown doesn't advertise.

The name Brown signifies nothing when used in connection with children's shoes. The salesman must use all his persuasive wiles to induce people to buy them.

The point is — If the name Brown was as synonomous with Children's Shoes as "Blank's" is with Underwear, wouldn't Brown sell more shoes with less effort?
