TRYING TO BEAT THE HIGH COST OF LIVING
Great crush to buy the "Housewives' League" bargains in Toronto. This is an organization of women who buy produce direct from the producer and sell it direct to the consumer, thereby cutting out the middleman and his profit. At the first sale by the league there was a small riot, and several women retired with torn clothing and other damages. At all subsequent sales the police have been in charge and order maintained. The prices obtained are less than current retail prices, but a very small portion of the crowd which wants to buy can be served.

BANDITS BEAT VICTIM LEFT HIM TIED TO TREE
Camper Robbed and Maltreated—Posse Is Chasing Criminals

Los Angeles, Feb. 16.—After beating him almost into insensibility and taking his entire camping outfit, including a horse and wagon, three highwaymen stripped Wm. Jones, a rancher, of nearly all his clothing, and left him tied to a tree near Whittier, a suburb.

Shivering in the early morning chill, Jones remained trussed up until after daylight, when he was found, and a posse set on the trail of his assailants.

Jones told the police that the highwaymen awakened him as he lay in camp about 3 o'clock this morning.

MUST NOT DRINK AND TANGO TOO

Vancouver License Commissioners Put a Limit on Popular Recreation

In the opinion of the Vancouver board of license commissioners there is nothing wrong with the tango as danced in the Vancouver hotel or elsewhere in that city, and accordingly they have decided to place no ban on it so long as no liquor is sold at the same time. The report of License Inspector Reid stated that he had attended a few of the tango teas and so far as he was in a position to judge there was no objection to it. With this expression the board agreed.

ENGLISH HAND-MADE LACE
MADE BY THE COTTAGERS OF BUCKINGHAMSHIRE.
This is the old-fashioned lace made on the cushion, and was first introduced into England by the Flemish Refugees. It is still made by the village women in their quaint old way.
Our Laces were awarded the Gold Medal at the Festival of Empire and Imperial Exhibition, Crystal Palace, LONDON, ENGLAND, for general excellence of workmanship.
BUY some of this hand-made Pillow Lace, it lasts MANY times longer than machine made variety, and imparts an air of distinction to the possessor, at the same time supporting the village lace-makers, bringing them little comforts otherwise unobtainable on an agricultural man's wage. Write for descriptive little treatise, entitled "The Pride of North Bucks," containing 200 striking examples of the lace makers' art, and is sent post free to any part of the world. Lace for every purpose can be obtained, and within reach of the most modest purse.
Every sale, however small, is a support to the industry.
Collars, Fronts, Plaques, Jabots, Yokes, Flashes, Berthes, Handkerchiefs, Stocks, Camisoles, Chemise Sets, Tea Cloths, Table Centres, P'Ortoies, Mats, Medallions, Quaker and Peter Pan Sets, etc., from 25c. (25c.) $1.00, $1.50, $2.00 up to $5.00 each. Over 800 designs in yard lace and insertion from 10c. 15c. 20c. 45c. up to $8.00 per yard.
IRISH CROCHET.
Mrs. Armstrong having over 100 Irish peasant girls connected with her industry, some beautiful samples of Irish hand-made lace may be obtained. All work being sold direct from the lace-makers, both the workers and customers derive great advantage.
No. 122—80c. per yard.
No. 910—Lace 1 1/2 in. deep.
DAINTY HANDKIE—70c.

A BEAUTIFUL EVENING GOWN
Of tango colored charmeuse, showing the newest phase of the fishtail train supplemented with a beautifully embroidered tunic in which all the most exquisite Persian colorings are introduced. The upper portion of the corsage is of ninon, the draped sleeves being decorated with charmeuse buttons.

The Tale The Wagons Tell

My office window faces a street, close to the railway freight sheds.

All day long a steady stream of trucks and lorries lumber by—loaded with boxes, barrels and bales.

One truck I noticed the other afternoon was particularly interesting. No two boxes were the same, and stencilled on the end of each was the name of some well-known product—soap, tobacco, socks, breakfast food, cocoa, port, tea, chocolates, perfumery and baking powder.

Gathered there in prosaic wooden boxes were the results of thousands of hand's labor in all parts of the world.

The cocoa had been grown in Brazil, shipped to Bristol, transhipped to Montreal and finally distributed from Toronto.

The tea was gathered by swart-skinned natives of the romantic island of Ceylon; from sunny Portugal the luscious, big grapes had been gathered years ago, fermented, bottled and branded with a famous name; from Egypt had come the cotton and from South America the dyes that entered into the product finally stamped with the brand of a well-known hosiery.

There, behind that obviously prosaic truck-load of freight was the whole romance of modern commerce—the skilled production, the universal demand for food, drink and raiment, and the world-wide distribution of the things we use every day.

And then I speculated why we use these things every day, instead of some other things; and that brought me plump back to my own job of advertising.

The names of some of the boxes on the lorry were known everywhere to-day, but had been unknown a few years ago; and I saw then more clearly than ever before that Advertising is really a great channel digger. It is like the Panama Canal. You can sail from Montreal to Vancouver now, around the Horn. You can get there, but it is going to take months. A year or so from now you will sail through the Panama Canal and chop the journey to less than half. A new channel will have been dug.

The great names in commerce to-day are those of the manufacturers who have let modern advertising steam-shovel a channel across the isthmus of distributing difficulties.

The great names in the commerce of to-morrow will be those of men who widen and dredge this channel so that the greater traffic may pass smoothly and quickly from the source of production to the homes of the consumer.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.

Skeena Land District—District of Coast Range Five.

TAKE NOTICE that I, Thomas McClymont, of the City of Prince Rupert, in the Province of British Columbia, broker, intend to apply for permission to lease thirty (30) acres of land bounded as follows:

Commencing at this post planted where the northern limit of the right-of-way of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company crosses the western bank of the Zimergoetz River, and being about 400 feet east of Mile 87; thence in a northerly direction along the western shore of said river a distance of thirty (30) chains; thence easterly parallel with the northern limit of the Grand Trunk Pacific right-of-way, a distance of ten (10) chains; thence southerly parallel with the western shore of the said river to the northern limit of the right-of-way of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company; thence westerly along the said northern limit of the said right-of-way ten (10) chains more or less to the place of commencement.

DATED this seventh day of January, 1914.
THOMAS McCLYMONT.
Pub. Feb. 3 to April 6.

A NEWSPAPER
for Prince Rupert and Northern B.C.

The Daily News goes into nearly every home in Prince Rupert. It is the popular newspaper of the city because it is clean and reliable. It has all the news of the city, and keeps in touch with events and topics interesting to Northern British Columbia. It treats these subjects with moderate optimism and reliability.

The Daily News is the most valuable paper to advertisers because it is read by the buying public. It has a bigger circulation than any other paper in the city. It is read by the class of people the advertisers want to talk to.
