JOE LALLY WILL HELP TO BOOST LACROSSE

Cornwall Enthusiast Writes of His Coming Tour of the West

Further details of the Western tour of Joe Lally, of Cornwall, Ont., to encourage the lacrosse spirit in the Canadian boys and which was announced early last autumn are contained in a letter received from the Cornwall lacrosse enthusiast by Matt J. Barr, former president of the Vancouver Lacrosse club, in which he states that he will be in Vancouver about March 5.

In his letter Mr. Lally has the following to say: "If nothing unforeseen happens I hope to be in Vancouver about March 5. I am going to the coast this spring with the intention of assisting in the amateur lacrosse movement in British Columbia. I have made arrangements with the Canadian Amateur Lacrosse Association to assist them in every possible manner in building up the game on strictly amateur lines. "We may visit the different schools and have a talk with the boys with the object of organizing lacrosse in every school in Vancouver and other B.C. cities, and I would also like very much if you would see a number of the prominent citizens in Vancouver who are connected with sports and have them address the boys. If we can do this, I am satisfied that we can put lacrosse back where it was in the days when you were playing it yourself. I am prepared to offer twelve gold medals for competition in the schools if it is possible to organize leagues. These medals I will have along with me and they will be a credit to any one winning them."

- FACT HUNGER -

As children, our first demand is for nourishment; our second for facts.

All through life we go about searching for information.

We make a new acquaintance; but before we will accept him as a friend or invite him to our home we ask for facts about him.

We visit a foreign land; and from the moment we step across its border we are asking questions—searching for facts.

We are asked to try a new food product; isn't it instinctive with us to ask at once:

"Who makes this new article?"

"How is it made? what goes into it?"

"Is it worth the price charged for it?"

Facts—we are simply hungry for them.

Strange, isn't it, that we should so often have to search for them? Odd, that some manufacturers still withhold the facts about their product. Not always because they are facts to be ashamed of—for there are many worthy articles yet unadvertised.

But it will not be so much longer. The fact-hunger of the human race is becoming keener and keener. The more facts we get, the keener our relish for more of them.

Soon it will be impossible to sell a man or a woman anything until everything has been told about the goods that can be told through Advertising.

The public has discovered that Advertising tells much-needed facts—that, in fact, Advertising satisfies fact-hunger.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 505, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
