STONE WALL BULGED THREATENED CITY HALL

Reinforced Concrete Pillar Put Under Corner to Support It

The high rubble stone retaining wall which the Dominion government is building around the Pioneer club lots has been slipping for the past few days, threatening to fall in on the rear of the city hall. The employees at the city hall have had their desks moved and make a jump for the door every time a noise is heard. It has been getting on their nerves.

On Saturday a steel column was put under the dangerous corner of the wall and then filled in with concrete.

It has not slipped since, but it will take a few days to make sure that the wall is safe.

The Kitchenless Home

In an address delivered by Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Kilman at the Hotel Astor in New York City the other day, she ventured the prediction that the home of the future would have its grass plot, its hearthstone and its children, but no kitchen. The housewife of the future, according to this lady, will do her ordering the night before from a laboratory conducted for the special purpose of supplying kitchenless homes with food. This food will be delivered in thermos boxes. Fifty per cent of the people in the world, it was held, are now busy waiting on the other fifty per cent, and yet the work could be done by seven per cent. The whole trouble lies in the fact, so it was contended, that domestic affairs are carried on in a primitive, inefficient, unsatisfactory manner. Transfer the cooking to a laboratory, abolish the kitchen, dispense with the culinary help, order your food delivered in thermos boxes, and if there is anything more that any reasonable person could desire, that will be attended to later.

Prince Olav Fish Sold

This morning the 3,000 lbs. of halibut on board the fishing schooner Prince Olav were sold by Capt. Newcombe. The successful bidders were the Atlin Fisheries. The fish were unloaded at the government wharf and the Prince Olav was then taken to the marine station wharf and tied up waiting the disposition of the craft by the admiralty court.

The Poor Man's University

"JONES knows more about motor cars than any other man I know," said a man to his friend. "He has obtained his knowledge chiefly from motor car advertisements, and the catalogues and booklets circulated through them."

"All I know about photography," declared a well-known amateur, "I have learned from the men who advertise cameras, plates, papers and films."

Advertisements have been well called "The Poor Man's University," but other than poor men have been schooled thereby.

Much of what the average individual knows concerning personal and domestic hygiene, modern office methods, books and authors, electricity, precious stones, investments, and almost everything else, he has learned from advertisements.

Advertisements have stimulated our intelligence, added enormously to our knowledge, and given us aspirations which have raised us to higher levels of thinking and living. Advertising is indeed "The Poor Man's University."

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.
If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumden Building, Toronto.

Many a girl's matrimonial chances would bump the bumps if a young man could see her as her mother sees her.

for Prince Rupert and Northern B.C.

The Daily News goes into nearly every home in Prince Rupert. It is the popular newspaper of the city because it is clean and reliable. It has all the news of the city, and keeps in touch with events and topics interesting to Northern British Columbia. It treats these subjects with moderate optimism and reliability.

The Daily News is the most valuable paper to advertisers because it is read by the buying public. It has a bigger circulation than any other paper in the city. It is read by the class of people the advertisers want to talk to.
