Royal Standard Parker House Rolls

No. 5—Cut out and paste in your recipe book.

Dissolve one tablespoon butter in pint hot milk. When lukewarm stir in one quart Royal Standard, one beaten egg, on tea cup yeast; work into dough till smooth; let stand overnight, work softly and roll out half-inch and cut into rolls and set to rise for 30 minutes; then bake.

—BETTY BROWN.

ROYAL Standard lifts any recipe out of commonplace.

Its chief appeal to the housewife is its uniform excellence. It performs in precisely the same way 365 bake days in the year.

Here's your "memory word" for "flour"—ROYAL STANDARD! Thousands of cooks have remembered and used ROYAL STANDARD since the day it was first put on the market. Why not you?

Use ROYAL STANDARD and memories of that "spoiled batch" will vanish.

Why not phone your grocer now for a sack lest you forget?

The back doors in the city jail are being closed up. One is barricaded with timbers and the other is walled in with cement.

The World is the first Vancouver paper to break the price in newspapers in British Columbia. It is now sold at two cents on the streets.

Mrs. Walter Owen and children left this morning for Vancouver, where they will make their home. Their many friends here showered them with good wishes and invitations to return. Chief Owen will not leave for his new position for a few days yet.

The railway to be used for hauling freight from the head of Shawattans lake to the power plant is nearly complete. The rails are laid half way to the plant.

Three drunks appeared in police court this morning. Two pleaded guilty and were charged $5. The third didn't think he was drunk. The evidence of the constable showed he was so drunk that he fell out of his bunk during the night. The magistrate charged him $2 extra for taking up the time of the court.

According to Conservative advice from the war office in Victoria, the McBride government promises to come through later with the $35,000 for Morse creek bridge, which they reneged on recently. The proposal made by them now is to give the city an I. O. U. for the amount to be paid next year. Apparently the C. N. R. got all the real money.

BILL TOLD MAGISTRATE HE WON'T BE BACK

Wm. Vincent, charged with vagrancy and being an interdict, was before Magistrate Carss this morning. He was penitent and wanted to go fishing.

"I have a partner waiting on the launch for me. We are ready to go off on an eight day trip."

"Well, I'll let you go this time, but if you ever come up again I'll fix you good."

"Many thanks, your honor; I'll not be back," and Bill skipped down stairs like a boy just out from school.

SONS OF ENGLAND DO HONOR TO PATRON SAINT

Mayor Newton in response said the resourcefulness of the citizens was equal to the task and any accommodation required would be forthcoming.

"The Motherland," proposed by Mr. Arthur Silversides was ably responded to by Mr. Fred Stork. It was the land of his father and his mother and in a very real sense his mother land. He reviewed the impressions one receives from the great pageants of Empire. London was the headquarters of John Bull as a visitor could soon tell. He hoped for the time when the old firm would become John Bull & Sons, Unlimited.

"The Ladies" was fittingly proposed by Mr. Fitzmaurice and equally fittingly responded to by Mr. J. C. Brady. Mr. Brady is capable, too, for as he told his audience he was married within the past year. All greatness springs from noble women and should be perpetuated by gallant men. Men may try to deceive their wives—he did sometimes—but the feminine mind knows. It was more complicated than city finance. "On behalf of the noble women of our country I thank you for the honor you have conferred on them."

"Kindred Societies" was proposed by Mr. A. W. Edge and responded to by Mr. J. H. Kelly.

"The Press" was proposed by Mr. Frank Salter and responded to by Mr. H. F. McRae.

A number of musical selections were interspersed by the Messrs. Davey, Ling, Froud, Davies, Darton, Evans, Waddell and Woods, which added cheerfulness to the gathering. A comic selection by Mr. Owen was well received, as well as a recitation by Mr. Brady.

An orchestra composed of W. J. Briggs, Walter Miller, J. L. Lee, J. B. McKay and Jas. Kelly rendered excellent music.
